More about the seas at the Hoyburn next week-end. In fact, the entire week's program will have much to do with the broad stretches of the ocean. For Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 21, 22 and 23, there will be the Williamson Submarine picture, "Wonders of the Sea." This picture has been photographed almost entirely on the bottom of the ocean, battles with sharks, close-ups of octupus, and weird, serpent-like fish. The film is characterized as "unusual, entertaining, educational."

leading picture for the Howard program on Sunday, June 17. A selected all-star cast is promised.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 18, 19 and 20, the Howard offers that wonderful photodrama "The Bright Shawl," with Richard Barthelmess and Dorothy Gish in the leading roles. "The Bright Shawl" is recognized as one of the great pictures of the year. There can be no question of the excellence of the stars, for the Barthelmess-Gish combination can work miracles with medicore vehicles.

Ethel Clayton, the talented and beautiful, will be seen on the Howard screen Thursday, June 21, in "The Remittance Woman.'

"The West Bound Limited," starring Ralph Lewis, will be the feature production at the Howard on Friday and Saturday, June 22 and 23. Reginald Denny will appear in one of his "Leather Pusher" delights on those days.

Adelphi Theatre

"The Toll of the Sea," the first feature picture done in natural colors, will be seen at the Adelphi Sunday, June 17. A real Chinese beauty assumes the leading role in this master production which abounds in beauty, oriental color and romance. Kenneth Harlan is the leading male character in the piece. An added attraction for the Sunday bill will be one of the delightful Reginald Denny "Leather Pusher" episodes.

Lon Chaney, greatest character actor of the silent drama, appears at the Adelphi on Monday and Tuesdays, June 18 and 19. The vehicle is
