

GIVE THANKSGIVING DRAMA AT SKOKIE

Thanksgiving is with us again and the dramatic class of the Skokie school is preparing to entertain the children of all the Winnetka schools with a Thanksgiving play. "Thanksgiving at Plymouth," a play for children written by Mrs. Lucy A. Cuddy of the San Francisco Children's theatre, and produced in that city several times last fall, has been chosen as the play.

Wednesday, November 28, at 2 o'clock, the children will assemble in the Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall for the program. When they are all crowded in, not much room is left for any one else, so the Skokie children are going to repeat their play the following Saturday night, December 1, at 7:30 o'clock, for the benefit of parents and friends who may wish to attend.

The admission charge is moderate and the Skokie Dramatic class promises that the presentation will be with the same degree of artistic finish which has been commended in their previous productions. All of the costumes and scenery are the product of the children's own efforts and have been prepared in conjunction with their dramatic study. The play is in every sense a creation of their own. The proceed of this, as of previous plays, will be turned into further equipment of the school.

Several New Homes in Week's Building List

Permission to build in the village of Winnetka has been given to the following persons: Fred Walter, who will build a home at 1377 Scott street in the Chicago, North Shore Land Company's sub-division; Frederick A. Cooper, who will build two homes at 1004 and 1010 Cherry street, respectively; Alfred C. Manierre, who will build at 717 Rosewood avenue; William Aitken, who will build at 165 Fuller lane.

SCHNEIBLE HAVE SOLD

The two-acre Joseph Schneible estate at 254 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, has been purchased by A. W. Mitchell of Chicago. Mr. Mitchell expects to move into his new home on or about December 1. The sale was negotiated by John Hindrum, local realtor.

F. C. Magee Residence Is Sold for $100,000

McQuire and Orr, have sold for the estate of F. C. Magee, the property at 735 Sheridan road. This is a 12-room brick colonial home and garage with apartment above. The grounds are 160 by 400 feet and attractively landscaped. McQuire and Orr were exclusive agents for the property and had several interested buyers, but H. H. Kennedy, the tenant, purchased the property for $100,000.

THE FAMILY TABLE

Weekly papers like ours lie on the sitting-room table all week and are usually read from upper left hand corner of the first page to the lower right-hand corner of the last page. And everybody in the house reads them, except the very sick and the very young. Want Ads in weekly papers are read several times and by many people.
