

KIWANIS CLUB TO PLAY SANTA

Plan Yuletide Festival for Foreigners

Through the efforts of the business men of Chicago, representatives of the Kiwanis club, Santa Claus and Uncle Sam are to be made one and the same person to thousands of foreign born and immigrant's children this Christmas. The Yuletide festival is to be seized by the forward-looking executives of the largest Chicago business concerns as an opportunity to do much sound Americanization work.

Centering round the twenty-seventh annual "Poor Children's Christmas Party" of the Volunteers of America, when thousands of the poorest and loneliest children from the foreign colonies of Chicago gather at the Volunteer's auditorium, 1201 W. Washington boulevard, the Kiwanis club of Chicago will conduct a patriotic campaign in which the warmth of America's welcome to newcomers from foreign lands will be emphasized.

Americanize America

Albert Mathews, president of the Kiwanis club, who has been working with Colonel H. Smith, regimental commander of the Volunteers of America, says regarding the project: "Quite often the children of foreigners and residents of the immigrant colonies are left out entirely at Christmas. They are apt to grow up embittered, anti-social enemies of the United States unless they are made to feel that America cares for them—that America wants them. They see the children of native-born Americans," continued Mr. Mathews, "being feasted and treated at Christmas and they feel intensely forgotten. The Kiwanis Club will help to feed and entertain thousands of this kind of children on Christmas Eve. The Volunteers of America here have been doing this work for over a quarter of a century and we, the Kiwanis club want to add our mite to their noble and worthy work."

Gala Performance at Party

It is said that the greatest entertainers in the city will take part in the big Christmas party. Practically every kind of an educational feature will be prepared in a most entertaining manner, and in addition, large bags of candies, fruits, nuts, and other necessities that go to make an honest-to-goodness Christmas, will be distributed.

Society Prepares Toys

Not only will bankers, lawyers, presidents of corporations, judges, merchants, and millionaires take off their coats, roll up their sleeves and fill Christmas baskets and bags, but their wives and the society leaders of the city will wrap the toys and prepare the gifts. Also, actors, chorus girls, musical comedy and vaudeville stars as well as working girls, will dress dolls and wrap the toys and gifts on their lunch hour and between acts. Every family to receive a basket or gift from the Volunteers of America and Kiwanis will be thoroughly investigated in order that proper distribution may be made to those really in most need.

Several north shore men, engaged in business in Chicago, are members of the Kiwanis club.

SHERIDAN SHORE CLUB PREPARED FOR BALLOT

Officers for the Sheridan Shore Yacht club in Wilmette harbor will be elected the latter part of the month, it was announced this week.

The candidates will be placed before every member of the club two weeks before the annual meeting, according to the club constitution. The officers will consist of a commodore, a vice-commodore, rear-commodore, skipper, secretary, treasurer, and two directors.

Members of the club see an interesting future for the yacht club. "The past ten years have seen people driving automobiles for a pastime," said the commodore, William H. Noble. "With the extremely congested conditions on the roads today, they are returning to the good and healthy sports on the water."

The present officers are William H. Noble, commodore; Earle W. DeMoe, vice-commodore; Charles H. Pajean, rear-commodore; and Charles E. Ware, secretary-treasurer.
