

Opera Artists Give Concert for Italian Poor Children

THE Italian poor children are the beneficiaries of the Concert to be given next Monday evening at Orchestra Hall. If you were permitted to visit the regions in Chicago where hundreds of poverty stricken Italian children are huddled into crowded habitations, you would then realize their great need of help. Just a glimpse of these ragged undernourished little children would convince you how much depends on the success of the concert given every year for their benefit. Last year this concert was a great success. Hundreds of poor little children were made happy by it. This year it is hoped it will be the means of bringing joy and happiness to even a greater number.

The artists, Vittorio Trevisan, Francesco Daddi, Beryl Brown, Vittorio

Vittorio Trevisan

Arimondi, Mario Carboni, Olga Menn, Julie Manierre Mann, Silvio Scionti, Herman Felber, Stanley Martin, Frieda Saiger and Evelyn Bostlemann, are giving their time and talent free all for the sake of these needy children. Their hearts are in the work which means you will hear them at their best.

Mrs. Herbert Drew of Evanston is general chairman of the benefit. She is being assisted by Mrs. Edward Hines, also of Evanston, and Mrs. Frank H. Jones of Wilmette, the north shore chairman.

Mrs. Drew and her committee hope to be able some day to buy ground somewhere in Michigan and build a home where these poor kiddies can go and stay two weeks in summer. Tickets may be secured at the box office or by calling Mrs. Jones, Wilmette 2844.

Last Saturday evening a "Hard Times" party and a "Box Social" were combined at the Community House under the auspices of North Shore British-American club. The guests were in costume. Miss Mary Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Steel, and Mr. Glen were the recipients of the prizes awarded for the most unique attire. The meeting was both a social and financial success.

A delightful program was given by North Shore artists before the Matheon Club on Saturday last at the home of Mrs. Edward Richardson in Oak Park. The original story of "Madame Butterfly" by Long, was read by Mrs. Lloyd Faxon of Winnetka, and Virginia Bond Pardee of Highland Park sang a group of Oriental songs.

Miss Phyllis Dally entertained informally at dinner last Saturday evening at her residence, 1031 Oak street, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. There were covers for eight guests, the Misses Margaret Gordon, Elizabeth Dunlap, Mildred Martin, Jane Barr, Vera Anderson, Margaret Cunningham and Edna Solomon.

South Winnetka claims two more residents to its fast growing population. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ellsworth have just moved from Chicago to their new home at 460 Cedar street, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKisson and family also of Chicago, are now settled in their home, 490 Hawthorn Lane.

The Oak Street Circle met with Mrs. W. H. Modes, 923 Oak street on Tuesday of last week. The second program of the "Know Your Winnetka" series included backward glimpses of Winnetka by Mrs. W. A. Otis. Miss Semer of the Three Arts Club gave a group of piano solos.

Mrs. S. M. Page Rees, who has been on an extended visit through the mountains of North Carolina and the Pacific coast since July has just returned to her residence, 826 Linden avenue, Hubbard Woods, accompanied by her mother Mrs. A. B. Lyon of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. R. Floyd Clinch of Glenwood avenue, Hubbard Woods, gave a small luncheon on Tuesday for Mrs. W. Otis Meicher who recently returned to Winnetka, and who now is with Mrs. Charles Fuller.

Mrs. T. J. Stipe of Park Ridge entertained a number of friends from Winnetka and Highland Park Halloween evening. Mrs. Stipe was formerly Miss Margaret Andrews of Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. Agnes Cherry, 1082 Spruce street, is leaving shortly for a southern concert tour of dramatic recitals. A part of her program will include "Smiling Thru" and H. B. Warner's "You and I."

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Gilson, 158 Woodland avenue, are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, Dawn, early Thursday morning at the Mary Thompson hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Craig, 592 Provident avenue, announce the birth of a daughter, Julia Helen, on Thursday, October 25. Mrs. Craig is in the Michael Reese hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert C. Adams, 199 Linden street, are visiting eastern cities and will go to see their daughter, Miss Kathryn Adams, who is attending Bryn Mawr college.

Mrs. John H. Lindeman, 1089 Spruce street, entertained informally at bridge at her home last Tuesday evening.

Music Department Opens Series At Winnetka Club

THE first meeting of the music department of the Winnetka Woman's club was held Thursday, October 25, at three o'clock in the club house. Mrs. Norman Harris, the chairman, who presided, announced that the next meeting of the department would be held on Thursday, November 22, the program to be given by Mrs. Sidney Burnett and Mrs. Joseph Brinkman. She then introduced Miss Neta Smith and Miss Helen Hedges, who gave the afternoon's program.

Miss Smith proved to be a violinist of great ability. She played with a lovely tone and fine technique, and gave a convincing interpretation of the music. The artist had a sureness and an ease in playing which was pleasing to the large audience. Miss Margaret Lagerquist played the accompaniments in a finished manner. The ensemble was good.

The soprano, Miss Helen Hedges, has a charming voice of large range. She sang easily and with much poise. Some of her selections showed to advantage her smooth sustained tones and others her light, high, and flexible voice. Miss Hedges was accompanied most satisfactorily by Mr. Frederick Schamerker.

Tea was served in the parlors after the program. The following members of the music committee were hostesses for the afternoon: Mrs. Norman Harris, chairman, Mrs. C. Colton Daughday, Mrs. Frederick K. Copeland, Mrs. Rudolph Matz, and Miss Augusta Fenger.

Mrs. James S. Pole, 1134 Sheridan road, gave a luncheon Thursday for Mrs. S. M. Bartlemy of Ashland, North Carolina, Mrs. Schmidt of Cleveland, and Mrs. Teagle from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Challinor, of Wilmette announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Mary, to Mr. Howard Warren Shaw, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw also of Wilmette.

Mrs. M. H. Lieber, 468 Ridge avenue, gave an address in Naperville last Wednesday afternoon. Her subject was "My Responsibility as a Citizen."

The monthly meeting of the Infant Welfare society was held last week at the home of Mrs. E. B. Bartlett, 589 Lincoln avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker, 557 Fir street, are giving a birthday party for their daughter, Polly, this evening. The guests will come costumed as dolls.

A Halloween party was given at the home of Mrs. Louis Vollman, 803 Cherry street, in honor of friends from Michigan City, Ind.

THE D'ORLEANS

When kings feasted, Solid Silver was their pride, and today it is still Solid Silver that contributes the final touch of luxury to the table laid for a formal dinner. To meet the exacting demands of such functions, Charles E. Graves & Company announce the introduction of the D'Orleans pattern of table silver.

This table silver de luxe has a richness and inspiration of design that lends a distinctive beauty to the table it adorns, and so adds immeasurably to the impression created by the dining-room as a whole. The D'Orleans is truly a design worthy of becoming a part of the most carefully conceived decorative scheme.
