

XMAS PROGRAM AT SUNDAY CLUB

Philharmonic String Quartet to Present Program Sunday, December 23

READER WILL ASSIST

Miss Rita Smith to Give "The Three Kings"

Observance of Christmas at the Wilmette Sunday Evening club will be in the nature of a program of music appropriate to the season, given by the Philharmonic String quartet of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

The quartet is one of the most prominent musical organizations in Chicago and is in constant demand for renditions of exceptionally interesting programs. This year will mark its fourth appearance before Sunday Evening club audiences.

George Dasch, well known leader of the Little Symphony orchestra—which appears in concert each month under auspices of the New Trier Orchestral association, is one of the artists in the Philharmonic quartet. Another well known artist is Carl Brueckner, who also has appeared as soloist with the Little Symphony.

Reader on Program

Instead of having a local soloist in connection with this Sunday's concert, the Sunday Evening club executive committee has secured the services of Miss Rita Smith, a widely known reader, who will give a reading of "The Three Kings," which is especially appropriate to the Christmas season.

An unusually large audience is anticipated for this Christmas program.

Two speakers attracted a capacity audience to the Sunday Evening club last week. They were Fred B. Smith, vice president of Johns-Manville, Inc., of New York, and state senator Thurlow G. Essington. While Mr. Smith was well known to north shore people by virtue of several previous appearances before the Sunday Evening club, Senator Essington was a newcomer. The senator, who is a candidate for Republican nomination for Governor of Illinois, opposing Governor Small, made a favorable impression with his audience. He did not talk politics, leaving off with campaigning for the time, to discuss some of the problems of the day.

During the afternoon Senator Essington was the guest of honor at an informal reception in the home of Charles R. Pickard, 1121 Greenleaf avenue.

NEW TRIER WINS

New Trier's basketball teams trounced Austin High school in two fast games last Saturday night, the heavies winning 25-18, while the lights swamped the west side crew 28-11. In the curtain raiser New Trier's second lightweight team went down to defeat 17-8.

Surplus Funds in January

January 1st has been termed aptly as "National Pay Day" because more money changes hands—more mortgages are paid off, more notes fall due, more bonds mature and more interest is received on this day than on any other day of the entire year. An so it is high time now to plan how to get the most out of an investment of the surplus funds you are expecting next month.

Perhaps you will receive a bonus, a check as a Christmas present, or payment on an outstanding note—whatever the source you will want to invest those surplus funds wisely and with the greatest possible returns consistent with safety.

You Can Plan Now

Now is the time to plan for the investment of the surplus funds you will receive in January. Send the attached coupon to our nearest office and receive interesting information relative to our January 1st investment plan.
