Watch a man reading a paper when his eye catches sight of a full-page ad. He holds the paper off a little to get the proper perspective. It's that extra minute or two of inspection given the ad that gives it the opportunity to make an extra strong impression upon him. That's why full-page ads are worth so much and why so many of our advertisers use them.

The Earl Coal Motor company of Evanston has been changed to North Side Motors of Evanston under the management of Samuel D. Wemphor. The firm is to extend its building fifty feet to provide more space for sales and service departments. The concern is representative of the Chandler, Cleveland, Durant and Star cars.

The Snider and Cazel Drug company, known to every resident of Wilmette as the proprietors of the up-to-date pharmacy at the northeast corner of Wilmette and Central avenues is establishing another drug store in the new Aiken building a Hubbard woods. Another big step in the march of progress on the north shore, as it were.

The Black and White Cab company has moved its taxi-cab offices from Prouty Annex to a new location in the Richardson Garage building on E. Elm street. Two new cabs, the type used by the Yellow Cab company in Chicago, have been added to the company's "fleet" of meter taxis.

The Winnetka State Bank is publishing some interesting statistics this week. Usually statistics are "dry as dust," but the growth of the State bank in its fourteen years of existence is quite "live stuff," since it represents in a way, the development of the village over that period of time. Good reading!

Henry Schaffler, formerly head-gardener for James Simpson at Glen-coe, has established himself as landscape designer and gardener. He is highly recommended to prospective home builders on the north shore.

The R. H. Schell Dry Goods store in Hubbard Woods has been moved from the southeast corner of Gage street and Linden avenue to 983 Linden avenue, where it is now open for business.

F. Mueller, florist at Scott and Linden avenues, is advising householders to get their window boxes filled before Decoration Day. He also says it is time to plant annuals.

Kenilworth Votes Saturday on New School Bond Issue

Kenilworth is now under the protection of a splendid zoning ordinance. Building operations are under proper legal control. If you want to put up a home on a lot having an area less than 12,500 square feet, you can't build it east of the tracks. You'll have to go over into Zone B. If you want to construct a building for a store or other commercial purposes, you'll have to find room in Zones C or D.

We congratulate Kenilworth residents on being in a position to receive the benefits of this excellent zoning ordinance.

NEW TRIER OPEN HOUSE ON MAY 26

High School Invites Inspection by Parents

Annual "Open House" is to be observed at New Trier Township High school Friday evening, May 26, according to word received this week from the officials of the secondary school.

Parents and friends of high school students and all other persons interested in the school are cordially invited to on that day make an exhaustive inspection of the school plant at Indian Hill.

"Open House" will begin with a mass meeting in the school auditorium with Miss Elizabeth Packer, acting principal, in charge of the program. Included among the features of the meeting will be music by the Glee clubs and the High school orchestra, a reading by Miss Myrtle Best and vocal numbers by Ridway Daggy.

Miss Packer will speak at the meeting, outlining the details of the summer school program at New Trier.

The departmental grouping of teachers will make it very convenient for parents to meet for consultation over students' work or any other matters of interest. The various teachers of each department will be assigned special rooms and a schedule or chart will be furnished the guests in order to simplify the task of locating any particular teacher.

BOLTS SPEEDERS' COURT; $25 ADDED TO $50 FINE

Frank K. Thatcher, Newark, New Jersey, might be able to defy the law in his home city, but he couldn't do it in Wilmette when he tried to escape from the justice court last week. Instead of making good his "get away," he got another $25 fine attached to a $50 fine for speeding.

Thatcher was brought into Magistrate Mickey's court by officer Henry Brautigam. He was charged with speeding 48 miles an hour on Sheridan road. When the officer was summoned to the telephone, Thatcher ran out of the village hall, leaped into his
