Hoyburn Theatre

An eventful week is promised patrons of the Hoyburn theatre beginning with the program on Monday, August 20. "Brass," photodramatic interpretation of Norris' celebrated novel of that title, is to be the Hoyburn attraction on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. "Brass" is characterized as "a throbbing drama on marriage, which will grip the interest of every human being." The story asks the oft-propounded question of modern times: "Is your wedding ring brass?" The cast of "Brass" includes such outstanding stars as Monte Blue, Irene Rich, Margaret Seddon, Marie Prevost, Harry Myers and little Bruce Gueri who is heralded as the new wonder boy of the films. Sydney Franklin directed the photodrama.

"I am the Law," is booked for the Hoyburn on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 23, 24 and 25. "A stirring and romantic tale of the frozen Yukon Trail, involving the eternal triangle of two men and a woman," is the manner in which critics have described this cinema triumph. In the cast are Alice Lake, Kenneth Harlan, Gaston Glass, Rosemary Theby, Noah Beery, Wallace Beery and others. Edwin Carewe is the director.

Stanley Wallace has intrenched himself in the esteem of Hoyburn playgoers by virtue of his excellent work at the organ. He is prepared at any time to play the favorite selections of his auditors. He also likes to have them take part in singing the popular songs he plays.

Howard Theatre

HOWARD THEATRE—1 col box. An excellent film bearing the title, "Scars of Jealousy," and having in its cast such remarkable talent as Frank Keenan, Marguerite De La Motte, Lloyd Hughes and Edward Burns, will be seen at the Howard Friday and Saturday of this week. "Scars of Jealousy" has to do with the celebrated "Cajans" of the Gulf country. It is a thrilling romance of the southland.

Buster Keaton in "Day Dreams" is the comedy attraction for those days. Elliott Dexter is the star in the photodramatic interpretation of James Whitcomb Riley's famous poem, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," which is to be shown at the Howard on Sunday, August 19.

"Where the Pavement Ends" is the Howard booking for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Alice Terry and Ramon Novarro head an all-star cast in this production.

Howard music is always of the very best. Winter or summer, there is no variance in this pleasant feature of the programs.

The New Evanston

Walter Hiers and Jacqueline Logan are to be seen this week-end at the New Evanston in that rollicking new comedy farce entitled, "60 Cents an Hour."

Hiers has found a prominent place among the non-slapstick comedians of the screen and is adjudged by the most exacting critics as an actor of exceptional ability. He rose to the heights from the role of an extra in low comedy.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 20, 21 and 22, the New Evanston offers "The Heart Raider," starring the beautiful and talented Agnes Ayres. It is heralded as a splendid drama that will command the interest of every playgoer.

Ben Turpin will help to round out next week's program with his latest screaming comedy, "Where is My Wandering Boy this Evening."

Adelphi Theatre

The Friday and Saturday feature film at the Adelphi theatre is announced as "The Shock," starring Lon Chaney, best known character actor in the cinema world.

Warren Kerrigan is the Sabbath Day star for the Adelphi. He will be seen in his latest success, "A Man's Man."

Johnnie Hines, one of the most popular of the younger comedians of the screen, will be viewed at the Adelphi theatre on Monday and Tuesday, August 20 and 21. The vehicle for this virile jester is "Luck".

"The Nth Commandment," starring Colleen Moore and James Morrison, comes to the Adelphi for Wednesday and Thursday, August 22 and 23. It is represented by the publicity agents as ranking with the best dramas of the season.
