SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Society Returns to Town for Scott-Welles Wedding

MANY delightful pre-nuptial parties have been given for Miss Elizabeth Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of Hubbard Woods, who will become the bride of Edward Kenneth Welles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Welles of Evanston, this afternoon. The long list of parties started last Saturday with a dinner given last Saturday by Mrs. August Magnus for Miss Scott and Miss Catherine Rehm. After dinner the party went to Indian Hill club for dancing.

On Sunday Mrs. John Stuart Coonley and Miss Frances Coonley of Chicago gave a luncheon for the bridal party, and Monday evening Mrs. Silas H. Strawn and her daughter, Katherine, gave a dinner party at their residence, 229 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, preceding a theater party at which Mrs. William H. Rehm and Miss Catherine Rehm were hostesses. Tuesday evening, Mrs. Thomas Donnelley and Miss Clarissa Donnelley were hostesses at a dinner dance at their Lake Forest residence, and on Wednesday evening, Mrs. William Gold Hibbard gave a supper party. Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Scott gave the bridal dinner at the Saddle and Cycle club, and last evening, Mrs. John H. Hardin of Hubbard Woods, entertained the girls of the bridal party at dinner, while Mr. Welles gave his bachelor dinner at Onwentsia.

The wedding will take place at four o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cluett, the bride's grandparents. Weather permitting it will be a garden ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Welles will reside at 39 East Schiller street.

Katherine Mordock to Wed San Francisco Man

MR. and Mrs. Charles T. Mordock, 645 Maple avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine, to Mr. James Douglas Adams of San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Adams of Stanford university, California.

Miss Mordock was formally presented at a tea dance given by her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. Edwin Bayley, at the Ambassador on December 23.

Miss Marion Blachford to Marry Naval Officer

DR. and Mrs. Frank W. Blachford of Forest avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marion Blachford, to Lieut. Albert Gleaves Berry, Jr., United States Navy, at present attached to Great Lakes. Lieut. Berry is the son of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Albert Gleaves Berry. Miss Blachford was to have been one of this year's debutantes.

Affleck-Spoehr Nuptials Occur October 12

MISS Mildred Affleck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Affleck, of 695 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, will become the bride of Victor Spoehr, son of Mrs. Charles A. Spoehr, of Chicago, on Friday, October 12. The wedding will take place in the evening at eight-thirty o'clock, at Christ church, in Winnetka, Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiating.

Miss Gladys Reade Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Jones, of Glencoe, became the bride of Hugh MacMillan, of Grand Rapids, Mich., Saturday evening in the Glencoe Union church, Dr. Douglas Cornell reading the service.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a white satin brocade gown trimmed with rose point lace; her tulle veil was held at the sides with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Dougall Kittermaster was matron of honor, wearing rose chiffon over yellow and carrying Ward roses. Miss Hazel Jones, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor, wearing a jade green georgette frock trimmed in silver. Both attendants wore large silver lace combs in their hair. The groom's father, Lincoln MacMillan, was the best man and the ushers were Edward Adams, Preston Burlingham, John D. Hibbard, Dougall Kittermaster, Donald Jones, brother of the bride, and John MacMillan, brother of the groom.

Following the church service a reception was held at the Jones residence, 136 Beach road, Glencoe.

After their wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. MacMillan will make their home in Grand Rapids.

The Oak Street Circle will hold its first meeting of the year on Tuesday, September 25, at the home of Mrs. Wilia Wersted, 906 Cherry street. Mrs. Gertrude Thurston will sing. Mrs. Ralph Childs, general chairman of all the circles, will tell of her plans for the coming year, and Mrs. Struggles will talk on "Winnetka Twenty-five Years Ago and Today." A full attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, of Hubbard Woods, returned early this week after a three months' tour of France, England, Switzerland and the Italian lakes. Their daughter, Isabel, returns to the Masters' school at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., next week. Another daughter, Emily, and a cousin, Miss Barbara Scott, will sail early in October to spend the winter in Florence, Italy.

The marriage of Miss Marcia McEldowney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edson McEldowney, of Wilmette, to John Norton Brushingham, son of Rev. John Brushingham, of Chicago, took place on Friday, September 21. The young couple will live in Rogers Park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wehrheim, of 426 Sunset road, have moved to 1917 Bradley place, Chicago.

Friends and alumnae of the North Shore Kindergarten and Elementary school are to meet at luncheon in the Orrington hotel, Saturday, September 22, at one o'clock, to discuss plans and interest others in the Christmas Toy Carnival to be held December 8 in the Woman's Club of Evanston. Chairman of various department will outline details and exhibit samples of articles to be sold. Alumnae living on the north side of Chicago have organized a large group of workers, the result of a luncheon held recently at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Towns north are rapidly forming groups for active participation and new features are constantly developing. Organization meetings are held each week and will continue at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Hall, 1868 Sheridan road, Evanston. Meetings hereafter will occur on Monday, at 2:30 o'clock.

Plans for the Northwestern Movie Benefit are going enthusiastically forward. The committee, after a careful canvass, has selected the film, "The Last Days of Pompeii," the portrayal of Bulwer Lytton's famous work of fiction with its remarkable historical background. Its appeal should be universal, to old and young alike, and particularly since it has never been shown to movie-dom before. The scenes were taken in Italy, and the setting is therefore authentic.

The Winnetka Garden club wishes to announce that the Garden club meeting will be held at the Winnetka Woman's club at three o'clock on Wednesday, September 26, instead of as previously announced, and extends a cordial invitation to all of Winnetka. Mrs. Charles Hubbard, nationally known landscape architect, will give her delightful lecture and exhibit pictures of Japanese and Chinese gardens.

Miss McCanne gave an informal musicale last week for some of the friends of her aunt, Mrs. Babcock, 566 Ash street. Miss McCanne had been studying music in New York for the summer and stopped off for a short visit before going on to her home in Seattle.

Mitchell D. Follansbee, who has spent the summer in Winnetka with his sister, Mrs. William Gold Hibbard, is reopening his home in Chicago this week. Mrs. Follansbee and the children, who have been abroad all summer, will return the first of next month.

Dr. Walton-Ball has returned after spending a short vacation at Marquette and Negaunee, Mich.
