

SLIGHT INCREASE IN ENROLLMENT AT N. T.

A large increase in attendance at New Trier this year was prevented by an unusual slump in the number of freshman girls entering. Thus, the attendance of 1922, which was 1,221, has been raised to only 1,234, though this number will probably be increased by new entrants who come in during the year.

The freshman girls usually equal or surpass the boys in enrollment, but this year they came in 176 strong, while the new boys are 225 in number. The sophomore class shows a perfect balance of 185 boys and 185 girls, the juniors have 136 girls and six less boys, and the seniors, numbering 109 to 88, in favor of the girls.

After reading all these figures for this year, it may be interesting by way of comparison to note that the enrollment of twenty-two years ago was 79, which means the school has grown at the average rate of fifty-five pupils a year since that time.

Although the attendance of girls is fairly regular throughout the four years of high school, scarcely more than forty per cent of the freshman boys ever graduate. Each year they grow less, until fewer than half their original number receive diplomas the last June.

Cave-in Buries Laborer, Floyd Voltz, Rescuer

After working more than an hour, Floyd Voltz, 510 Linden avenue, Tuesday of this week succeeded in rescuing a laborer who had been caught in a cave-in while digging a ditch at Winnetka avenue and Sheridan road, when the ground caved in on him Tuesday morning, October 16.

Voltz, working nearby, heard the distressed man's cry for help and immediately proceeded to dig him out. For a time the task seemed almost useless, for as soon as the dirt was removed, another cave-in resulted. The unfortunate laborer was eventually extricated, none the worse for the harrowing experience.

WINNETKA MAN KILLED ON HUNTING JOURNEY

Services for Samuel A. Stein, 564 Maple avenue, who was killed Saturday, October 13, when his shotgun was accidentally discharged as he was starting out to hunt near Antigo, Wis., were held early this week in Rosehill chapel.

Mr. Stein left Friday for a brief stay at his hunting lodge in the Wisconsin woods. On Saturday afternoon he, in company with his sister, Mrs. Sam B. Ullman, set out in a skiff upon a hunting expedition. Mrs. Ullman had entered the boat, it was stated, and Mr. Stein was preparing to follow. As he shoved the boat off shore the shotgun, placed on a stern seat, exploded.

Mr. Stein is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louis Kuppenheimer Stein, and two children, John and Margaret.

He was president of the Wormser Hat stores, of Chicago, and well known in business circles.

"While Satan Sleeps", Community House Film

One of Peter B. Kyne's most popular novels, "The Parson of Panamint," has reached the screen as a Paramount picture under the title of "While Satan Sleeps." It provides the second starring photoplay for Jack Holt and it is an ideal vehicle for him. A rugged, virile he-man picture, with a very strong love interest running throughout. It is of that type of picture which has the widest possible appeal. The story upon which "While Satan Sleeps" is built, represents one of Mr. Kyne's finest literary efforts. A most competent cast, which includes Fritz Brunette, Wade Boteler, Mabel Van Buren, J. P. Lockney and others, appears in support of the star.

The matter was referred to the Streets Drainage and Forestry committee of the council for consideration and report at a future date.

Why is a barber's pole red and white?

—because barbers used to be surgeons and displayed a red pole as a sign. Bandages, hung on the pole to dry, were wrapped around it by the wind; hence red and white stripes. Many pills, formerly treated by crude barber-surgeon methods, now are prevented by
