Warren of Evanston, are the patronesses for the Toy Carnival to be given tomorrow at the Evanston Woman's club, under the direction of the alumnae of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college.

The affair is expected to be even more charming than the carnival of last year, according to Mrs. Florence S. Capron of Evanston, president of the north shore alumnae association and general chairman of the carnival.

Co-operating groups from each of the north shore towns have joined forces with the central group of alumnae in Evanston and have been working for months to make this year's carnival a great success.

Engagement of Julia Greeley Announced

NEWS that will be of interest to many Greeleys of Winnetka comes from Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Greeley of Berkeley, California, who announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Mira, to Mr. Chandler Dimmock Ingersoll of Brooklyn and Huntington, Long Island. The wedding will occur in June. Miss Greeley graduated last spring from the University of California, and has been continuing her studies in medicine at the Affiliated Colleges. Her fiancé is a graduate of Cornell and is now taking a post-graduate course in chemistry at Columbia university.

The Greeleys, who formerly resided here, have many friends in Winnetka and along the north shore. Miss Julia and Miss Martha sailed for Italy November 30. They will spend the winter in southern Europe where they will be joined later in the season by Mr. and Mrs. Greeley.

The North Shore Musical Society was entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Essley, 234 Warwick road, Kenilworth, in honor of Mrs. D. B. Macauley, the president of the society, who is soon to leave for a winter's sojourn in California. A fine program of classical music was given by members of the club. It was a delightful afternoon. Mrs. Macauley presided at the tea table and was assisted by Mrs. Ross Stewart, Mrs. A. F. Cordts and Mrs. Wilder.

Mrs. George L. Cherry, 1082 Spruce street, entertained thirty-five guests last Sunday evening with a musicale and tea. The artists who furnished the program were Miss Esther Sopkins, pianist; Miss Julie Brewer, soprano; Miss Rita Smith, dramatic reader and entertainer; and Miss Evelyn McKinstry, classical dancer. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Cherry and little daughter, Laura Jane, are moving to Evanston to occupy the apartment which they have taken in the Evans Manor.

All those who attend the next meeting of the Winnetka Business Woman's club which will be held at Community House, Monday, December 10, at 7:45 in the evening, are asked to bring some food, clothing, or toys for Christmas charity work. Those present at the meetings who have not paid their membership dues will be charged a small guest fee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Rothchild, 1173 North avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Burkhardt of 1163 Asbury avenue, who sailed October 25, for Honolulu, where they spent two weeks, have returned to California to visit in San Francisco and Los Angeles before returning to Winnetka on December 15.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Bradstreet, 475 Cedar street, have as their guests this week Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fitch of Kenilworth, who are spending a few days at the Bradstreet residence before departing for California where they will make their home.

On Friday night, the Forty Club had a dance at the Winnetka Woman's Club. On Monday, the North Shore Catholic Women's League held their meeting there.

The East Willow Street Circle will meet at 11:30 o'clock, Tuesday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. Frank F. Ferry, 391 Sheridan road.

Mrs. Edward Wisdom, 861 Spruce street, entertained twelve guests from out of town, over Thanksgiving.

Invitations for the debut of Miss Virginia Beymer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Merritt Beymer of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette and Glencoe, have been recalled because of the death of one of Virginia's dearest friends, Miss Florrie Sheafe of Evanston. In deference to her memory Miss Beymer will have no coming out ball on December 26. Instead she will leave on December 20 with her parents to spend the Christmas holidays at the Lake Placid club, Lake Placid, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Guilo Matteoni have sold their home at 989 Elm street, and have gone back to Italy to be with their daughter, Sylvia, who is in school there. Mr. and Mrs. Wiler, formerly of Cherry street, have bought the Matteoni home, and will live there as soon as a few repairs are completed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Joy and Miss Janet Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Frame of Chicago, and Mrs. Clark of Princeton, Illinois, had tea Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Joy, 370 Sheridan road. Mrs. Clark was a former resident of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. Jockmann, 945 Elm street entertained over Thanksgiving: Mr. and Mrs. H. Fedderson and daughter of Racine; Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Milwaukee. Mrs. A. S. Fedderson, daughter of Mrs. Jockmann, will spend this week-end in Racine.

The Ladies Aid of the Scandinavian church will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Hugo Lundstroms, 555 Provident road. Mrs. Oberg, of China, will be the guest of honor, and will speak about her work as a missionary in the Orient.

Miss Josephine Hoyt and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, 435 Elm street, who have been in the east for about three weeks, are the guests of Mrs. Elliott Stearns of Cleveland.

The Pine Street Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Douglas Taylor, 1078 Spruce street, Tuesday, December 11, at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. John Marshall will sing.

Mrs. A. E. Bryson, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Pierce, will entertain the Indian Hill Circle on Tuesday, December 11, at her home, 182 Myrtle street.

Mrs. A. C. Kilmer of Waukegan, was the guest of Mrs. R. V. Barnes, 883 Elm street, over last week-end.

Mrs. Charles H. McNie of 266 Forrest avenue, has been ill for about a week.
