

Sissors Zoo-Man Will Make Day Nursery Kiddies Joyful

THE kiddies of the Matheon Day Nursery of Chicago Commons, are anticipating with great glee the party which is planned for them on Friday morning, December 28. Mr. Everett Davis, the "Scissors Zoo-Man" of Evanston, will delight the children with his cut-out animals.

Mr. Davis will produce any animal the children ask for, and while he cuts them out, he recites happy little tales and jingles about each one. He can cut out two or three a minute, and by the time he has finished his entertainment he has dozens and dozens of the little creatures hanging on a black curtain.

Santa will be there to greet the children, and carols will be sung around the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Theodore Coyne of Winnetka, and Mrs. Charles Pardee of Highland Park, have arranged this party for the youngsters.

Cooper Lawley, tenor will appear in recital at the Winnetka Woman's club on Thursday afternoon, December 27, at 3 o'clock. Miss Margery Winslow, pianist, will assist him, and he will be accompanied by Mrs. Ernst von Ammon. Mr. Lawley will sing numbers of Liszt, Salvatore Rosa, Wolf-Ferrari, Hageman and Giordano. Miss Winslow will play compositions of Gluck, Respighi, Chopin, and Debussy. The program is in charge of the Music committee of which Mrs. Norman Harris is chairman.

On Christmas night, Mr. George Owsley of 720 Prospect avenue will leave for Arizona. On Saturday, December 29, Mr. and Mrs. Lon C. Hill and their children, who have been with the Owsleys, will depart for their home in Texas. Mrs. Owsley will go to Evanston after her daughter leaves, to stay with her father, Mr. A. F. Dean, until the middle of February when she will join Mr. Owsley in Coronada, California.

On New Year's Eve, Mrs. Frederick Hossack Scott of Hubbard Woods, will entertain twelve guests at dinner at the Blackstone hotel for her daughter, Miss Isabel. Later in the evening they will all attend the Princeton Triangle club play to be given at the Aryan Grotto.
