Another Prize Announced In Ship-Building Contest

Another fifteen-day scholarship to the Adventure Island camp of Charles A. Kinney has been added to the list of scholarships for which Glencoe, Winnetka and Wilmette boys are competing in a ship building contest.

This scholarship is being offered for the best model of an historic ship to be built in the contest. Already, considerable interest has been evidenced in the new prize, models of the Santa Marie, Mayflower and Half Moon being constructed.

The historical scholarship is the fourth to be offered as awards in the ship building contest.
