Mrs. W. G. Walling Heads Woman's Club For Another Season

MRS. Willoughby G. Walling was re-elected president of the Winnetka Woman's club, at the annual meeting held last week Thursday in the club rooms. Other officers elected at this time for the coming year were:

First Vice-president, Mrs. Wallace W. Chickering.

Second Vice-president, Miss Ruth H. Matz.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. Donald Dallas.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ralph Monroe Snyder.

Treasurer, Mrs. Alfred G. Freeman.

Member-at-large, Mrs. Walter A. Strong.

Chairmen of Committees:
Art and Literature, Mrs. John Vennema.

Education, Mrs. Harry N. Gottlieb.

Civics and Philanthropy, Mrs. Arthur W. Cushman.

House, Mrs. William A. Otis.

Social, Mrs. Arthur H. Woodward.

Music, Mrs. Norman W. Harris.

Finance and Auditing, Mrs. George S. Parker.

There were one hundred and fifty covers for the luncheon which was served at tables placed in the parlors and decorated with spring flowers.

The business session and election followed. A vote was taken on the report of the Revisions committee as presented by Mrs. E. E. Brown, chairman, and changes were made in the by-laws as recommended. Reports were given by the following officers:

Miss Ruth Matz, corresponding secretary and chairman of Year Book committee; Mrs. Henry F. Tenney, recording secretary; Mrs. Alfred Freeman, treasurer; Mrs. George S. Parker, Finance and Auditing; Mrs. William A. Otis, House committee; Mrs. Arthur Barrett, Rug committee; Mrs. Wallace W. Chickering, membership committee; Mrs. Fred H. Sterling, Press committee; Mrs. Harve G. Badgerow, Civics and Philanthropy committee; Mrs. Harry N. Gottlieb, Education committee; Mrs. John R. Fletcher, French classes; Mrs. Charles E. Karstrom, Music committee; Mrs. John Vennema, Art and Literature; Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Drama Study class.

A letter was read and recommended sent to the Business Men's club assuring the club that the Woman's club is in favor of the Thursday afternoon closing for the business houses in the village and asking that it be made a common policy by the association. It was further urged upon the members that they refrain from shopping on that afternoon.

Miss Kathryn Greene pleased her audience by her rendition of the following group of songs:

To A Rose ..... Mac Fadzean

Take Joy Home ..... Bassett

Little Brother's Lullaby ..... Broeckx

Butterflies ..... Seiler

Souper ..... Stern

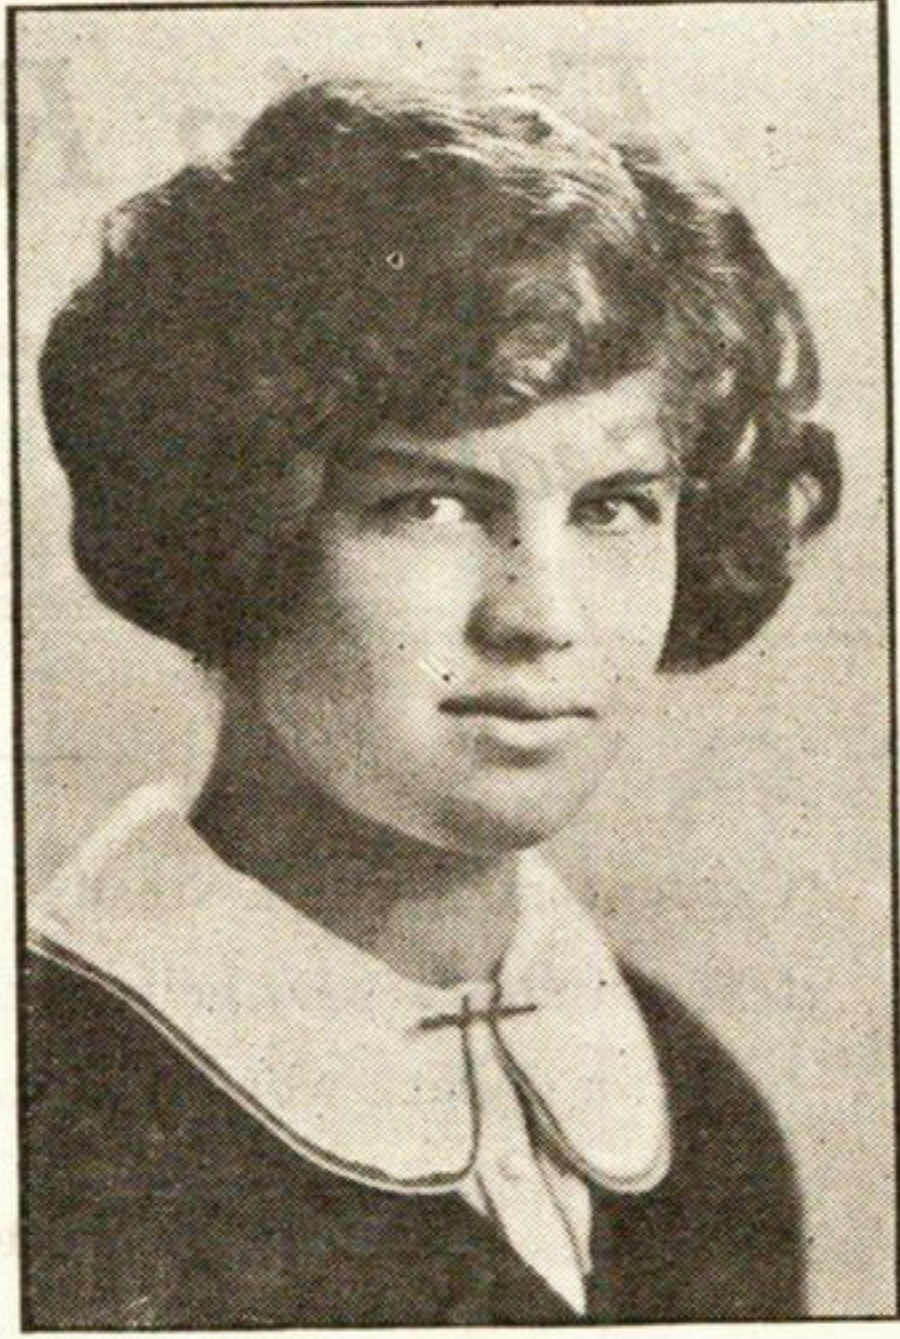

Seven north shore girls are taking leading parts or are to hold executive positions in "Milady's Bandbox" the all-girl revue, which will be produced at the New Trier high school auditorium by the Woman's Athletic association of Northwestern university on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 4 and 5.

Virginia Bull, 524 Maple avenue, Wilmette, is on the executive board of the production as stage manager. Margaret Couffer, 903 Lake avenue, and Elizabeth Cutler, 1001 Lake avenue, Wilmette, have been chosen as costume managers for the cast. From Hubbard Woods, Alice McKeown, 935 Private road, takes the part of a wandering minstrel. She is noted for her bird calls. Hazel Fraser, 625 Abbottsford road, is a Kenilworth girl appearing in the cast as the leader of the Gob chorus and as Gob soloist. Glencoe is represented in the cast by Dorothy Duncan, 595 Vernon avenue, who takes the part of a head waitress in a French scene.

Aside from holding positions on the executive board Miss Couffer, Wilmette, wrote a number of the lyrics which are being used in the show. Other lyrics were written by Ethel Flentye, 792 Lake avenue, Wilmette, who also takes a part in the play.

"Milady's Bandbox" is the second annual revue that the Woman's Athletic association has attempted. The play this year centers about milady's travels over the seven seas and through the various countries of the world. The cast includes 125 Northwestern girls, many of whom hail from the North Shore. The play is being coached by LeRoy Prinz, who is well known in amateur dramatic circles.

There will be three performances of "Milady's Bandbox." There will be evening performances on Friday and Saturday nights, May 4 and 5, and a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eston V. Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Couffer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Latham, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Bull, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flentye, are listed among the patrons and patronesses of the musical comedy.

A half-mile of floats, three hundred amateur clowns and tramps, four world's champion swimmers, and a military escort—these will take part in the seventh annual circus to be held at Patten gymnasium, Northwestern university, Saturday, April 28.

The swimming exhibitions will be conducted in an improvised wooden tank in Patten gymnasium. The entrants for honors are Ralph Breyer, the Northwestern swimming ace, John Weismuller, Sybil Bauer and Richard Howell, each of whom holds world records.

The parade will form at Patten gymnasium at one o'clock Saturday, and fraternities, sororities, and independent campus organizations, will contend for various silver loving cups and medals to be awarded by the circus management. The Northwestern military band and R. O. T. C. unit will lead the parade.

The promenade will wind through the Evanston business district and end on the field north of the gymnasium for relay races and stunts. Throughout the evening a giant merry-go-round will provide entertainment for the frolicking youngsters.

The Northwestern circus is given annually under the joint auspices of the college branches of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Miss Alicia Pratt will close her dancing class season with a delightful exhibition and party this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock at the Evanston Woman's club, the net proceeds of which will go to the Winnetka and Evanston Infant Welfare. A group of Winnetka girls who will take part in many of the dances, includes Helen Smith, Jane Younker, Martha Eitzbach, Jeannette Hill, Helen Parsons, Hazel Cooney, Ruth Hamburger, Mary Lutz, Helen Manley, Jeannette Masten, and Jeanne and Katherine Street.

The affair promises to be very beautiful for there will be many lovely costumes. Features will include a Chinese Wedding Procession, and a Spring Pageant. . . In the storm scene, Helen Smith takes the part of "Lightning" and also the "Butterfly" in the spring scene after the storm. In another part of the program Helen Smith and Jane Younker will dance "Coming Thro' the Rye."

"Camp Wipigaki," located on White Sand lake, near Lac du Flambeau, Wisconsin, the camp which is being built by a group of Winnetka residents in the heart of the muskellunge and pike fishing grounds will be completed within another month according to a recent report. There will be ten houses for the ten families who comprise the camp organization, namely Mr. and Mrs. Roswell B. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Austin D. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Zeiss, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. William D. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Buckingham, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Greeley, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel H. Blatchford Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Strong and Dr. and Mrs. C. Andersen Aldrich, and a large building that will serve as community kitchen and dining room, on the grounds.

The New Trier Circle will hold its final meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. R. N. Puetz, 452 Sunset road on Tuesday, May 1. This will be an all day meeting and all members are requested to be in attendance.

At the last meeting held at the residence of Mrs. James Stevenson, the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Mrs. James H. Gilson, chairman; Mrs. Hymen Racelin, secretary; Mrs. R. Kuipers, treasurer. At the meeting on Tuesday, Mrs. Gilson will appoint her committees for the coming year.

Invitations numbering to a thousand were issued late last week by the class of 1911 of Northwestern university alumni of the north shore for a May Day silver tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charles Russell, 316 Davis street, on Tuesday afternoon, May 1, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Silver coins, silver certificates and Liberty bonds will be acceptable as contributions, as a benefit for the woman's building fund.

The directors of the Arden Shore association invite the public to attend the Annual Home-Coming Day to be held at the camp at Lake Bluff on Saturday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock. This day is part of the follow-up work which is done among the boys who have left the camp and are in business in Chicago. It is one of the most interesting days at Arden Shore.
