

We're all proud of Winnetka. It's "the town that does things;" the town where people think together, talk together, and get together. Winnetka is known all over the United States for its splendid community spirit.

Let's be loyal

to Winnetka. When people are talking about other places as wonderful places to live in, let's slip in a word or two—in a very tactful way—about the fine qualities of
