

The Bates-Pringle Wedding Another Delightful Affair

ANOTHER June wedding of great interest locally was that of Miss Esther Laura Bates, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Bates, whose marriage to Oliver R. Pringle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pringle, of Wilmette, took place on Wednesday evening, of last week, in the First Methodist church of LaGrange. Rev. Magor, the pastor, read the service at eight o'clock.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Walter Sanderson of LaGrange, Miss Adelaide Bielby, also of LaGrange as maid of honor and four bridesmaids, the Misses Elythea Haverfield, Esther Ellen Palmer, Kathleen Egar and Mrs. Wesley Palmer. Miss Bates wore a charming gown of white georgette over satin trimmed with a wide bertha of thread lace. Her tulle veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies and bride's roses. Mrs. Sanderson in a gown of orchid canton crepe carrying tea roses, the maid of honor wearing peach crepe and carrying cream roses, and the maids in their dainty frocks of green crepe romaine trimmed with cream lace and carrying deep pink roses, made a most attractive looking wedding party.

Serving Mr. Pringle as best man was Mr. James Skidmore of Chicago, and ushering were Messrs. Paul Bradley, Walter Sanderson, Wesley Palmer and Robert Cummins.

The wedding march was played by Mr. Ralph Ansheutz, organist, and there was a harp solo by Miss Ludwig of Chicago.

Following the ceremony, a large reception took place in the Bates home in LaGrange, after which Mr. and Mrs. Pringle left for a honeymoon at Estes Park. They will be at the North Shore hotel in Evanston, temporarily, upon their return on July 16.

Mrs. H. H. Barnum, and family, 735 Walden road, left Monday to spend the remainder of the summer at Xmas Tree Cabin, State Line, Wis. Mr. Barnum plans to spend a great deal of his time in the north woods with his family.

You're not doing this now

But will you be doing it again next winter? It's time you began thinking about it, for until July 4th warm weather is coming, but after July 4th it's going.

It's for you to choose. Whether you'll stick to a coal furnace, with its soot, ashes and smoke, getting up in a cold house in the morning or banking fires at night. Or whether you'll install Nokol!

There are now more than 11,000 Nokol heated homes. All winter long their temperature will stay at exactly the point required by their owners, without effort or attention. Think it over.

Our long term payment plan enables you to enjoy the comforts of Nokol while you are paying for it. Come in and ask us about it.

In installing this company of players in the New Evanston Theatre, Clyde E. Elliott, managing director of the house, has endeavored to please his patrons by offering plays by good companies as well as photo-plays.

Among the plays from which a selection for early presentation at the New Evanston will be "Scandal," "Turn to the Right," "Nightie Night," "The Bad Man," "Scrambled Wives," "Rolling Home," "East is West," "Smilin' Through," and "Six Cylinder Love."

All seats will be reserved, and prospective patrons are requested to place their names on the subscription list, thereby assuring themselves of the same seats each week for any performance they desire. The books for these reservations will be open on Monday and every day following from 11 o'clock until 9 o'clock in the evening.
