

Gardens of MacLeish Home Scene of Vassar Benefit

ON Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, 459 Longwood avenue, will open her home and delightful gardens in Glencoe for a musical to benefit the Vassar Salary Endowment Fund. Laura Williams, a resident of Glencoe, with her usual charm, will sing several groups of songs of different nations. She will be accompanied by Agnes Conover. Martha Milinowski, director of the Lake Forest School of Music, will render two groups of piano solos.

A glimpse of the program gives one an idea of the appeal of the selections. Miss Williams will sing first a group of English songs. Following this number, Miss Milinowski will play several French piano numbers. A group of French children's songs will be the next selection. Irish songs and songs of the Kentucky mountains will follow. Miss Milinowski will also present several numbers by Russian composers.

After the program, light refreshments will be served in the garden, a setting which will add to the attractiveness of the occasion.

Assisting Mrs. MacLeish will be: Mrs. Alfred B. Welton of the Ambassador, president of the Chicago Vassar alumnae; the Misses Lydia and Frances Coonley; Mrs. William Bennett, Miss Mildred Dennis, and Miss Helen Hobar of Evanston. Several younger girls of the north shore will do their share in receiving the guests.

At Midlothian's Derby for example—

Of the sixty-three cars parked at the Midlothian Country Club Golf Derby, twelve were Cadillacs—more than twice as many as any other car, regardless of price.

What is the deciding factor which leads so large a percentage of men who are successful in business and professional life to select Cadillac as typifying all that a fine car should be?

It is preponderance of value which appeals to the analytical minds of these men. Many of them could easily pay a great deal more for an automobile. They buy Cadillac because, after mature reflection, they have a clear conviction that it is the world's greatest motor car value.
