

CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE STARTED

Club and School Leaders Organized to Push Sale of Seals in Township

CHILDREN TO ASSIST

Mrs. John A. Hoffman, General Chairman

The annual campaign for the sale of Christmas seals in New Trier Township will get under way early next week, the note of challenge to be sounded Sunday, December 2, from every pulpit in the township, calling upon the citizens to buy and buy and buy to swell the funds of the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute.

The organization, which is to push the Christmas seal campaign in the township, was partially effected this week and, within another week, every village in New Trier will have its representatives in the field.

Mrs. Hoffman, Chairman

Mrs. John A. Hoffman, president of the Grosse Pointe Health Center board, is general chairman of the Christmas seal drive, and is assisted in the supervision of the campaign by other officers of the board including Mrs. Wendelin P. Seng, vice president; Mrs. George Maxwell, secretary, and Mrs. A. W. Boylston, treasurer.

Among the leaders in women's circles who will direct the sales of seals in their groups are: Mrs. Louis K. Gillson, chairman for the Wilmette Woman's club; Mrs. A. H. Rohol, Woman's Catholic Club of Wilmette; Mrs. George Maxwell, Logan School Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. C. W. Cozzens, Central School Parent-Teacher association; Mrs. Kramer, Laurel School Mothers' club; Mrs. W. N. Gillett, Kenilworth Neighbor's Club; Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline and Mrs. Morton L. Paterson, Congregational Church Woman's Guild; Mrs. Carl Whitney and Mrs. E. J. Hoffman, Woman's Society of Wilmette Parish Methodist church;

Tuberculosis Sunday

Sunday, December 2, has been established by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute as Tuberculosis Sunday when ministers in the various churches will be asked to speak a word in behalf of the splendid service rendered by this great health agency.

Actual sale of Christmas seals will begin Monday, December 3, when the seals and bonds will be available at club and group headquarters. In the second week of the campaign the seals and bonds will be placed on sale at the schools. Prizes for children who excel in the sales have been announced as follows: Attractive Christmas seal pins to every child selling one dollar's worth of seals; a set of Christmas post cards to every child selling $5 worth of the seals.

Best Story in World, Sunday Sermon Topic

Rev. James A. Richards' sermon topic at the Winnetka Congregational church, Sunday morning, December 2, will be "The Best Story in the World."

Music at 11 o'clock services will include:

Anthem—Sanctus ..... Gounod
Alto Solo—Morning Hymn, Henschel
Offertory Anthem—"O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go" .... Sealy

YOU can't tell a thing about it—the weather man might be right this time. Don't let the cold wave catch you with an empty coal bin. In times like these prepare not to freeze, but stop and seize—this coal opportunity—good coal for the price charged for near-coal.
