

"Under the Mistletoe" Xmas Card Finds Favor Again

"The cheer of the mistletoe and the holly, The joy of the child with the Christmas dolly, The wealth of friendship warm and true, All of these I wish for you."

This charming Christmas picture was the Christmas gift last year of the etcher, Mr. Charles Morgan of Milwaukee, to the National Kindergarten and Elementary college building fund. The brooding child with her dolly made its large appeal last year to the college alumnae and their friends. Copies of this unusually attractive card will be on sale in the book department at the Toy Carnival to be held December 8 at the Evanston Woman's club.

The proceeds of the carnival are all for the college building fund. Miss Ruth Peterson, librarian of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college is in charge of the Carnival Book and Picture department, assisted by Miss Edith Moon, Miss Morse and Miss Maude Chidester of the Children's department, Evanston Public Library. Mrs. Florence Ten Folds of the Children's department, Chicago Public Library. Miss Peterson has assembled a very large stock of well selected books and pictures and will be ready with her assistants to advise those who wish help in their purchases for children. Most attractive book-ends and book plates will be for sale besides the well known book plate of Milo Winters, always a favorite with children will be an entirely new one, the design made by Carol Louise Burnham, 13-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Burnham of Hubbard Woods. Carol Lou has given her design as her contribution to the college building fund. This design works out both as a Christmas card and as a book plate.
