SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dances and Dinners Fill Holiday Season

THE holiday activities begin this week. Not only the young people returning from distant cities but those who have been attending schools nearby, are anticipating a vacation crowded with a variety of festivities. While out door sports with attendant luncheons and suppers will have their share of attention many of the days will be spent with large, formal affairs.

Dinners and dances are the most frequent events on the calendar of the coming season. On Friday evening, December 21, Mrs. George Parker will give a dance at her residence, 200 Linden avenue, for her daughter and her school friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Willets of Chicago are giving a dinner-dance at their home for Miss Edwina Litsinger, and for Miss Carolyn Jane Everett, daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. Everett of Hubbard Woods. On Saturday evening, December 22, Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler of Hubbard Woods will entertain at a dance for their daughter, Miss Barbara, at the Winnetka Woman's club. Mrs. John Stuart will be a dinner hostess that evening at her residence, 990 Sheridan road, preceding the Mettler dance. On the same evening Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wickes Blatchford of Winnetka will give a dinner party at the Saddle and Cycle club for Miss Marion and Miss Elsie Blatchford.

Many young people from along the North Shore will be guests at the dance to be given on Christmas night at the Fortnightly by Mr. and Mrs. John Sidney Burnet of Chicago, for their daughter, Miss Beatrice. Mrs. John Nash Ott, 17 Indian Hill road, will be a dinner hostess for her daughter, Miss Mary, before the Boyden-Coffin dance which will be held at Indian Hill club on Wednesday evening, December 26. The following evening Mrs. Calvin Fentress will give a dance for her daughter, Miss Mary, at Indian Hill club. The same night Mrs. John Nash Ott will give a dance at her home for her son, John Nash, Jr. On Saturday evening, December 29, Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson will be hostess at a dance at her residence on Sheridan road, for her six grandchildren. On the same evening Mr. and Mrs. Victor Elting and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clark of Winnetka are giving a dinner party at the Saddle and Cycle club for Winston Elting and Victor, Jr., and for Robert Clark.

Marigold Langworthy Makes Debut Today

AN attractive affair of today is the tea which Mrs. Benjamin F. Langworthy is giving from 4 until 7 at her residence, 832 Bryant avenue, to introduce her daughter, Marigold. Another daughter, Mrs. Donald Bain Murray, will be a guest of honor.

Assisting Mrs. Langworthy will be Mrs. Philemon B. Kohlsaat, Mrs. W. H. Winslow, Mrs. John R. Montgomery, of Winnetka, and Mrs. E. S. Wells of River Forest. Miss Marion Montgomery of Winnetka, Miss Margaret Hamilton of Oak Park, Miss Mildred Towlison of New York, Miss Helen Thompson of Chicago, Miss Margaret Kimball of Kenilworth, Miss Katherine Lloyd of Hubbard Woods, and Miss Benita Spencer of California, a niece of Mrs. Langworthy's, are the friends of Miss Marigold's who will assist.

A program devoted to Alphonse Daudet was given last Saturday afternoon by members of Mrs. Henry J. Smith's classes in French, at the home of Mrs. Smith of Wilmette. Scenes from "L'Arlesienne," Daudet's famous play, were read by Mrs. J. Melville Brown, Miss Grace Cooper Mrs. Harry A. Hooker, Mrs. Sumner Mason, Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford, Mrs. Ralph Potter, Mrs. Marjorie Middlekauff Sherman, Mrs. Donald Simmons and Mrs. L. Willis Strong, of Wilmette; Mrs. Morton A. Mergentheim, of Winnetka and Mrs. Harold Fishbein and William Fishbein, of Chicago. Mrs. Sherman sang several songs by French composers, accompanied by Miss Adelaide Jones.

At a recent meeting of the Board of the Infant Welfare Society of Wilmette plans were made for the Christmas party to be given Thursday, December 20, at the New Trier station, Chicago avenue, and Elizabeth street, Chicago. This party is given by the board members of Glencoe, Kenilworth and Wilmette centers and is looked upon as a great event. A short entertainment is followed by the distribution of gifts and bags of candy by a real Santa Claus. Ice cream and cookies are served to all mothers and children who attend, there being about three hundred and fifty guests.

The Kindergarten department of the Winnetka Congregational Sunday school will have a Christmas party for the little ones on Saturday, December 22, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the Kindergarten rooms. Miss Mildred Mock, who is the director of the Kindergarten department, will be assisted by a committee comprised of Mrs. G. L. Nickel, Mrs. Marcus Richards and Mrs. Theodore Coyne.

Miss Marion Fulton arrives Sunday from Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. She will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulton, who have been living in a furnished house at 1004 Spruce street. The Fultons expect that their own home will be ready for occupancy some time in January.

Miss Helen English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. English, 375 Hawthorn lane, played the leading role of Martha in "The Florist," which was given by the girls of the Dramatic club of Rockford college last Saturday night. Miss English will return to Winnetka December 20, to spend the holiday season with her parents.

On Friday afternoon and evening, December 14, Mrs. W. W. Ross, 1027 Meadow road, Glencoe, opened her home for an exhibit of oil paintings, etchings and wood cuts, which are the works of members of the Saugautuck Art Colony. Residents of Evanston, Winnetka, and Lake Forest, who are interested in seeing this exhibit, are invited to be present Saturday evening, December 15. Among those whose work will be on exhibition are David Adam, Mary Bockius, and Mr. Weiborg, all of whom have had their work accepted for exhibits in the Art Institute.

Miss Mary Clark of Aldbrough, East Yorks, England, will be married to Mr. Herbert J. Brooke of 841 Foxdale avenue. The wedding will be performed today at the Church of the Incarnation in Milwaukee. A reception will be held at the home of the bridegroom's brother, Mr. Gerald Brooke, who lives in Milwaukee. After a wedding trip in Florida, Mr. Brooke and his bride will be at home after January 1, at 841 Foxdale avenue.

Miss Ellen Stuart comes from Miss Hall's school at Pittsfield, Massachusetts, December 20, to spend her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart, 990 Sheridan road. Miss Joan, who is in school in England, will be in Switzerland during the holidays. She will return to Winnetka in the spring.

Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden, 352 Linden avenue is one of a committee of fifteen women of the Daughters of the Republic who met at the Edgewater Beach hotel last Monday to formulate plans for the furnishing of one hundred Christmas baskets for the bed-ridden sailors at Great Lakes.

Miss Mary Louise Fenton will return December 20, from Washington, D. C., where she has been attending Miss Madeire's school. She will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Fenton, 818 Bryant avenue, during her Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, 745 Sheridan road, will have their two sons with them for the holidays. Charles will arrive about December 18 from Morristown, New Jersey, where he has been attending a preparatory school. Franklin, Jr., will come from Williams on December 20.

Mrs. Nathaniel H. Blatchford, Jr., gave a shower at her residence in Hubbard Woods on Monday afternoon for Miss Polly Packard.
