

Kenilworth Happenings

AN open meeting of the Musicale Guild was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Amuel B. Spach, 228 Leicester road, on Sunday afternoon last. The Guild is an association of music lovers and musicians whose aim is to protect and promote the interest of young American artists.

Mrs. Schaussler, one of the founders of the Guild, gave a short talk on the aims and ideals of the organization. Mr. Boza Oumiroff of the Bush Conservatory of Music gave a most delightful program of Czecho-Slovakian Folk Songs, accompanied by Mrs. Oumiroff. About seventy-five guests were present.

It is hoped that a chapter of the Guild may be formed on the North Shore, the object of which will be to organize a Chamber Music organization. Already there are plans for three Chamber Music programs to be given next winter. Any residents of the north shore who are interested in this series of programs for next winter are asked to communicate with Mrs. Spach.

Mrs. Mark D. Cresap, 239 Essex road, was hostess to forty alumnae members of the Northwestern chapter, of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. David DeCamp, 615 Abbottsford road, left Tuesday to attend the Derby at Louisville, Kentucky, this week-end. Later they will go to French Lick Springs for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Joslin, 240 Essex road, and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt H. Dement, 337 Abbottsford road, will arrive home on Saturday from Virginia Hot Springs, where they have been sojourning this past month.

On Saturday, May 19, the Village of Kenilworth will vote on a Bond Issue for money to be used for an addition of four rooms for the Joseph Sears school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Harrison of Abbottsford road, entertained informally at their home, in honor of Miss Myrna Sharlow and Mrs. Sharlow, following the recital given at the Kenilworth Assembly on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Berger, 306 Kenilworth avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bentley, formerly of Winnetka, at dinner on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hicks, 241 Melrose avenue, returned home Monday evening from French Lick Springs, where they have been vacationing the past fortnight.

Miss Mary Joyce, 703 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, celebrated her ninth birthday by entertaining twelve of her small friends informally on Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Robert Danly, 336 Essex road, will entertain at dinner and bridge tomorrow evening. There will be covers for sixteen guests.

Mrs. F. L. Streed and two children, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Streed's parents in Greensburg, Indiana, for several weeks.

The Home and Garden club will have its next meeting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Kunkel, 414 Abbottsford road, Monday afternoon, May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Cherry, 422 Abbottsford road, will leave today on a motor trip to Columbus, Ohio, where they will make an extended visit.

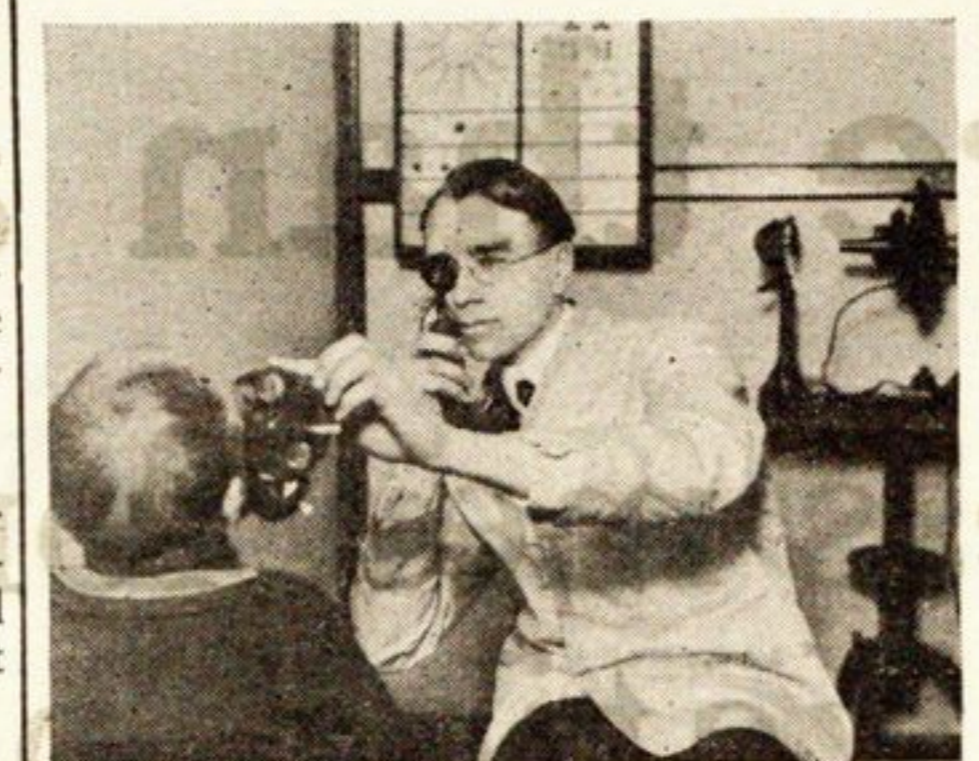

Mr. Burt A. Crowe, 234 Raleigh road, returned to his home on Tuesday morning from a week's fishing trip at Snow Bank Lake in northern Minnesota.

Mrs. E. D. Parmelee, 512 Roslyn road, entertained the Winnetka Duplicate Bridge club at her home, at luncheon, on Tuesday last.

Mrs. W. B. Kunkel, 414 Abbottsford road, entertained her Bridge club at luncheon today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Littell, 322 Woodstock avenue, were host and hostess to twenty-five guests at a dinner party given at the Pink Poodle on Tuesday evening.

Miss Phoebe Hedrick, 304 Melrose avenue, spent the week-end in Genoa, Ill., as the guest of Miss Florence Leich.

Since the Examination determines whether or not glasses are needed, and also the kind of lens suited for each eye, this is the MOST IMPORTANT FACTOR when considering the need of glasses.

Without a THOROUGH EXAMINATION a slight strain is easily overlooked, and IT IS THESE LITTLE STRAINS WHICH THE EYE CAN OVERCOME that usually cause the most discomfort and oft-times real suffering.

Our examinations are thorough. 13 years of successful practice.

Where Are Your Savings?

Do You Invest Conservatively?

Do you know that public utility securities are rated among the best investments on the market today?

Five Reasons Why

Modern civilization is absolutely dependent upon public utilities.

Years of successful operation have demonstrated the stability of public utility companies.

They have become recognized by law and practice as publicly regulated servants.

Because they are based upon vital necessities and are so well regulated their securities rank next to National Banks in minimum risks.

The development of new uses for their services provide an ever increasing market and an opportunity for added resources and earnings.

The North Shore Gas Company 7% cumulative preferred shares offer an opportunity for local investors to make a home investment in a modern well organized public utility.

The North Shore Gas Company 7% preferred shares offer special inducement to the residents of the North Shore district.
