

Glencoe Children Win Music Memory Contest

THE second Music Memory Contest, under the auspices of the Ravinia Club, Mrs. William Sutherland, President, was held at Ravinia Park Thursday afternoon, August 30. The winners were Betty Fulton of Glencoe, aged ten and a half, and Jane Orr of Glencoe, aged ten. Both had thirteen and one-half points out of a possible fifteen, and tied for first place, receiving gold medals.

The silver medal was awarded to Leschen Hesselbach of Chicago, aged thirteen, who had thirteen points.

The outstanding feature of the contest was the number of young children who handed in papers. In the Music Memory contests in Chicago children under the seventh and eighth grades do not compete and most of the prize awards go to high school pupils. In the Ravinia contest the ages of the contestants ranged from seven to fifteen years.
