

The gentlemen's clubroom of The Orrington high above the tree tops with a never-to-be-forgotten view of Lake Michigan and the surrounding country.

Looking toward the ballroom from the south roof garden of The Orrington. Refreshments will be served out-of-doors during the summer months. Gay orange and blue porch swings, sun shades, shrubbery, etc. add to the attractiveness of the roof garden by day.

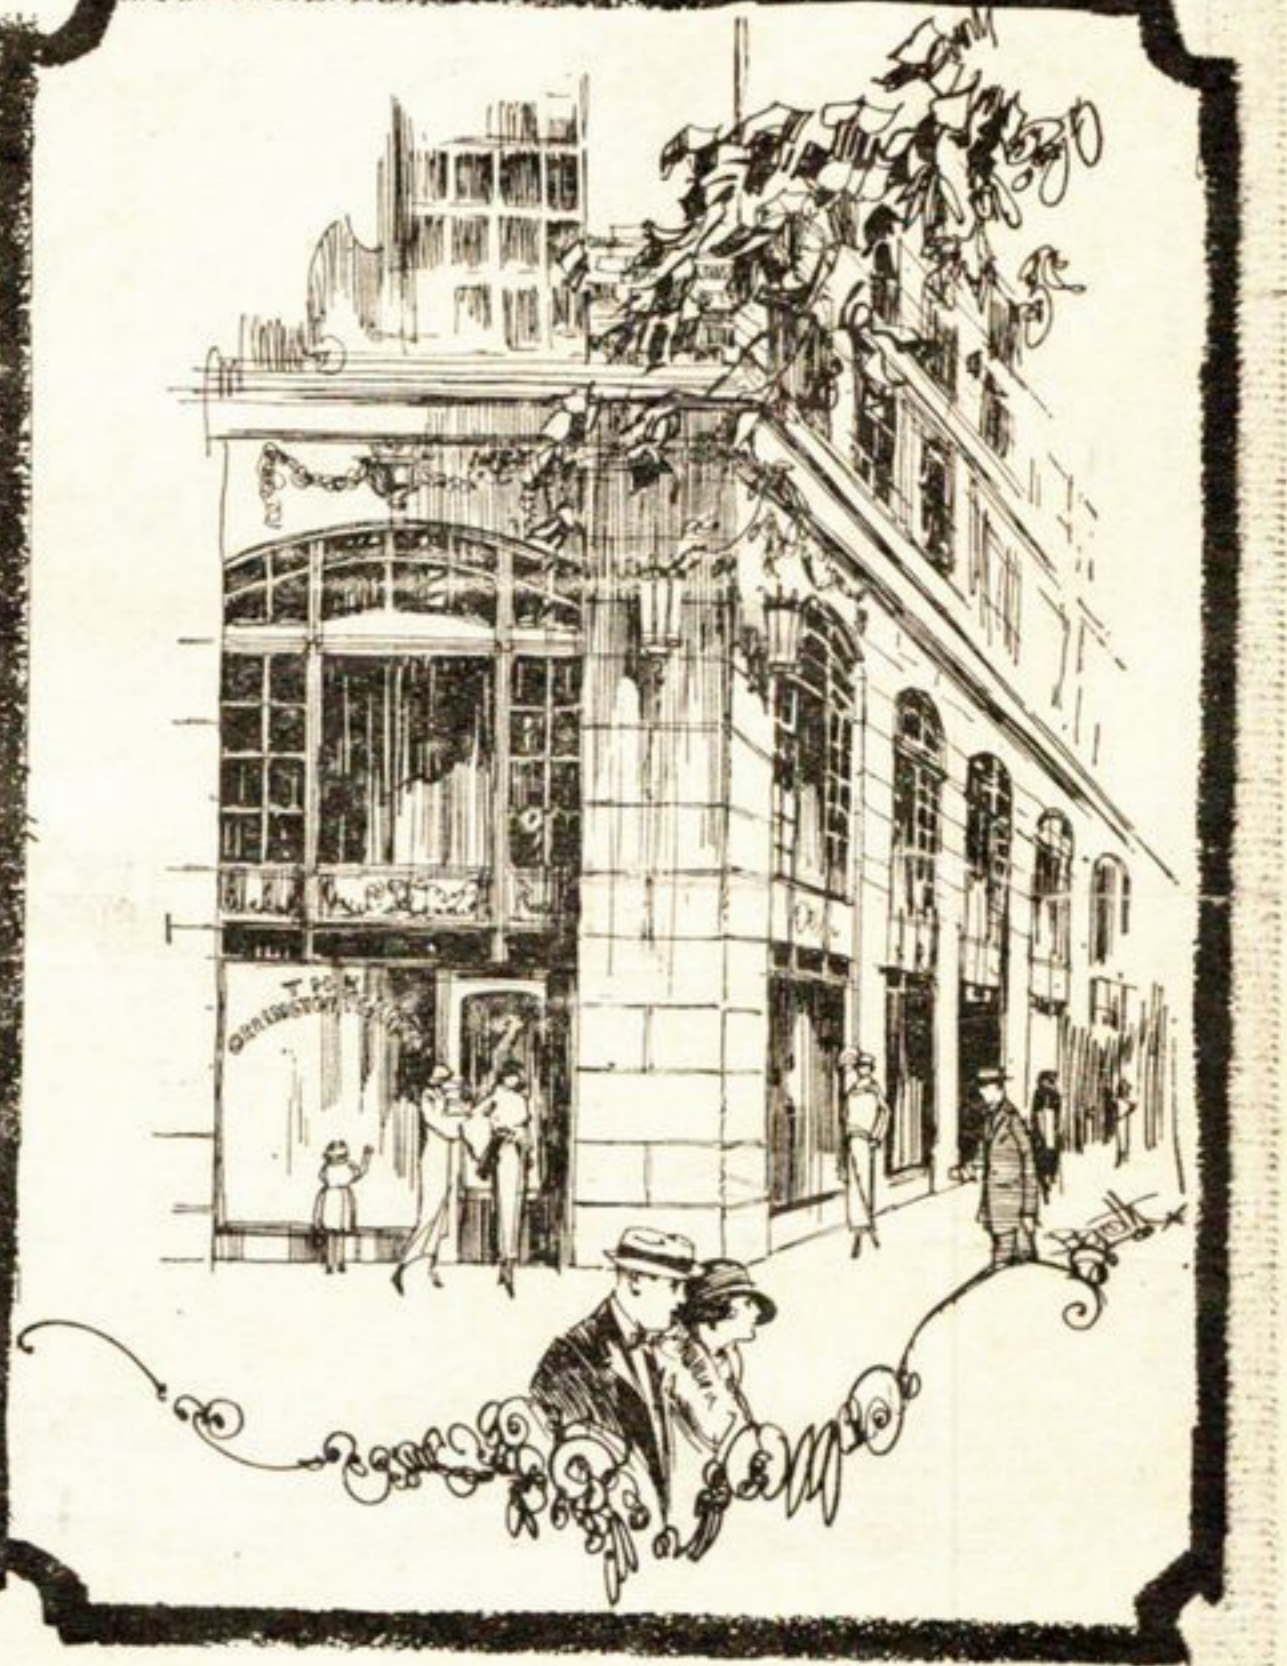

A cozy corner of The Orrington roof garden enlanced by the glow of the rising harvest moon. The night view of Evanston and Chicago with their myriad of lights never fails to bring an exclamation of—wonderful!

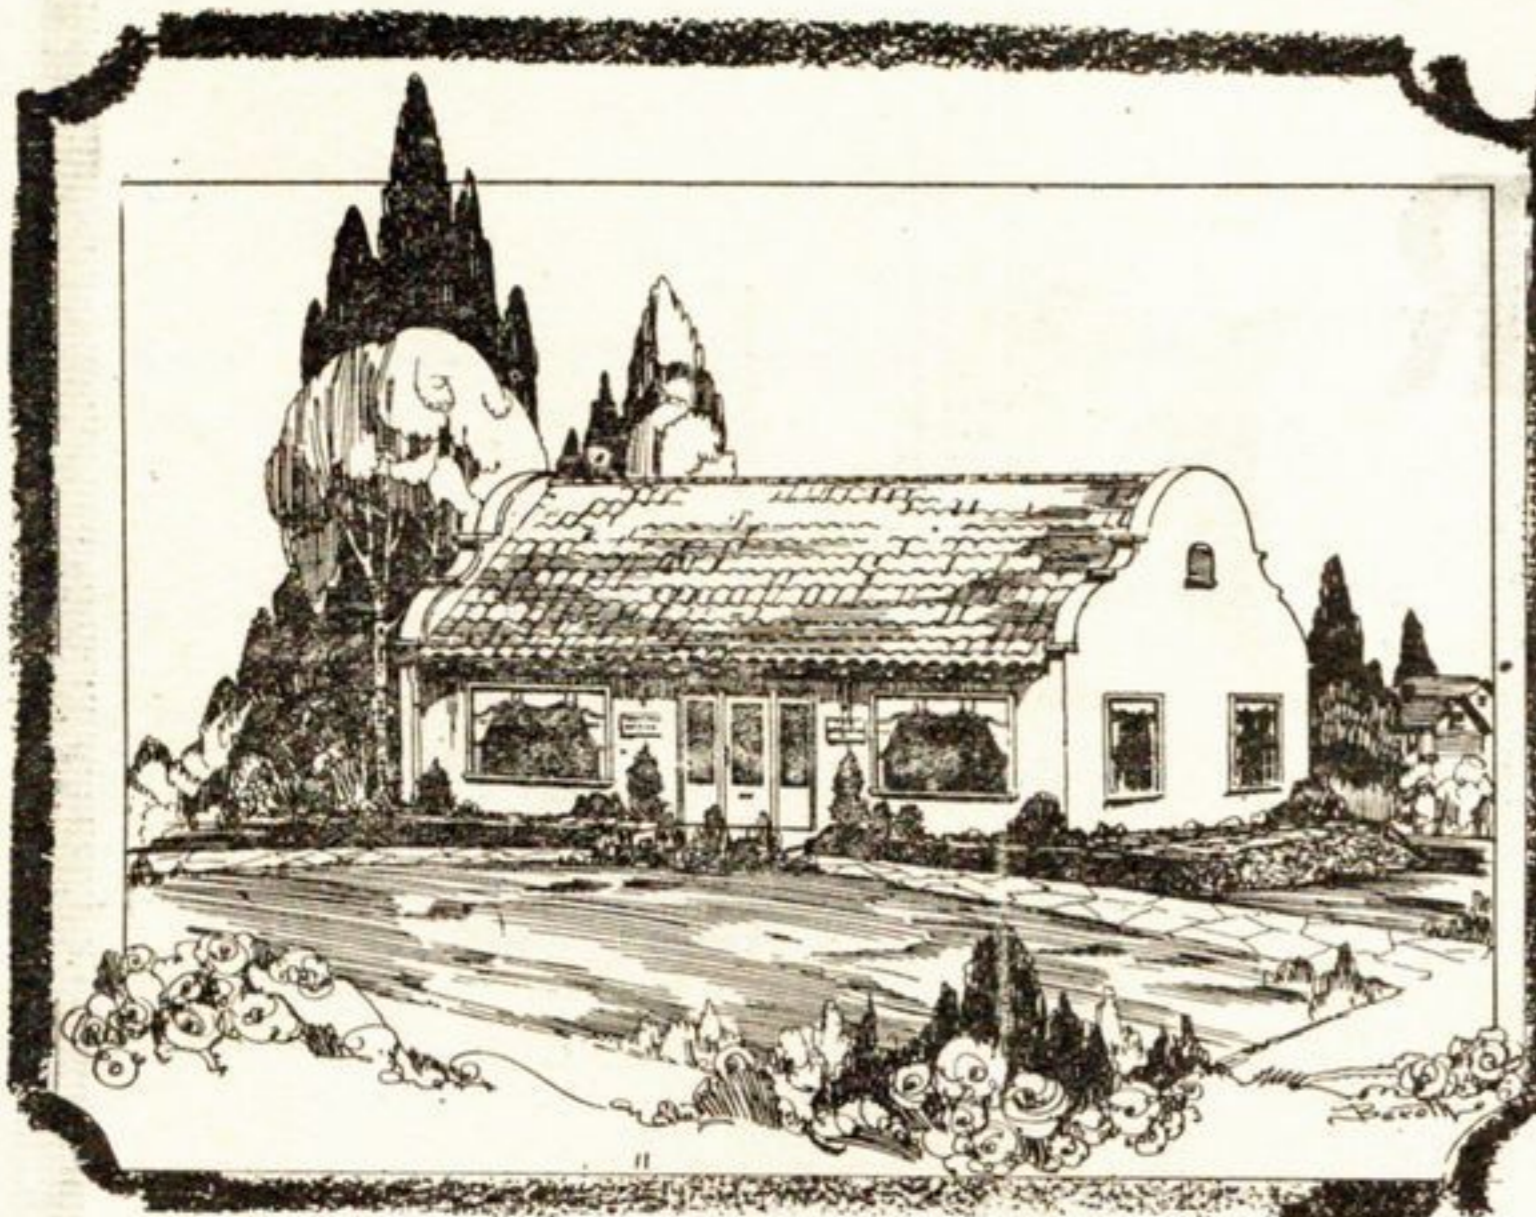

Looking down from the palm court toward the main entrance of The Orrington. Beautiful caen stone, hanging lanterns, a fernery and a massive bronze grill work behind the huge windows present a cathedral-like elegance.

The elevator lobby of The Orrington as seen from one of the reception courts. Italian torchieres and a magnificent oriental rug add to the beauty of this lobby.

The Church street and Orrington avenue corner of The Orrington, the new hub of business activity in Evanston and the location of The Orrington pharmacy, Evanston's most exclusive drug store.

The unique bungalow renting office of The Orrington where over one hundred families arranged accommodations from floor plans without ever having seen the actual apartments.

The beautiful main entrance of The Orrington graced by two magnificent old elm trees.

A typical two room suite of The Orrington showing the cozy comfort and elegance of the apartments of this newest of Evanston's hotels.
