Are you counted among the loyal alumni of New Trier High school? Have you a boy or girl at the high school? Are you interested in the affairs of the school, in what your boys and girls are doing?

Somehow, we simply cannot conceive of any single person in New Trier township not being interested in our township high school.

But—the contributions for that New Trier High School Band Fund are coming in pretty slow.

Won't you listen to this appeal?

The members of the New Trier High school band have appealed to Lloyd Hollister Inc., publishers of Wilmette Life, Winnetka Talk and Glencoe News, to assist them in raising funds to equip the band with caps and capes. The band has no funds with which to purchase these uniforms. The New Trier High School Board of Education cannot subscribe funds for that purpose. If the boys are to be made happy with those uniforms, it's decidedly up to citizens of New Trier to contribute the necessary amount—$2,000.

Looks like a lot of money, doesn't it? But, really it would be a very small consideration if, say, about one-tenth of New Trier's population contributed a few dollars apiece!

A score or more of citizens have responded without hesitation. There are literally hundred of others who would do the same, if one could just keep on reminding them to—Subscribe today.

That's just it—we're procrastinating. We confidently intend to help, but the matter just slips our minds, doesn't it? Well, let's get it over with by mailing that check today.

The boys would like so much to have those uniforms before Christmas. They want to look the part of the best high school band in the Middle West, and they can't without uniforms. They want to enter that National High School Band competition next spring, and they can't unless we, the alumni of New Trier, the fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and friends of the High school students, rally to their support.

Let's get busy with those checks TODAY. Mail them to New Trier High School Band Fund, c/o Lloyd Hollister, Inc., 1222 Central avenue, Wilmette, Ill.

Kingery Gets Place on Township Zoning Board

Robert Kingery, chairman of the Winnetka Zoning Board of Appeals, Tuesday was appointed a member of the New Trier Township Zoning committee as Winnetka's representative. The appointment was confirmed at the regular council session Tuesday evening.

The Township Zoning body was established recently by agreement of officials of the various villages in New Trier, and has a representative from each community. Its purpose will be to consider the regulation of the development of areas outside the corporate limits of the villages.

THIEVES IN DAYLIGHT RAID ON LOCAL HOME

Forcing Amelia Sechser, a maid at the home of Leroy Baumgartl, 1180 Oakley avenue, Hubbard Woods, to reveal the hiding place of valuable jewelry, and then tying her to a banister post, daylight burglars made their get-a-way with valuable loot Tuesday morning, November 6, when Mrs. Baumgartl was in Chicago.

Miss Sechser was in the house alone when she heard a noise on the first floor, which sounded like unfamiliar footsteps. When she went downstairs to investigate, she was roughly seized by the arm and forced back upstairs where she was compelled to show where the jewelry was hidden. After the burglars had succeeded in their quest they tied Miss Sechser to the banister on the lower floor where she remained until she was released by Gunner Hansen, iceman for the North Shore Ice company, who heard her screams from the street. It is believed that the robbery was the work of the same gang that has been operating all along the North Shore. Winnetka police are unable to detect any evidence that might lead to the apprehension of the criminals.

SECOND CONCERT TUES., NOV. 13

Mannheimer is Artist with Symphony Group

The second symphony concert of the season to be held under the auspices of the New Trier Township Orchestra association will be given Tuesday evening, November 13, at New Trier High school auditorium. As previously announced, this is a change from the date originally scheduled as November 5.

The artist of the evening will be Mr. Frank Mannheimer, an American pianist, who is a striking example of the achievements possible for American-born and American-taught artists. He was born in Dayton, Ohio, in 1896, and received his musical education largely in Chicago and New York. His appearances in recital and with orchestras have been very successful, and he is credited with "a personality of his own and the equipment with which to transmit it."

Following is the program for the evening:

- Overture to "Stradella"Flotow
- Symphony No. 2, in D Major...Haydn
- Adagio; Allegro.
- Andante.
- Menuetto; Trio.
- Allegro Spiritoso.
- Norwegian RhapsodyLalo
- Intermission
- Concerts No. 2 in G Minor, Opus 22, for Piano and OrchestraSaint-Saens
- Andante Sostenuto.
- Allegretto Scherzando.
- Presto.

Chauffeur Burned When Candle Ignites Fumes

Oia Antry, colored, received painful injuries Sunday when the light from a candle ignited a pan of gasoline in the garage at the rear of the home of Fred Trudell, 624 Willow street.

Antry, who had been keeping his car in this garage, was working around the machine under candle light when the fumes from the gasoline came in contact with the flame and suddenly started a fire in the car which burned him before he could make his escape. The fire department was summoned immediately and worked for over an hour before the blaze had been extinguished. The loss on the car alone is estimated at $200.

SCIENTISTS, LOOK HERE!

The Sales committee of the Community House Exchange has just received one genuine Ernst Leitz (Wetzlar) microscope, complete in hardwood case, with eyepiece and two objectives, oil immersion lens type, all in perfect condition, less than a year old.

This magnificent instrument is admirably suited for school, laboratory, or private study. Cannot be bought at retail for less than $85.

It will be sold by the Community Exchange at a bargain. Don't miss this chance!

LOCAL WOMEN STAR AT HOCKEY

Suffer Only One Defeat Thus Far in Current Season of Play

BENEFIT GAME NOV. 18

Expect Big Crowd to Witness Match

The Winnetka Field Hockey club, composed entirely of Winnetka women, is establishing an enviable record this season, having met with but a single defeat to date, and that at the hands of the Lake Forest team by a score of 4 to 3. That loss, it is hoped, will be avenged in a benefit game scheduled for the teams to be played on the North Shore Country Day school field Sunday, November 18, at 3 o'clock.

Tickets for this match are to be secured at the field on the day of play, from Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., 960 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, or from members of the team. Proceeds from the game will go partly to defray the expenses of the English coach who has been instructing all the teams in the Chicago Field Hockey association, and partly to help pay the expenses of the all-Chicago team to the tournament in Philadelphia, November 22 to 24.

Contain National Stars

Last year three Winnetka players made the all-Chicago team and went east for the inter-city tournament. Their photographs are to be seen in the Spalding catalog for the current season.

The line-up of the Winnetka team includes several of the most prominent sportswomen in the village. It includes Mrs. Sebastian Hinton, captain and center; Bobs Waidner, Frances Kellogg, Mrs. Preston Boyden and Dorothy Klotz, forwards; Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. Robert Brown, Ruth Davis, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, Jr., and Mrs. Henry Tenny, backs; Mrs. Fred Chapman, goal keeper; Olivia Fentress, Virginia DeLay and Mrs. H. Urion, substitutes.

Mrs. William Laing, of Walden road, was one of the stars of the first team until she was incapacitated recently when she suffered a broken ankle in a practice game with the North Shore Country Day school girl's team.

Win Three, Lose One

Scores of the games played thus far this season follow: Winnetka 2—Midway 2; Winnetka 4—Evanston 2; Winnetka 5—Lincoln Park 0; Winnetka 3—Lake Forest 4.

"Thanks to the excellent publicity given the club early in the season by the Talk," reads a notice from one of the officers, "the club has been greatly enlarged this year and two teams instead of one have been formed."

The line-up of the second team is as follows: Virginia Miller, Mrs. John S. Holland, Mrs. Joseph Brown, Mrs. Elbert Sutcliffe, Mrs. Sam Greeley, Mrs. Harry Barnum, Mrs. John Senior, Mrs. E. R. Cole, Mrs. Dwight Greene, Mrs. Officer and Mrs. Webb.

The second team recently defeated the Midway seconds 2 to 0.

OBSERVE SPEED LAWS, MERCHANTS' WARNING

The Winnetka Chamber of Commerce, at its regular meeting Wednesday evening of this week, launched a determined campaign to secure general observance of speed and traffic regulation in the village.

Drivers of automobiles and motor trucks are to be warned by the merchants to take care in driving. Every car driven by a member of the Chamber of Commerce is to carry a windshield label announcing the fact that the driver of that car is pledged to observe all traffic regulations, and warning other drivers to follow suit.

The Chamber of Commerce is to hold a dinner Wednesday evening, November 21, at Community House, in accordance with the monthly social evening plan adopted by the organization early this fall. A program of unusual interest is promised.

It was announced at Wednesday's meeting that the Chamber of Commerce band is in need of a bass horn. Individual members of the band have signified their intention to raise the necessary funds, but the officers of the Chamber of Commerce urged others to help in defraying the cost of the instrument.

COPS AND THIEF STAGE GUN FRAY

Flivver Squad Routs Burglar from Home

Three Winnetka police fought it out with a burglar at the home of Harold E. Stuart, 280 Sheridan road, early Saturday evening, the thief making his escape from the premises after his cries indicated he had received shotgun wounds in a close range encounter with Patrolman Iverson of the local Flivver squad.

The bandit was discovered by policeman Iverson, Johannsen and Fjellman when the Flivver squad investigated the temporarily unoccupied Stuart home. Finding the house in complete darkness at about six o'clock, one of the men entered by the front door, which had been left open. He was immediately engaged in a revolver duel with the burglar, who chased madly to the rear of the home, only to encounter a policeman at the rear door where more shots were exchanged. Running back into the house the bandit plunged through an open window and out into the garden where he and Iverson staged a third duel, Iverson apparently nipping the culprit who managed, however, to escape through some thick shrubbery.

The burglars, for it is thought certain that the fellow had a companion stationed near the house, had been operating in the upper rooms of the Stuart home. They ransacked the place completely, securing loot said to be valued at several thousand dollars.

Young People's Club Presents Play Tonight

Tonight, at 8:15 o'clock, a benefit play and dance will be given at Community House by the Young People's club of the Winnetka Congregational church to complete the raising of funds to buy an athletic field and build a dormitory to take care of 100 women in China.

Mr. Reynolds, one of the missionaries of the Congregational church, feels the need of a place which will do the thing that Lake Geneva or Silver Bay does for young people of the church in the Middle West, in training them to be more effective in Christian work.

This proposed summer conference place, with equipment, will cost about $1,000. The Young People's club has raised half this amount. They have planned a delightful evening of wholesome good fun and are inviting all of Winnetka to join with them and help raise the other $500 for that camp in far away China.

BIG BARGAINS AT THAT SALE

White Elephant Sale to Attract Villagers to Center House Next Week

COMMITTEES ON JOB

Still Time to Make Your Contributions

By OBSERVER

Have you made your plans to shop at the White Elephant sale? If not, do it now! The dates are Wednesday and Thursday next, November 14 and 15, in the gymnasium at Community House. You won't regret it, and once there, you'll come back again and again, to get more of the wonderful bargains that are to be offered.

So many articles are being contributed that there will not be room for them all on the tables the first day. The Scout room, the Triangle room and the old boiler room, to say nothing of the basement halls at Community House are packed with an astonishing variety of household and personal articles, including many that are "good as new," and heaps of others that are "just what you've been looking for."

Kitten Sure of Home

Since the last issue of the Talk, there have been several offers for that kitten, and for the piano too. The committee can sell another piano if you have one. An old-fashioned coal heating stove (small), a man's suit (38) and a raincoat are also on the "wanted" list. Many people have held back their contributions until after Halloween. But, let them come now, and the sooner the better. If you can get them in not later than Monday, the committee would like it. Call Winnetka 538 if you can't bring them.

Don't forget the Circles' Bazaar, or new articles' table. Each Circle member, several hundreds of them, is providing one new thing, an apron, or a towel, or a cover, etc., many home made. It will be a fascinating place to shop for Christmas. Mrs. R. S. Childs is in general charge.

So many dolls and toys have been brought in, that there's to be a special table for them. Here's the department list:

Departments Listed

- Men's clothing, Mrs. Heyliger A. de Windt, chairman.
- Children's clothing, Mrs. Morris Wilson, chairman.
- Women's suits and dresses, Mrs. Frederick H. Scott, chairman.
- Candy, Miss Katherine Mordock and Miss Josephine Hoyt.
- Coffee and sandwiches, Mrs. Balak (Czecho-Slovakian group).
- Bric-a-brac and rancy articles, Mrs. John R. Montgomery.
- Hats, Mrs. Charles T. Mordock.
- Shoes, Mrs. Myron T. Harshaw, (Community Drama club).
- Boy's clothing, Mrs. E. E. von Ammon (North Shore Theatre Guild).
- Women's clothing and household linen, Mrs. Charles E. Kregler (Friendship Circle).
- Furniture, Mrs. McFadzean (British American society).
- Remnants and draperies, Mrs. Irving Odell (American Legion).
- Books, Mrs. L. M. Stein.
- Wrapping table, Mrs. Henry K. Urion, assisted by Mrs. William C. Boyden and Mrs. Charles B. Officer.

The Collecting committee, headed by Mrs. Lawrence M. Stein, has been tireless in helping contributors. Mrs. Lowell Copeland is in charge of the strenuous work of sorting and pricing the goods received. The Doo Dad Elephant poster is the work of Mrs. Henry F. Tenny; and many others have given liberally of time and effort to make this Community House Exchange a success. It is hoped that a considerable sum will be realized toward the goal, that of equipping the kitchen and center assembly hall in the new Community House building.

Mrs. Ayres Boal, as general chairman, urges everyone to patronize the sale, and calls attention to the hours, 1 to 9 P. M. on Wednesday, and 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. on Thursday.

PLEASURE CLUB DANCE

The Scandinavian Pleasure club of the north shore announces a dance to be held at Winnetka Community House Saturday evening, November 17.
