Children's Concerts at Ravinia Park End With Memory Contest

THE last Children's program at Ravinia Park next Thursday afternoon, will be devoted to a Music Memory Contest. The Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Jacques Gordon will play selections from fifteen of the compositions that the orchestra has played at the Children's Concerts during the season. Score cards will be provided, but every child desiring to enter the contest will be asked to bring a lead pencil. Only those children who are writing score cards will have seats in the center section of the pavilion in front of the boxes.

The Ravinia Club will present a medal to the child handing in the best score. Children will be asked to give the name of the composition, the composer, and the nationality of the composer. On the back of this program are the numbers from which the contest selections will be made.

After the contest the orchestra will play two request selections that have received the greatest number of votes from the children as being their favorite compositions.

The marriage of Miss Lucretia Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Green to Kenneth Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Carpenter of Evanston, took place at 5 o'clock last Saturday afternoon in Christ church, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's gown was of white charmeuse, simple fashioned, with a court train of charmeuse lined with chiffon and a tulle veil falling from a Juliet cap of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Philip Page of Springfield, Mass., the bride's cousin who attended her as matron of honor, wore a frock of beige georgette with a corn-flower blue hat of horsehair braid trimmed with sprays of wheat. Miss Lydia Green, another cousin, and Miss Marian Carpenter, sister of the groom, who were bridesmaids, wore blue georgette frocks with beige hats. They all carried round bouquets of summer flowers.

Henry R. Gross of Evanston served Mr. Carpenter as best man, and the ushers were Stuart Green, brother of the bride, Dain D. Fuller and Leonard M. Prince.
