

WOMAN'S CLUBS RESUME WINTER ACTIVITIES THIS WEEK

Glencoe Club Will Hear Anita Burnham Tell Travel Story

A BROAD with a Paint Box and a Family of Six" is the subject of the delightful talk with which Anita Willets Burnham will entertain the members of the Glencoe Woman's Library club on Thursday afternoon, January 10, at 2:30 o'clock.

Although Mrs. Burnham has been asked many times to tell of her European sojourn, she always draws an enthusiastic audience, for her attractive personality and her spontaneous narrative, she does not resort to notes, make her a most interesting speaker.

Traveling for one and one-half years, conveyed almost entirely while on land by tram, train or by foot, this interesting family journeyed from London through France, to Barcelona and Algiers, to Naples and through Italy, back again to Paris, and from there, home. "In that year and a half," to quote Mrs. Burnham, "I never used a telephone but once, I never called a taxi but once or twice, and hardly knew what automobile riding was like. We saw everything and spent little money. It can be done," she says, and how, and for how much she herself will relate.

Winnetka Woman's Club Has Excellent Program

A REGULAR meeting of the Winnetka Woman's club will be held on Thursday afternoon, December 27, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Norman Harris, chairman of the Music department, announced that the next regular meeting of the club would be held on January 10. The next meeting of the music department will occur on January 17, and the program will be given by Miss Olga Eitner, violinist.

The program for the afternoon was given by Mr. Cooper Lawley, tenor, and Miss Marjorie Winslow, pianist, with Mrs. Ernest von Ammon at the piano. Enthusiastic support of the audience was immediately won by these artists who responded to several encores.

Mr. Lawley has a beautiful tenor voice and a good control, fine enunciation and convincing interpretation. His first group of songs showed to advantage his ability to do smooth sustained singing, while others showed his dramatic ability. Mrs. Ernst von Ammon played very sympathetic accompaniments.

Miss Winslow, in her first group of songs, pleased the audience by the daintiness and ease of her playing which were combined with pure technique. In a later group she showed her ability to interpret music of a bolder type.

After the program the meeting was adjourned and tea was served in the parlors.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Burton H. Atwood, Mrs. Frederick W. Burlingham, Mrs. Percival Hunter, Mrs. Thomas Ratcliffe, Mrs. James A. Richards and Mrs. Roland D. Whitman.

Good Speaker And Novel Exhibition in Winnetka

A N exhibit of remarkable wood cuts by Max Thalmann, of Weimar, will be held in the Winnetka Woman's club at the regular meeting Thursday afternoon. The exhibit will be left up Thursday evening so that the men of the village will have an opportunity to see Thalmann's work.

Mr. Thalmann is exhibiting in the Milwaukee Art Institute and in that of St. Paul. His work has been hailed by some of the leading critics as the greatest of the modern school. Thalmann will be present in person at the Woman's Club exhibit, and one or more members of the club will be present to interpret for him, as he speaks no English.

Arrangements have been made by which Mr. Thalmann will exhibit the technique of making wood cuts to the children at the Skokie school.

Among Thalmann's exhibits will be two series, one known as "The Passion," the other as "The Cathedral." "The Passion" exhibit is in black and white, with startling light effects, the emotional setting of Christ's last days on earth. There is only a suggestion of actual portrayal of the characters in this greatest of human dramas, the effects being produced largely through the background. Gesthemene, for example, is largely illustrated through a writhing tree in the garden, bleak and storm tossed, the figure of Christ being indicated merely by a small silhouette, in prayer.

The second series—"The Cathedral"—consists of ten large plates representing the spiritual significance of the church. It is fascinating to see how, with simple black and white vertical lines, Thalmann has produced an effect of spirituality, of aspiration, of lofty idealism, of the imminent presence of spiritual being.

The exhibit is utterly different from any that has been seen in this country. It is through an unusual series of circumstances and rare good fortune that it has been possible to secure this work for Winnetka.

Mr. Percy B. Eckhart, of Kenilworth, will give a lecture on "Interesting European Spots," illustrated with slides during the afternoon.

Smith, Wellesley Clubs To Have Joint Meeting

THREE hundred invitations have been issued by Miss Gertrude Gladwin, of 2323 Orrington avenue, Evanston, for the next meeting of the Evanston Smith club to be held at Miss Gladwin's home on Wednesday afternoon, January 9. Members of the North Shore Smith and Wellesley Circles are the invited guests. Miss Evelyn Wells, a graduate of Wellesley in the class of 1913, who is the secretary of the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Pine Mountain, Kentucky, will be the speaker of the afternoon. Because of her six years of experience while working in the settlement school she is well suited to put into her story a flavor of the Mountaineer people. Miss Wells will also sing traditional ballads of the country to the accompaniment of the native dulciner. Alumnae of Smith are especially interested in the work of this school because one of the directors, Mrs. Ethel DeLong Zande, is a former Smith college student, having been graduated from there in 1901. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance to enjoy the interesting and delightful program.

R. E. P. Kline Resumes Current Events Course

Next Wednesday afternoon, January 9, Mr. R. E. Pattison will resume his lectures on Current Events at the Wilmette Woman's club. His subject will be "The Ruhr and Its Implications." Mr. Kline announces the following subjects for discussion during the remainder of the course:

January 23, "The Balkan and World Peace."

February 6, "The Threat of Backward People."

February 20, "The Coming National Election: Conservative, Radical and Reactionary."

March 5, "Can the Scientists Catch Up?"

The lectures are open to all in the village who wish to take advantage of them. The membership price has been reduced for the remainder of the term.

Mrs. G. E. Fouts Hostess To Catholic Woman's Club

THE Fine Arts department of the Catholic Woman's club of Wilmette will present a most delightful program next Friday afternoon, January 11, in the home of Mrs. G. E. Fouts, 530 Greenleaf avenue. Mrs. Austin A. Haydn, a reader of note, has consented to give a number of lovely poems and readings; Mrs. Frank Oelrich has prepared a most interesting paper on "Modern Poets." Mrs. John F. Wiedlin will review the book, "Trodden Gold," and there will be musical selections by the quartette. A cordial invitation is extended to all of the club members to attend the meeting.

TENTH DISTRICT MEETING

The Federation of Clubs of the Tenth Congregational District of Illinois will meet with the North Shore Woman's Club at the Edgewater Beach Hotel Thursday, January 10th.

Mark W. Cresap, 239 Essex road, Kenilworth, one of the leaders in the Northwestern university fund campaign, attended a luncheon at the Chicago club Friday of last week at which Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, was the guest of honor and principal speaker.

The luncheon was given by the university and was attended by members of the campaign committee of the Greater Northwestern fund.
