

Kenilworth Happenings

Mrs. William B. Kunkel, 414 Abbottsford road, entertained at dinner Friday evening for Mr. Tibbitt of New York, and for Mrs. Dowdell of Columbus, Ohio, who arrived on Friday for a visit of two or three weeks. Mrs. Rogers of Pittsburgh arrived Monday also to be the guest of Mrs. Kunkel.

Mrs. Bentley McCloud, 416 Cumnor road, and family, left Sunday to visit her mother in Omaha for a fortnight or longer. Mr. McCloud is away on a fishing trip in northern Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Maher are being congratulated on the birth of a son, born on the second of July.

Mr. William H. Dent returned from Toronto, Canada, Sunday. He is staying temporarily in Wilmette, at 1021 Central avenue, until the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reichmann in Barrington is completed.

Mr. Horatio Chandler, of the Kenilworth Inn, left a week ago to visit Mr. Fairchild Doty, of Highland Park, at the Three Lakes Rod and Gun club at Three Lakes, Wis.

Mrs. Andrew M. Taylor, of South Bend, Indiana, is the guest this week of Mrs. W. J. Taylor, 310 Cumnor road. Mr. Andrew M. Taylor is in Boston on a business trip.

On the Fourth of July Miss Virginia Johnston, 158 Melrose avenue, suffered a severe burn, when, after having stepped on a cap, her costume caught on fire.

Mr. Morrel O'Brien was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ralph S. Gromann, of Chestnut avenue, for a few days of last week, en route from Boston Tech, to his home in Phoenix, Arizona.

Miss Martha Stevens, 330 Abbottsford road, returned Tuesday from the East, where, after the completion of her term at Abbott Academy, she visited among school friends and relatives.

Miss Phoebe Hedrick, 304 Melrose avenue, who has just recovered from the measles, left Friday to spend the summer at a Girls' Camp on Chamber's Island, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, 318 Oxford road, motored East last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. John C. Carpenter at Conoesus Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Joseph Joyce, 431 Essex road, gave a luncheon and bridge party Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. O'Shea of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dilling and son have returned from a two months' trip in Europe, and are moving into their new home on the corner of Essex road and Cumberland avenue.

Miss Marie Blomeyer, 430 Abbottsford road, entertained seven friends Friday evening at a beach, movie and slumber party.

Miss Laura A. Thomson, the guest of Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone, left Wednesday to visit friends in Leland, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jarrett, 534 Essex road, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, 614 Essex road, are leaving today for a week-end outing at Lake Geneva.

Miss Marie Louise Grogan, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Miss Hellen Reeves and her aunt, Mrs. Owen T. Reeves, of Warwick road.

Mrs. Caroline Ellsworth, of the Kenilworth Inn, left Monday for Wequonong, Mich., to be gone two months. She is staying at the Colonial Inn.

Mrs. Charles Huber Coles and Charles Huber, Jr., of Seattle, Wash., are the guests of Mrs. F. E. M. Cole, 315 Essex road, this week.

Mrs. Mark W. Cresap, 239 Essex road, had as her guests last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rankin, of New York, and their daughter, Frances.

ALREADY REALIZED HERE
"International telephony as yet is in its infancy," says a recent article in the London Times, "but business houses in London have already realized the value of the existing system, and a few people have actually antici-ipated the romantic potentialities of a continent completely linked up by telephone." The English paper might have added that on the North American continent these "romantic potentialities" have been transformed into actual, everyday facts.

Always Fresh and Tender

Our meats invariably have the wholesome freshness and luscious tenderness and flavor of the choicest beef. No tough, stringy tooth-hurting meats. Here—No-Sir! If you are skeptical, give us a trial order.
