

"Fine Feathers
Make Fine Birds"

Fine Raiment Bespeaks Refinement

Only when correct in style,
color and quality

Daytime and evening wear for particular women

Moderate Prices - Unusual Values

All Sizes

Lewis

Inc.

1606 Chicago Avenue

From the offices of Walter P. Smith and Company, comes a cordial invitation to you to call if you wish to sell, rent or buy—a home, homesite or acreage—anywhere on the North Shore—and desire prompt and individual attention.

SERVICE—to the buyer—to the seller!

Walter P. Smith & Co.

REAL ESTATE

332 PARK AVE.

GLENCOE, ILL.

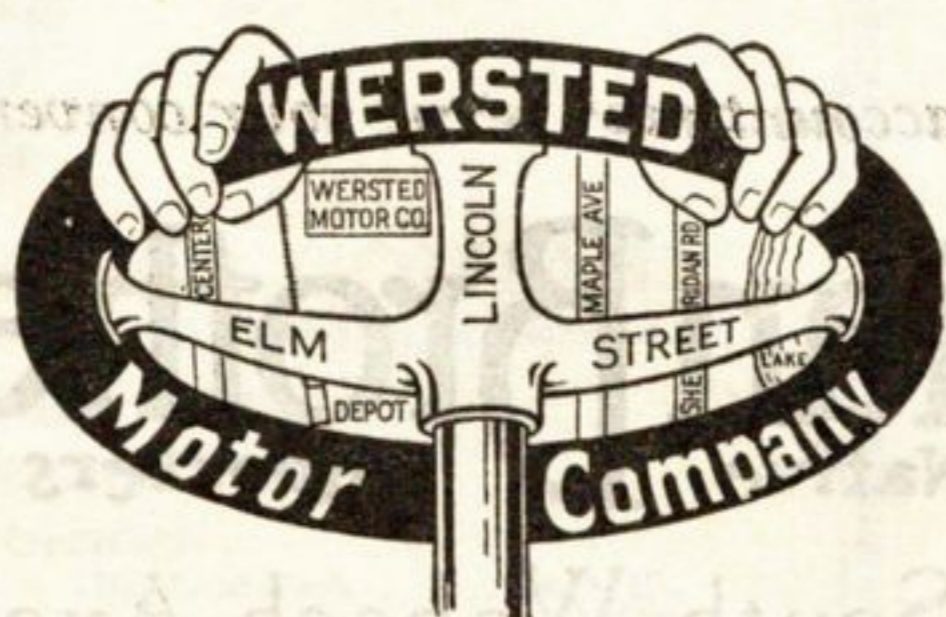

Phone Glencoe 410

WE SPECIALIZE IN HIGH GRADE
REPAIRING FOR ALL CARS

FLAT RATE SERVICE IF DESIRED

Storage

Supplies

You-Drive

Cars for Rent

Dodge Brothers

Wills Sainte Claire

MOTOR CARS

562 Lincoln Ave.

Phone Winn. 165

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Parisian Frocks Feature Pope-Cook Wedding

THE wedding of Miss Lesley Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pierce Pope of Glencoe, and Charles Brainard Cook of Evanston is of interest for many reasons, first because both young people attended Northwestern university, where their romance first started, and thus have many acquaintances and friends along the shore, and second because Miss Pope brought with her on her return from a several month's European tour, not only her own wedding gown, but also the frocks, which her bridesmaids wore in the wedding procession.

(Photo by Moffett)
Mrs. Charles Brainard Cook

The marriage took place Wednesday evening in the Glencoe Union church, Rev. Douglas Hawley Cornell reading the service at 8:30 o'clock. A reception followed at the Pope home in Glencoe. The bridal gown was made of white chiffon velvet, with a long court train, its only ornament being one of pearls and rhinestones. The veil of rose applique, a family heirloom, fell from a coronet, over another veil of tulle to the full length of the train. The bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley, sweet peas and orchids. Miss Helen Pope, her sister's maid of honor, wore a gown of gold cloth; the Misses Emily Pope and Janet Kirk, wore frocks of apricot georgette and carried small showers of flowers to match. Mrs. Donald MacLeran of Rogers Park, Mrs. Hugh Dugan of Chicago, Miss Sue Tracy of Glencoe and Miss Jessie Cook, sister of the groom, wore gowns of yellow, pink, lavender and green, respectively, metal cloth and satin and carried colonial bouquets. Little Miss Lesley Champlin, in a dress of blue chiffon, served as flower girl.

Dwight Mills of Evanston was Mr. Cook's best man and the ushers were Dr. Robert L. Lasater, Henry Champlin of Glencoe, Edward Bacon of Lily, Ill., and Carpenter Cook of Menominee, Mich.

Mr. Cook is building a new home for his bride in Clarendon Hills, a recently opened subdivision in Hinsdale, where they will be after December 15.

Polly Packard Betrothed to Fred'k W. Copeland

MR. and Mrs. George Packard, 436 Barry avenue, Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Polly Packard, to Mr. Frederick Windsor Copeland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Copeland, 665 Prospect avenue. The announcement was made at a luncheon given last Saturday by Mrs. Packard. Mr. Copeland is a graduate of Harvard college.

MRS. Harry B. Owsley of the Drake announces the engagement of her daughter, Carolyn, to William Stuart Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ogden Green of Locust road, Winnetka. Miss Owsley is a graduate of the Foxcroft School in Virginia, and Mr. Green is a Cornell man, class of '16. No date has been set for the wedding.

The Illini-Purple game at Cubs' Park this afternoon has created no small amount of interest this week, particularly among the young college folks and football fans. Seats to the number of 40,000 have already been sold, and room for the probable 5,000 more can be found. The north shore is well represented in the two universities for there is a general exodus of young folks down to the twin cities each fall. Parents and relatives have received communications of all sorts, in order that students may obtain the necessary funds to attend the game.

Mr. Edward Cole of Winnetka, and Miss Katherine Gardner of Evanston, both former students of New Trier and Northwestern, were married Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will reside in Ravinia.

Miss Kathryn Crush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Crush of Wilmette, impersonate Miss Frances E. Willard, attired in the garb of the period when she was dean at Northwestern university, on Monday, when a thousand girl students paid tribute to the memory of Miss Willard, their first dean of women who established at Northwestern in 1873 the first self-government association for girls ever created at an American college. The girls gathered at Willard Hall, where a large portrait of Miss Willard, draped with purple colors, was hung in the dining room. Miss Crush graduated from New Trier high school in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Barton, of Wilmette will entertain a party of twenty guests at the Harvest Home dinner at the Ouilmette Country club tomorrow evening. Another large dinner group numbering nineteen guests will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Alsip, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey Blake, 1009 Chestnut avenue, will have eight guests at their table, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Gallagher now of the Orrington hotel, will entertain for four.

Nearly all of the members and their guests will go in costume, making it a most informal occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Alva Ketner of Marion, Ind., announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Stebbins, to Thomas Shanks McKeown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford McKeown of Hubbard Woods, which took place September 18. Mr. and Mrs. McKeown will reside at 1228 East 54th street, Chicago.

The Sukatari group of the Campfire Girls had a costume party Friday evening in the Neighborhood room of the Community House. The entertainment consisted of games and dancing; the refreshments of doughnuts and cider; the time everyone had, was the "best."

QUALITY is the watchword that has gained for THE ORRINGTON the reputation of the most attractive residential hotel in this vicinity. It is apparent not only in the construction and furnishings of the building but also in the service and cuisine.