They Say
that bankers are hard folks to deal with, that they are crabby and ultra-dignified and all that. We'll say that we haven't an officer or an employee who doesn't know how to smile—and mean it!—and shake hands like a real friend.
You'll find the personnel of this organization likeable and obliging—all the way thru!

LEE SAYS:
"The band went over big the other evening at the Chamber of Commerce meeting! And I don't say this just because I'm one of the bunch. Believe me, we're going to have a fine band before long!"
Quinlan and Tyson to Have New Office Space
A new store and office building is promised Evanston, to be ready for occupancy about April 1, 1924. The building will be erected at 1571 Sherman avenue, by Quinlan and Tyson, well known north shore realtors, who now occupy the east rooms of the Rood building on Orington avenue and Davis street. The property fronts 65 feet on Sherman avenue and is 210 feet deep.
It is the expectation of the owners to improve the property with a two-story brick store and office building. Quinlan and Tyson will occupy the north side next to the alley, and the other two stores will be leased to other firms. The office of the real estate firm will occupy approximately 2,200 square feet. Work on the new building will start at once, the firm announced.
