

'BLAYDS' HAS ENGLISH TOUCH

Dallas Woman Secured for Important Role

BY L. D.

In closing its second season with "The Truth about Blayds," by A. A. Milne, the North Shore Theatre Guild feels that it is adhering in every way to the standards set by "Pygmalion," "Mixed Marriage," "Dear Brutus" and

Alexander Dean

"The Hero," four of its former successes. Milne is one of the greatest living English dramatists. His works are subtle and delicate in their satirical humor, his style whimsical. He is compared to Barrie.

The laughs accorded this play will be very different from those called forth by "Come Seven," but laughs there will be, for there are very amusing scenes.

Unusual Theme

"The folly of fetishism" might be said to be the theme of the play. What to do if one finds that his house has been built on shifting sands—or worse still, on no foundation at all! "You can't climb very high on a ladder unless you build it yourself," is the clever deduction of one critic.

It is, however, not a play with a moral obviously attached; but the situations are so unusual as to almost compel one to arrive at some definite and satisfactory ethical conclusion. There may be as many conclusions as there are persons in the audience, for Milne forces none of his own.

Alexander Dean, the director, has taken great pains to secure an adequate cast, one that is able to give the necessary touch of English atmosphere. When Sam Otis, as William Blayds Conway, steps on the stage, you can almost feel the fog in your face, don't you know!

Clever Characterizations

The play is not one of spirited action, but one dependent on clever characterizations for its potency.

Mr. L. L. Buchanan will play the part of the 90-year old poet around whom all the action centers. Mrs. Laird Bell will play the daughter, Marian, simple but doting. Mrs. Dorothy Coe Dunham will play the rebellious granddaughter, and Mr. Francis Butler, the grandson. Mr. J. Williams Macy, as Royce, the reporter, will help depict some of the most dramatic scenes of the play.

The part of Isabel, the daughter, faithful through the years to her father, will be played by Mrs. R. E. L. Knight, Jr., of Dallas, Texas. Mrs. Knight played this part with great success when Mr. Dean produced the play in Dallas. It was a happy coincidence which brought her to Chicago at this time, and a still happier one that she should consent to play it for us. Her work is proving an inspiration as well as a challenge to our local artists.

The schedule of dates for "Blayds" is as follows:

Saturday evening, June 2: Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial Hall, Skokie School, Winnetka.

Monday evening, June 4: Durand Hall, Lake Forest.

Tuesday evening, June 5: The Neighbors club, Kenilworth.

Wednesday evening, June 6: Evanston Woman's club.

There will be no reserved seats. Tickets will be on sale at the door. Reduced rates on tickets may be secured by purchasing tickets from members of the Guild.

For further information inquire of Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Winnetka.

NORTH SHORE GIRLS; SKOKIE BOYS WINNERS

North Shore Country Day school girls twice demonstrated that they could play baseball to their Skokie rivals this week. In the North Shore-Skokie girls' league, the N. S. Chiefs won over the Skokie Eagles 26 to 10, and the Iroquois defeated the Skokie Wildcats 17 to 14.

Earlier in the week the Skokie Eagles beat the Skokie Seagulls in a one-sided contest which ended in an 18 to 5 score. Another drubbing was administered when the Wildcats amassed 10 runs to three that were chalked up for the Skokie sluggers.

Skokie came back against the North Shore outfit when the Spartans, a Skokie team in the boys' league, won a 10 to 7 game from the North Shore team. The Sagamores, another Skokie team, did itself proud by winning two games Tuesday. The Sagamore crew beat the Stars 9 to 6 in the first tilt and 8 to 7 in the second. The Skokie Stags won from the Skokie Spartans in a 6 to 5 game last Friday.

HOLD "OPEN HOUSE" AT NEW TRIER SATURDAY

Saturday evening of this week will be the occasion of annual "Open House" at New Trier Township High school. The events of the evening will begin with a program to be held in the school auditorium at which acting principal Elizabeth Packer will preside.

The entertainment will include music by the Glee clubs and school orchestra, a reading by Miss Myrtle Best and vocal selections by Ridgway Daggy.

Following the program the school will be thrown open for a general inspection by parents and friends of the students.

We Fit All Three Dimensions Instead of Two

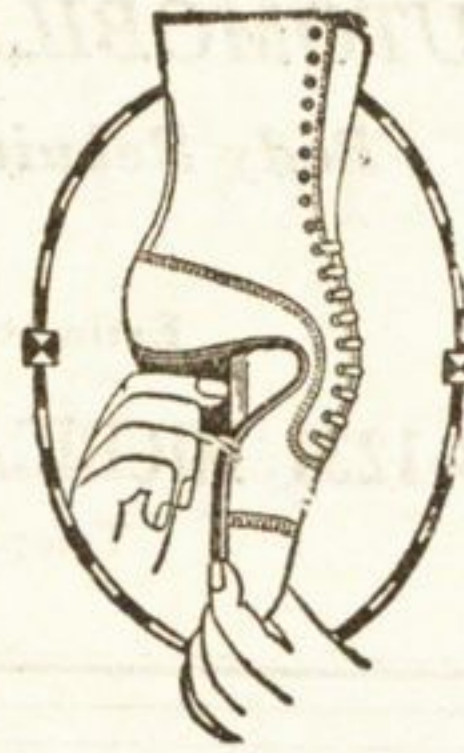

SHOES should be fitted three ways—for feet differ in depth, as well as in length and width.

One foot may have a long arch and short toes, another a short arch and long toes. Or a foot may be wide at the ball and very narrow at the heel.

But long or short, wide or narrow, thick or thin, your foot can be fitted comfortably in Cantilever Shoes.

Cantilevers will feel comfortably on your feet the first time you wear them. Lightweight, soft leathers are restful. The flexible arches leave your feet free to exercise. There is no rigidity, no metal underneath your arches to restrict their movement.

Cantilevers are good looking. Low, medium or Cuban heels. Buy a pair tomorrow. You will like them for their good looks and comfort.
