

Local Woman New Pres. of Evanston Musical Club

MRS. Floy Little Bartlett, of Winnetka, assisted by Mrs. Helen Abbott Byfield, gave the opening program Wednesday for the Little Musical club of Evanston, of which Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer of Winnetka has just been elected president. Mrs. Bartlett's songs, full of the human appeal that makes them so popular, interpreted by such a singer as Mrs. Byfield, formed an irresistible combination. Mrs. Charles Byron of Winnetka read a most interesting review of recent events in the musical world.

Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer

An attractive autumn wedding took place in Christ church chapel last Saturday evening, when Miss Elizabeth Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Edwards, of Hubbard Woods, and Mr. Fred Jehs, of Jefferson Park were united in marriage.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white moleskin crepe, trimmed in silver, her bouquet being a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Frank Fox, matron of honor, wore a gown of cocoa colored Elizabeth crepe and carried an arm bouquet of yellow tea roses. The flower girl, little Miss Dorothy Lloyd, wore a peach colored taffeta dress trimmed in silver and carried a basket of autumn flowers.

Mr. George Reich attended the groom as best man, Mr. Raymond Gorr played the wedding march. Mr. Orville Edwards and Miss Lois Bailey acted as ushers.

A small reception at the residence of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam S. Davis, of Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Donald J. Powers, Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in All Souls' Unitarian church, Evanston. Mrs. Robert Galbraith of Crystal Lake, a classmate of the bride at the University of Illinois, was her only attendant. Kenneth Bros of Evanston was best man. The bridal party and a few intimate friends attended the wedding dinner at the Orrington hotel, following the ceremony.

Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, opened a Citizenship class with the League of Women Voters at Waukegan on Thursday. Next Wednesday morning a Parliamentary Law class under her supervision at the Highland Park Woman's club is to be organized. Friday afternoon, she gave a talk at the Parent-Teacher's Association meeting in Libertyville.
