

Social Happenings

The Woman's Society of the Winnetka Congregational Church will meet on Wednesday, December 5, at Community house. The sewing committee will have work ready to begin on at ten o'clock. Those cold weather garments are in large demand now. The women who made the special visit to Chicago Commons on Monday saw at first hand one of the great centers that need the active co-operation of Winnetka women.

During the sewing hour Mrs. George D. Frazer will sing these songs: "I Love Thee," by Greig, "A Little Winding Road," by Ronald, and "Robin, Robin, Sing Me a Song," by Spross. Mrs. James O. Ely will lead the devotional service. Newcomers in the village are especially invited to enjoy this opportunity to become acquainted.

Luncheon will be served at twelve-fifteen in the gymnasium. Immediately following this, Frederick E. Clerk, principal of New Trier Township High school, will speak on the subject: "What Is Happening In Our Schools." Every woman, whether she has children in the local schools or not, will welcome this chance to learn from our new leader of his hopes and plans for this important feature of our community life.

Mrs. Elis Soukup of 599 Fir street, gave a party last Sunday afternoon in the honor of the 16th birthday of her daughter Blanche.

Many friends and relatives were present on this happy occasion.

Mrs. H. F. Fuller of Crete, Nebraska, arrived in Winnetka on Friday of last week to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur R. Dean, 441 Willow street.

The Northwestern University Women's Glee club assisted by Mrs. Norman Parker, violinist, and Charles Lutton, baritone, as soloists, will appear in concert next Friday evening, December 7. Heretofore the concerts have been the result of the combined efforts of the Men's and Girls' Glee clubs, but this year the women are doing it all by themselves. Mrs. Parker is a professional and is well known on the north shore, while Mr. Lutton has appeared on many Women's club and New Trier programs. The director is Mrs. Bowman, a member of the Music school faculty, at the university. The accompanist is Miss Eleanor Marks of Glencoe.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Butler of Glencoe and Mr. Lewis Galantiere. Miss Butler, who is in Europe with her mother, Mrs. Alice C. Butler, will be married in Paris in June and will continue to live there two or three years.

Pi Beta Phi sorority, Northwestern university, will hold its annual card party Friday, December 7, at 2 o'clock, in the ballroom of the Orrington hotel, for the organization's house, which is to be a unit in the group of women's buildings at Northwestern university.

Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson will give a holiday dance at her home, 711 Sheridan road, on Thursday, December 29, for her grandchildren, Helen and Raymond Hardenbergh; Loren and George Massey; Ayres, Jr., Stewart and Tom Boal.

Mrs. H. W. Pettigrew, and her sister, Miss J. E. Edwards, 428 Linden avenue, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Miss W. T. Baker, in Evanston.

Mrs. R. Floyd Clinch of Glenwood avenue, who is in Atlantic City, will return to-morrow.

Perhaps the most brilliant and most talked of affair on the social calendar for early December, is the Eli Bates settlement benefit performance of "Chauve Souris" to be given at the Garrick theater on December 17. The ticket committee is comprised of women from Chicago and many outlying suburbs. Winnetka is well represented by the following: Mrs. T. Philip Swift, who is a member of the main committee; Mesdames William B. Hale, chairman of the Winnetka sub-committee; Preston Boyden, Arthur G. Cable, Kent Chandler, Charles Foreman, Arthur F. Tuttle, and Arthur Woodward.

Mr. Francis K. Cooke, 347 Forest avenue, who has been in the Ozarks on a hunting trip for the past three weeks, expects to stay two weeks more. It might be of interest to the sportsmen of Winnetka to know that Mr. Cooke writes home that there has never been such a season for quail, and that in nine days he got ninety-six birds.

The Suburban Neighborly club will have its monthly dinner-dance this evening at the Winnetka Woman's club. The Columbia School of Music held a recital at the Woman's club Friday, under the auspices of Miss Air.

Mr. Victor Eckart, 411 Linden street, left Friday for Kankakee to spend a few days at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Commer. Mrs. Eckart returned home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Anning of 744 Prospect avenue, who left Wednesday for California, have taken a bungalow for the winter at 2475 North Marengo avenue, Altadena.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thorne, 474 Willow street, will live, during the winter, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. T. G. Windes, 244 Forest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Biddle, 290 Forest avenue, gave a Thanksgiving party Thursday for twelve guests from Chicago and Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rieckhoff, of Milwaukee, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Demling, 699 Willow street.

Mrs. F. W. Parker, 656 Ardsley road entertained the Infant Welfare Luncheon club at the Evanston Iron Lantern last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Greenhalgh, 350 Forest avenue, entertained fifteen guests from Rogers Park over Thanksgiving.

Miss Dorothy Sciler, of Chicago, was the guest of Miss Dorothy DePau, 724 Center street, over last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Smith, of Oak Park, are building a home on 819 Humboldt avenue.
