Traveling for Pleasure On the North Shore Line

The speed and frequency of North Shore trains, their dependable living up to schedule, the excellent dining service, are not all that recommend the road of service.

In the spring, especially, it is important to note that the North Shore Line runs through as picturesque a stretch of lake-and-woods country as ever delighted the eye of a traveler.

Roberta Skinner Becomes Bride of Thornton S. Adams

ONE of the most charming weddings of the season was celebrated on Saturday afternoon of last week, at St. Augustine's church, when Miss Roberta Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Buel Skinner, of Wilmette, was united in marriage to Thornton Shaw Adams, son of Mrs. Elmer H. Adams, of 535 Wellington avenue, Chicago. The gowns worn by the bridal attendants were very effective, the wedding gown being of white chiffon, made with a tight bodice and circular skirt. The veil of tulle draped the shoulders as a cape, was edged with rose point lace and held in place by two strands of pearls. Besides the little white prayer book, the bride carried a shower of lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. G. Ross Stewart of Wilmette, the bride's sister wore a draped gown of orchid, and a large horse hair hat, and carried a bouquet of orchids. Miss Virginia Buchanan, of Winnetka, as maid of honor, also wore a draped gown of green, a large green hat, and carried a bouquet of orchids. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Hardenbrook of Winnetka, Miss Lucile Weller of Chicago, Miss Rebecca Stickney of Boston, Mrs. Stanley B. Adams of Chicago, and Mrs. J. Eliot Warner of Evanston, wore frocks fashioned of grey chiffon trimmed with monkey fur, and small grey hats, with long grey ribbon streamers falling over the shoulder. They carried bouquets of yellow snapdragons. Little Shirley Adams, as flower girl, was dressed in pale pink, and carried an old fashioned bouquet of spring flowers.

Stanley B. Adams served his brother as best man, and the ushers included J. Eliot Warner, G. Ross Stewart, Thompson Merrick, Arthur Ferguson, J. Lorenzo Walter, Edward Robbins of Pittsburgh, and Reeve Hoover of Washington, D. C.

Rev. Hubert C. Carleton read the services at four-thirty o'clock. A reception at the Quilmette Country club followed. Decorations both in the church and clubhouse were large palms and ferns, and numerous baskets of spring flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have gone to French Lick Springs for a fortnight, and will be at home after June 16, at 535 Wellington avenue, Chicago.

Mrs. Adams is a graduate of Miss Wheelock's school in Boston, and also attended Devon Manor in Pennsylvania. Mr. Adams is a Yale graduate and a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Decoration Day morning proved to be a most wonderful day for the first general meeting and breakfast, of the Riding Club of Winnetka, since its incorporation this past winter. Members were permitted to entertain ladies as guests at breakfast and to participate in the ride. Heyliger A. deWindt is president of the club; C. Colton Daughday is vice-president; Martin Lindsay, secretary, and Howard W. Fenton, treasurer. At the meeting, the organization committee, consisting of Chairman Rush C. Butler, Stephen A. Foster, and Archibald W. Shaw; the bridle paths committee, Mr. Daughday as chairman, Arthur M. Cox and Walter F. Wallace; and the stables committee, consisting of the chairman, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Butler and Mr. Fenton, all reported briefly.

Among those who have recently taken up their residence in Winnetka, are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Morphet and sons, Archibald, Fred and Donald. Mr. Morphet was for some time associated with a Chicago daily newspaper, as Religious and assistant literary editor, and is at the present time a member of the editorial staff of a large publishing house. Archibald Morphet was the winner of the Chicago Architectural Club travelling scholarship for the year 1921, and quite recently returned home after an eight months' tour in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Morphet reside at 964 North avenue.
