

PHOTODRAMAS

At Neighboring Theatres

The New Evanston

Nazimova, the incomparable, will be the attraction at the New Evanston Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week in her interpretation of the famous historical character, "Salome," famous alike in operatic and stage productions. An added feature for this week-end will be the newest "Our Gang" comedy one of the New Evanston prime favorites.

Beginning Monday, May 7, Allan Dwan's "Glimpses of the Moon" will be seen at the New Evanston. This is Mr. Dwan's first production since the famous "Robin Hood" which has taken movie fans by storm. Bebe Daniels, David Powell and Nita Naldi are the principal characters in the film which is heralded as one of the greatest production in photodramatic history.

A feature of New Evanston programs is the Topics of the Day gleaned from the daily press. The organ music has attracted attention throughout the north shore, and the Ensemble music is an established institution of proved merit.

Hoyburn Theater

The usual big week of films is arranged for the six-day period beginning Monday, May 7, at the Hoyburn Theatre.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Hoyburn patrons are to have the great film drama "Hearts Aflame." Starring in this sensational drama are Frank Keenan, Anna Q. Nilsson, Russell Simpson and Richard Tucker.

"Hungry Hearts," with Bryant Washburn and Helen Ferguson, is the Hoyburn program for Thursday, May 10. "An appealing drama of the nature of 'Humoresque,' reports one critic.

Friday, May 11 is another benefit day at the Hoyburn. This time it is the Pi Beta Phi and the vehicle is Booth Tarkington's "The Flirt." In the cast are Eileen Perry, Helen Jerome Eddy, George Nichols and Buddy Marguerite De La Motte, Ralph Graves Messenger.

"Just Like a Dream," with Mar and George Fawcett, will be the attraction for Saturday, May 12.

Truly, a big week at the Hoyburn!

Howard Theater

Jackie Coogan will open next week's program at the Howard Theatre in the well recommended drama, "Daddy," the youthful star's latest triumph. "Daddy" will remain at the Howard headliner through Wednesday May 9. Other attractions for the three days beginning Monday, May 7 will be, "In the Land of King Tut," and a comedy entitled, "The Pest."

Lon Chaney will hold the limelight at the Howard for two days beginning Thursday, May 10. The vehicle for the great character star is "Flesh and Blood." An added attraction for Thursday and Friday will be "The Pest of the Storm Country," starring Louise Fazenda.

On Saturday Howard audiences will view Johnnie Walker's latest success, "The Fourth Musketeer." "A Tailor Made Chauffeur" will be a comedy attraction.

Theodore Roberts comes to the Howard Sunday, May 13, in "Grumpy," conceded by critics to be one of the best photodramas of the season. "Grumpy" will appear for three days, closing its performance Tuesday night, May 15.

Adelphi Theater

"Adam's Rib," an elaborate and soul-stirring drama, depicting the sacrifices of a daughter for errant father and mother, at the risk of her own good name, will be seen at the Adelphi on Monday and Tuesday, May 7 and 8. "Adam's Rib" is a Cecil DeBille production starring Milton Sills, Karsloff, Elliott Dexter, Anna Q. Nilsson and other film luminaries. There are 10,000 people in the production, it is said.

"Hearts Aflame," starring Frank Keenan, and which recently concluded a remarkably successful run at the Chicago Theatre, will be at the Adelphi on Wednesday and Thursday, May 9 and 10. An added attraction will be "My Hero."

Bebe Daniels and Louise Fazenda will be the stars for Friday and Saturday, May 11 and 12. Miss Daniels will be seen in "Glimpses of the Moon," and Miss Fazenda in "The Pest of the Storm Country." Round Three of "Fighting Blood" will also be on the bill for those days.

Elaine Hammerstein, with Conway Tearle in "One Week of Love," will be shown for Adelphi patrons on Sunday, May 13.

What Movie People Like Best For Lunch

The ardent interviewers of film celebrities love to tell the fans what their idols think, read and talk about, but it remains for Truly Shattuck, ex-vaudeville headliner, who deserted her contract to open a cafeteria at the Schulberg studio, to divulge the preferences of the great when lunch time comes around. Here are Miss Shattuck's revelations:

Gaston Glass goes in for vegetables with a variation of hot roast beef sandwiches on occasions.

Ethel Shannon, tiniest of screen players, keeps her ninety-eight pounds fit on noon-day repasts of cream puffs and iced tea.

Kenneth Harlan says a diet of vegetables—preferably in salads—keeps him in the perfect trim and makes it possible for him to whip his director Tom Forman, in their daily boxing encounters.

Orville Caldwell, whom Elinor Glyn says is the nearest approach to physical perfection on the screen, admits a preference for the most substantial chops and steaks that Truly produces so successfully.

Gasnier carries on directorial duties on a diet of French sausage not entirely innocent of garlic.

Victor Schertzinger, director-composer, probably is the most daring of the diners at Miss Shattuck's cafe. For hot mince pie, hashes, and other dishes that involve a vote of confidence to the place in which they are served, are his favorites.

Eve Unsell, famous screen editor, claims that baked potatoes and cold drinks are the last word in brain food.

10,000 Movie Owners To Meet In Chicago on May 19

Chicago will become the center of the movie world May 19, when 10,000 members of the Motion Picture Theater Owners of America will hold their fourth annual convention at the Coliseum. For one week, owners from every state in the union will discuss such questions as censorship, the amusement tax, and the payment of royalties on copyrighted music. In conjunction with the convention, a Motion Picture Palace of Progress will be thrown open to the public.

The Palace of Progress will show by means of different exhibits the entire progress of moviedom, from the earliest days. Side by side with the latest and most perfect films will be run off some of the old thrillers including "The Great Train Robbery," one of the first three-reel features ever produced.

Other exhibits will be of the new stereoscopic film, which throws persons and objects on it into relief, of submarine photography, of scientific pictures (including X-rays) and of colored films. Arrangements are being made to bring the first showing in Chicago of the talking movies recently invented.

Visitors to the Palace of Progress will see exactly how a movie is made—from the manufacture of the film to the training of the players. A comedy movie will actually be made.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mildred Cooper, a former resident of Wilmette, to Mr. George W. Rand of Hanover, New Hampshire.

STANDARD OF THE WORLD

CADILLAC

Perhaps no other motor car is so universally respected by its owners for the generous measure of satisfaction it gives as Cadillac.

What few owners realize at the time of purchase is that this reputation has an additional and more tangible value than the proved performance of the car.

Hosts of instances come to our attention where Cadillac owners who previously drove other cars (many of lower initial cost) have found that they could have owned and driven Cadillacs for the same period with a much smaller expenditure.

They not only experienced the heavy loss due to depreciation of cars of lower resale value, but sacrificed the satisfaction derived from the ownership of a fine car.
