

Woman's Club

A MEETING of the Music Department of the Winnetka Woman's club was held Thursday, November 22, in the clubhouse with the chairman, Mrs. Norman Harris, presiding. Mrs. Willoughby Walling made a strong appeal to the club women for more loyal support in the drive to aid the American Red Cross. Mrs. Harris announced that the next meeting of the Department will be on December 27, a regular club day, when the program will be given by Margery Winslow, pianist, and Cooper Lawley, tenor.

The program Thursday, was given by Mrs. J. Sidney Burnett, contralto, and Mr. Joseph Brinkman, pianist, and was a very enjoyable one. Mrs. Burnett has a beautiful, flexible voice, and her singing is very finished. The group of French songs was charming, but the English songs, "Sylvia," "Hew" and "Lilac Time" made a special appeal to the audience. Mrs. Beulah Taylor Porter's accompaniment was delightful.

Mr. Brinkman of the American Conservatory of Music showed his remarkable technique especially well in "Concert Arabesque" by Schalzerler. The "Sonnetto 104 del Petrarca" by Liszt was beautifully played with a lovely tone and delicate shading. Both of these artists greatly pleased the enthusiastic audience.

Following the program, tea was served in the parlor; the hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles N. Ascheim, Mrs. J. W. F. Davies, Mrs. Louis A. Sherman and Mrs. Arthur R. Dean.

Country Day to Hold
"Open House" Tuesday

The Parent-Teacher association of the North Shore Country Day school plans an interesting meeting for Tuesday evening, December 4, at the school with the idea in view of enabling every parent to have a general idea of the aims and work of the school, there will be ten-minute class periods scheduled for that evening.

The parents on arriving will be given a "schedule of classes," and the groups will go to their various "classes" as bells ring. Each teacher in the brief time allotted will try to give the visitors an idea of some phase of the work, methods and aims in his department. A general social get-together will close the evening.
