NORTH SHORE LINE

The North Shore Line

is the safest high speed electrically operated railroad in the country.

Help us keep our record.

At this season of the year the danger at railroad crossings is increased by reason of motorists enclosing their cars, thereby limiting their vision and hearing.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Woman's Club Open to All on Poet's Day

If you are interested in poetry, you will have the privilege of attending a most delightful afternoon offered to "All Winnetka" by the Woman's club on Thursday afternoon, November 15, at 2:30 o'clock.

If you write poetry, you are urgently requested to send in your compositions, and be a guest.

Many plans are under consideration to make Poet's Day very enjoyable. "Originality" will be the key-note of the afternoon for you will not only hear original poems, but an original reading by Mrs. Laird Bell.

The poetry committee consists of: Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. Frederick Christopher, Mrs. Malcom Fleming, Mrs. Samuel Hancock, Mrs. Claude Mason and Mrs. Louis Schmid.

After the readings, you will be served with afternoon tea.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. James Richards, Mrs. Ezra Taylor, Mrs. George Frazer, Mrs. John Montgomery, Mrs. Harry Barnum and Mrs. John Vennema.

Lilienfield-Foreman Nuptials November 21

MISS Virginia Lilienfield has chosen Wednesday, November 21, as the date of her marriage to F. Henry Foreman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foreman of Chicago. The service will take place at six o'clock in the evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward David Lilienfield, in Wilmette, followed by a dinner for members of the immediate families. In the evening there will be an informal reception for friends and relatives.

Miss Dorothy Hardenbrook a November Bride

MR. and Mrs. Burt Cheever Hardenbrook, 642 Maple avenue, Winnetka, formerly of Wilmette, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. George Jago Murch, on Saturday afternoon, November 17, at 4:30 o'clock, at Christ Church, Winnetka.

Miss Sara Huguenin Engaged to O. W. Lowry

MR. and Mrs. Philip Huguenin, of Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara, to Mr. O. William Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lowry, 1643 Kenilworth avenue, Rogers Park.

The third meeting of the Winnetka Business Woman's club took place at the Community House on Tuesday evening, November 6, at 8:30. The following officers were elected: Florence Preston, president; Ida Martin, vice president; Phoebe Schroeder, treasurer; and Vinnie Irwin, secretary.

This club was organized for the purpose of offering all women and girls in business an opportunity to gather together for social evenings. Any one in business in Winnetka or Hubbard Woods, or any woman or girl living in either of these villages in business elsewhere, is eligible for admission into the club.

At the present time no definite plans have been formulated, but in the future there will be several entertaining speakers, and some gymnasium work will be offered.

The next meeting will be held at the Community House on Monday night, November 12, at 7:45. A large attendance is desired.

The Visiting committee of the North Shore Advisory Board of the Illinois Children's Home and aid society, composed of Mrs. Oliver A. Olmsted, chairman, Mrs. William R. Parkes, Mrs. H. H. Hoyt, Mrs. Edward P. Wells, Mrs. Oliver M. Knode and Mrs. Harry C. Holloway, invite the Board, the sustaining and assisting members, and all who have contributed to make the Home what it is today, to a tea on Monday, November 19, at the Home, 826 Ridge avenue, Evanston, from 4 to 6 o'clock. They also invite all who are interested in the welfare of children to come and see the Home and become acquainted with the work that is going on in their midst. Contributions will not be solicited.

Mrs. Carroll L. Tyler, who passed the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Bailey, 150 Linden avenue, will leave next Tuesday with her little daughter, for New York to join her husband before sailing on November 15, for Panama, where Lieutenant Tyler will be stationed for the winter.

New Trier Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Willis Stutson, 479 Sunset road. Mrs. Kuipers will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. Lloyd Faxson will give a selection of readings. The members are requested to bring their contributions for the White Elephant sale.

One of the passengers on the White Star liner Majestic which arrived at New York from Southampton and Cherbourg on November 2, was Mrs. Margaret S. Eisendrath, 1163 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Everett, 1020 Spruce street are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter on October 30.

Chicago and north shore alumnae of the University of Michigan have been invited to a reception and tea to meet Miss Jean Hamilton, Dean of Women at the University, on Thursday afternoon, November 15, at the Chicago College club. The hostesses for the afternoon include Mrs. Karl K. Koesler, Mrs. Charles H. McKenna, Miss Margaret Spalding Sides, Miss Mary Griswold, Mrs. Joseph Langlands of Chicago, Mrs. Sidney C. Eastman of Kenilworth, Mrs. William D. McKenzie and Mrs. Mellen C. Martin of Hubbard Woods, Mrs. Orrin K. Earl of Oak Park, Miss Edith McCormick of Glen Ellyn and Mrs. Harry S. Gradle of Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Wilson, who with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Miss Gladys Sorv, have been guests at White Sulphur Springs, took part in a coon hunt last week. They not only killed a coon but a captured possum was brought home by Miss Spry, who resides in Evanston. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson gave a barbecue for the hunting party two nights after the chase at "Kate's Mountain club."

The Tag day which took place in Winnetka last Saturday morning under the auspices of the American Legion, for the Salvation Army fund, was successful. Miss Rita Talbot was in charge of the taggers. Her assistants were: Harriet Stilling; Margaret Whipple, Mary Johnstone, Marion Austen, Julia Spiegel and Virginia MacLeish.

Winnetka members of the Smith college circle have been invited to the home of Mrs. Mary Hastings Bradley in Hyde Park, to view the pictures in her African room. Among those who may go are Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Jr., Mrs. Reynolds Brooks, Mrs. Sherman Aldrich, Mr. Buckingham Chandler and Mrs. Howard Walsh.

The Foxdale Avenue Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred G. Freeman, 651 Lincoln avenue, at 2:30 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. Each member is asked to bring a gift for the White Elephant sale, as they are to have one booth of new things at the sale.

The West Elm Street Circle will hold an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl A. Gode, 896 Elm street, Tuesday, November 13. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Dwight R. Coultts will be the assisting hostess.

Miss Marion Campbell of 270 Scott avenue, will go to Champaign the last of this week to spend "Dad's Day."
