Adelphi Theatre

"The Scarlet Lilly," starring Katherine McDonald, is the Adelphi booking for Friday and Saturday of this week. Hoot Gibson also graces the program in his latest presentation, "Out of Luck."

Anita Stewart in "The Love Piker," appears on the Adelphi program Sunday, September 9.

"The Brass Bottle," a story taken from the mystifying Arabian Nights tales, is scheduled for the Adelphi on Monday and Tuesday. Larry Semon appears on those days in "The Midnight Cabaret."

For Wednesday and Thursday the Adelphi offers "Bluebeard's Eighth Wife," starring Gloria Swanson, generally considered Miss Swanson's best effort!

The Adelphi management, in announcing its 1923-24 program, states that it has just contracted for the showing of the entire output of the well known Paramount Pictures including such great productions as Pola Negri in "The Cheat," Thomas Meighan in "Homeward Bound," Gloria Swanson in "Zaza," Zane Grey's "To the Last Man," "Hollywood" and "The Covered Wagon."

Other famous pictures to appear soon are "The Spoilers," "Enemies of Women," "Penrod and Sam," "Circus Days" and scores of other masterpieces.

Hoyburn Theatre

"The Brass Bottle," a Maurice Tourneur production, is the Hoyburn offering for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 10, 11 and 12. It is the picturization of the unique tale from "The Arabian Nights" which is considered one of the conspicuous achievements of motion picture development. It takes one back some 6,000 years into the realm of magic and mystery. Harry Myers, Ernest Torrence, Tully Marshall, Barbara La Marr, Ford Sterling, Charlotte Merriam and Otis Harlan are to be found in the all-star cast.

"Michael O'Halloran" is booked for Thursday and Friday of next week. It is the film version of Gene Stratton Porter's celebrated novel, and is the story of "Mickey" the newsboy with the quaint philosophy that brings happiness to his friends. Irene Rich heads a remarkably able cast including True Boardman, popular juvenile who plays the title role.

A baseball story will be viewed at the Hoyburn on Saturday, September 15 under the title, "Trifling with Honor." Lots of fun and splendid acting here, with Rockliffe Fellows, Fritzie Ridgeway and Buddy Messinger in the cast.

Howard Theatre

"Penrod and Sam" is the picture offering at the Howard for Friday and Saturday of this week. It is the picturization of one of the famous Booth Tarkington juvenile novels and promises entertainment for people of whatever age.

Larry Semon will be the week-end comedy attraction with his incomparable "Midnight Cabaret." The La Salle Lorette Four is scheduled for a specialty act.

Katherine McDonald will be seen at the Howard on Sunday, September 9, in her latest triumph, "The Scarlet Lily." Baby Peggy provides the laughs on the program with her latest comedy entitled "Tips."

BIG FILMS FOR NEW EVANSTON

Foremost Releases of Season to Be Seen There

The largest contract ever signed for a city with the population of Evanston has been closed by Clyde E. Elliott for the New Evanston Theatre. The producing companies involved are The United Artists, Paramount Pictures Corp. and the Pathe Inc.

The contract with United Artists calls for the first run showing of the releases of Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charles Chaplin and D. W. Griffith. The Paramount company will present the pictures starring Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan, Pola Negri, Agnes Ayers, Jack Holt and others. The Pathe company will Lionel Barrymore and Alma Rubens will thrill Howard audiences on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with their presentation of the now celebrated production, "Enemies of Women." It is a magnificent, not to mention stupendous and stirring drama, and should be seen by every motion picture patron. Truly, one of the greatest pictures of all times! Joseph Vieland, violin virtuoso, will augment the Howard program on those days.

Thomas Meighan in "Homeward Bound," comes to the Howard for Thursday and Friday of next week.

"Cameo Kirby" Appears at the Monroe Theater

It is claimed that Booth Tarkington, celebrated Hoosier author-dramatist, never wrote a failure.

Whether or not that can be substantiated, there is no doubt but that the author of "Penrod," "Seventeen" and other delightful stories of typical American life, has more successes to his credit than any living American writer.

One of Tarkington's greatest stage successes, "Cameo Kirby," which he wrote in collaboration with Harry Leon Wilson, has been put into pictures by William Fox under the direction of John Ford and will be shown at the Monroe theater, Chicago, starting Monday, September 10.

John Gilbert stars in the title role, a dashing, square-jawed gambler of the old Mississippi River steamboat days. The picture is said to be one of the most exciting and entertaining dramas in which this popular star has ever appeared.

Gertrude Olmstead, a Chicago girl, winner of a beauty contest a few years ago, plays opposite Gilbert.
