

Joy For One All to be Found in Magic City Dec. 8

O JOY! O Rapture! Happiness Hall at the Toy Carnival will furnish all the thrills for which a young heart could wish, and since by youth we mean our capacity to reflect the joy we receive, surely Happiness Hall will make a strong appeal to each and all who enter the Magic City on December 8. King Ha! Ha! will give a jolly welcome to his guests who will be guided by his pages through his magic domain visiting Kate Greenaway in her toy garden. The Fairy Wishing Well presided over by elfs and fairies will be ready to fulfill one's fondest wishes. Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard will not be bare. Both Mother Hubbard and her dog will be there. Her magic cupboard will be well laden with surprise packages since a never-ending supply is now ready. Then too, King Ha! Ha's! teddy bears will arrive on the Magic Way road, their train being well loaded with still more magic packages. Gayly uniformed gendarmes will act as guards so that all will run smoothly and safely on this Magic road. Now what could be more fun than a ride on the Hobby-Horse, a slide down the Slides or a trip on the merry-go-round, especially when a really truly organ-grinder furnishes the music?

Raggedy-Ann, the Gingham Dog, the Calico Cat and many other favorites will mingle with the guests. The Court Jester will also do his part in assisting King Ha! Ha! to entertain his friends. More music and still more music will be furnished by his strolling minstrels.

Princess Merry-Feet, with her soft furry coat will be seated near King Ha! Ha!—the story of her own life will be told as she complacently looks on, occasionally expressing herself in a soft plaintive "MEOW."

These and many others are the attractions offered on December 8, at the Evanston Woman's club when the alumnae and friends of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college present their annual toy carnival which this year is worked out as the Magic City.
