

Out-of-Town Contributions Continue Toy Carnival Sale

BELATED TOY CARNIVAL contributions, still pouring in from distant alumnae of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college have made it possible to continue the successful Carnival Sale which took place last Saturday, December 8, at the Evanston Woman's club.

On Saturday, December 15, a Toy Carnival Sale will be opened in the North End Shop of the Orrington hotel in Evanston, continuing all day and evening Saturday and through Monday and Tuesday of next week. A choice assortment of Christmas toys, dolls, baby wearing apparel, books, pictures, Christmas cards and other holiday gifts will be on sale.

This sale is held under the auspices of the North Shore alumnae and friends of the college. The proceeds are to be devoted entirely to the college building fund.

The Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church will hold its last meeting before Christmas next Wednesday at ten o'clock at Community House. The main occupation of the day will be the sewing on the greatly needed garments for children, some of which have already been completed. Mrs. Merriman will sing, and Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty will read "while you sew." The women are asked to bring small gifts to place in the pockets of the garments which are to be sent in a Christmas box to Chicago Commons. The committee says, "Bring your own sandwiches for lunch; coffee and doughnuts will be served." A cordial invitation is given to all Winnetka women to enjoy the day.

The Girls Friendly society will have a Bunco party and a Christmas bazaar at Christ Church Parish house on Wednesday evening, December 19, commencing at 8 o'clock. Dolls, toys, and fancy work will be on sale. Miss Catherine Blasius is the chairman of the entertainment committee. Miss Florence Anderson will be in charge of the fancy work, and Miss Lillian Lindwall will have the doll booth.
