

WOMEN FOSTER PEACE PROGRAM

Illinois Leader to Attend European Conference

What leaders of women in Europe think American women can do for the cause of peace will be made public in July, if Mrs. Maud Wood Park's plans go well.

At the recent convention of the National League of Women Voters, she, as president of the organization, and head of the league's delegation to the congress of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance in Rome, was authorized to select two women from that delegation and travel with them through Italy, France, and Germany, interviewing women of prominence on what effective peace work they believe American women can do, and recording their views for the information not only of organized women in the United States but of the general public.

Mrs. Park, who is on her way to Rome where the congress begins this week, has selected Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. James Morrisson, of Illinois, daughter of Dudley Foulke, to make up the informal commission of inquiry, making her choice from a list which includes as delegates Mrs. Frank J. Shuler, New York; Dr. Katherine Davis, New York; Frederick Nathan, New York; Mrs. James Paige, Minnesota; Mrs. Ann Webster, New Mexico; Mrs. W. Y. Morgan; Kansas; Miss Caroline Roberts, Maryland; Mrs. Craig Miller, Michigan; and Mrs. John Jay O'Connor, District of Columbia. The list of alternates is: Miss Alice Howell, Nebraska; Mrs. Julian Nathan, France; Mrs. Genevieve Parkhurst, New York; Mrs. Evie Prendergast, New York; Mrs. John T. Murphy, New Mexico.

Atmosphere of Erin Is Found In This Film

One of the biggest productions of the year will be shown at Community House on Friday, May 25. It is entitled "My Wild Irish Rose" and is a screen adaptation of "The Shaughraun," Dion Boucicault's great Irish melodrama of nearly fifty years ago, and which is particularly timely in view of the present political situation in Ireland. The Boucicault play lends itself admirably to screen production, being spectacular and melodramatic to a degree. It was directed by David Smith, who has caught the true Irish spirit. The title role originally played by Mr. Boucicault is assumed by Pat O'Malley, one of the best known screen actors in this type of role, and Moya, the Shaughraun's sweetheart, is in the capable hands of Pauline Starke, a role that fits her to perfection. The remainder of the cast, which includes little Richard Daniels, who made such a hit in "The Little Minister," has been selected with equal care.

National Scout Council To Be Held July 9 and 10

The fourteenth annual meeting of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held in New York City, July 9 and 10. The development of out-of-door life will receive special emphasis, and at least one of the sessions of the meeting will be held at the Boy Scout Camps, Interstate Palisade Park, N. Y., which are the largest boys' camps in the world.

This yearly meeting brings together in the interests of Scouting and American boyhood, men of every walk of life. The National Council is composed of over one thousand men, many of whom are nationally prominent in the church, school, business and professional worlds.

SCANDINAVIAN CLUB DANCE

The Scandinavian Pleasure club of Winnetka will hold its regular monthly dance at Community House this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

ADVENTURE ISLE REUNION

Boys who have cavorted on Adventure Island, Sturgeon Bay and cruised the Lakes in recent summers with Charles A. Kinney, director of shop work in the Winnetka schools, are to hold their annual reunion this evening in the Skokie school building. There will be a regular camp supper and the usual lay-out of fun.

Mr. Robert Boak and Miss Alice Boak, of 1030 Sheridan road, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Magie, daughter of Mrs. Frank Ogden Magie, sailed recently for Europe.
