

Youthful Artist to Have Her Own Exhibit at Field's Today

CAROLINE LOUISE BURNHAM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Burnham is to have an exhibit all her own open in this afternoon in the galleries on the second floor of Marshal Field and Company, and continuing throughout the first week in June.

This afternoon is to be a very special occasion since Carol Lou has invited all of her schoolmates and their mothers to view her European paintings, and since it may happen that many cannot arrange to attend today, another very special Winnetka afternoon is being planned for next Monday.

Among the sponsors of the little girl's exhibit are Mrs. Daniel H. Burnham of Evanston, Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. John Carol Lou has had the distinction of exhibiting a painting in the Spring Salon at Paris and a water color at the International Water Color Exhibit, as well as an exhibit of her own in the Anderson galleries in New York. The exhibit at Field's will include a cycle of her work from the age of four to the present time, and including her European paintings there will be one hundred pictures. So far she has had no formal instruction but apparently inherits her mother's rudiments of art. She will be graduated from the Winnetka public schools this month, and in the fall plans to enter New Trier high school.

In speaking of her exhibit in the invitations, Carol Lou says, "It will be quite informal and if you find it impossible to digest the art, there will be something delightful to eat."

On Saturday evening of this week will occur the marriage of Miss Phoebe Ella Hoffman, daughter of Mrs. John R. Hoffman, of the Evanston hotel, formerly of Wilmette, to Mr. George Alexander MacLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacLean, of Wilmette. As the family is in mourning the wedding will be a very quiet affair. Rev. George W. Farrar, of Ottawa, Ill., reading the services at 8:30 o'clock, at the Evanston hotel, in the presence of only the families and very intimate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. MacLean will be at home at 916 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette, after September 1.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be entertained for the June meeting by Mrs. Matilda Green, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry P. Clark, 958 Spruce street, Winnetka, on Monday, June 4. Mrs. W. H. Prisk of Wilmette will speak on "Non-Alcoholic Medication." Annual dues will be received as this meeting is the last of the season.

Mrs. D. S. Lasier is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Harris in Pasadena, Cal. Miss Marion Lasier is residing at the North Shore hotel, during her mother's absence. They expect to move into their newly completed home now under construction just next door to their former home at 731 Lincoln avenue, about the middle of this month.

Mrs. Merritt Starr, 695 Prospect avenue, while in good health, is taking a course of corrective exercises under Dr. Goldthwaite of Boston, in Covey Hill hospital, Brookline, Mass.
