

Kenilworth Happenings

KENILWORTH Memorial Services were conducted by the Kenilworth club on Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock. The John A. Logan Post No. 540, Grand Army of the Republic of Evanston, and officers from the Great Lakes Naval Station and Fort Sheridan were guests of honor.

The parade started at 2:30 P. M., with a Jackie band in the lead. Those who marched included the boys who took part in the war, the Boy Scouts, the pupils of the grammar school and citizen participants. Mr. John Benham served as marshal.

Exercises after the parade were held in the Kenilworth Assembly Hall. Rev. L. H. Danforth made the invocation and gave benediction. Mr. P. B. Eckhart made a few appropriate remarks to commemorate the Kenilworth boys lost in the war. The pupils of Joseph Sears school recited the Lincoln Gettysburg address. National hymns were sung by all and the navy band played a few selections.

Mr. John Lind has returned from a business trip to Washington, D. C.

Caroline Louise Burnham, thirteen-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Burnham, of Winnetka, will have an exhibit of her work next week in the galleries of Marshall Field and company. Miss Burnham has had the distinction of exhibiting a painting in the Spring Salon at Paris and a water color at the International Water Color exhibit as well as an exhibit of her own in the Anderson galleries in New York.

The exhibit at Field's will include the cycle of the young artist's work from the age of four to the present time, including her European paintings. She has had no formal instruction, but apparently inherits her mother's rudiments of art. She will be graduated from the Winnetka public schools in June, and will enter New Trier high school in the fall. A reception and tea will mark the opening of the exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sheridan, of Evanston, who have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, 430 Leicester road, left on Thursday for Ithaca, N. Y., to attend "Spring Day" at Cornell university.

Mrs. V. K. Spicer and her mother, Mrs. Higginson, 312 Essex road, are motoring to their seaside home near New Bedford, Conn., to be gone all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Swenson, of Minneapolis, Minn., announce the marriage of their daughter, Alyce Myrtle, to Harold Webster Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Hammond, of Hibbard road, formerly of Wilmette, on Monday, May 14. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond are making their home temporarily with Mr. Hammond's parents.

Mrs. John Lind, 315 Richmond road, who has been spending a month in Pass Christian, Miss., returned to her home recently.
