

Kiddies of Winnetka Center Enjoy Party at Commons

A NUMBER of little folks and their mothers were guests last Saturday afternoon at a party which was given for them at the Winnetka Center of the Infant Welfare station at Chicago Commons. The entertaining began for them at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Ernest von Ammon sang, and Mrs. E. W. Ellis was in charge of a group of girls who gave folk dances. The children of the center were led in the singing of carols by Mrs. Fraser, and the kiddies found further happiness by lantern slide pictures.

At the conclusion of the program each child was presented with a box of candy, the donation of Mr. Horace Armstrong, and each mother was gratified by the gift of a plant, a gift which was made possible by the generosity of Mrs. Philip Moore.

The Scott Avenue Circle will meet on Tuesday, January 8, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Graff, 976 Vernon avenue. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Korraday will be the assisting hostesses. Mrs. Moulton will talk on "The World Court." A large attendance is desired.

The Willow Street Circle will have its next meeting on Tuesday morning, January 8, at 11:30, at the home of Mrs. Arthur L. Dean, 441 Willow street. The assisting hostess will be Mrs. M. K. Anderson. Every one is cordially invited to be present.

On Friday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Poff and Mrs. J. W. Poff who is the mother of Dr. Delbert Poff arrived from Olney, Illinois, to visit at the Poff residence. On New Year's Eve Dr. and Mrs. Delbert W. Poff entertained twelve guests at bridge.

Ronald Campbell of 270 Scott avenue, Fred Hagen of 1187 Scott avenue, and Harry Cadenhead of 1056 Ely road, returned to the University of Illinois last week after spending the Christmas holidays at their homes.

Miss Ruth Matz gave a farewell luncheon at her home, 1005 Sheridan road, on Friday, January 4, for her camp fire girls, a group for which she was guardian, and which is now disbanding.

Messrs. Henry Gardner, Godfrey Atkins, Spaulding Coffin and John Syme comprise the Winter Sports committee which will plan the entertainments to be given at Indian Hill club this season.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Blumenthal of 501 Willow street, entertained 15 guests on New Year's evening. The Thursday before, Mrs. Blumenthal was hostess at a party for twenty children.

Charles Rummel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Rummel of 965 Spruce street, returned to Ann Arbor, Michigan, on Wednesday to resume his work at the University of Michigan.

The Pine Street circle will meet at the home of Mrs. L. M. Stoddard of 582 Provident avenue, on Tuesday, January 8, at 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Mess of Pine street were the guests of Mrs. Mess' parents of Benton Harbor, Michigan, during the holidays.

The Foxdale Circle will meet next Tuesday, January 8, with Mrs. James Fleming of 787 Foxdale avenue. A large attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Philemon B. Kohl-saat of 341 Woodland avenue have returned from spending the week-end in Milwaukee.

Miss Clara Louise Peck who teaches in the Horace Mann school has been spending her vacation at the Cedarbrow Farm in DeSoto, Missouri.

Mrs. William Sherman Hay who has been ill for some time, is now convalescent at her home on Sheridan road.

Vic Killian returned to Hubbard Woods last week from a six week's trip through the northwest and California.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winterbotham of 899 Oak street, entertained their bridge club for dinner on New Year's Eve.

Miss Mary Scringeour of 898 Linden avenue, will leave Winnetka shortly for a month's visit with her brother Robert who resides in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Hoyt and Miss Josephine Hoyt left last Saturday to spend a month at Greencost Springs, Florida.

Miss Marion Campbell of 270 Scott avenue, left last week for a visit of a month or so in Canada.

Mr and Mrs. P. W. Bradstreet were host and hostess at a family dinner on New Year's Day at their residence, 475 Cedar street. Their son, Donald T. Bradstreet, who has been at home during the holiday season, returns Sunday to Cornell university.

Seventeen Circle chairmen will meet with their general chairman, Mrs. Ralph Sherman Childs, at her residence, 906 Oak street, on Thursday afternoon to perfect plans for Circle Rally day to be held on Tuesday, January 22, at Community House.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Talbot, 163 Bertling lane who have been entertaining their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Talbot of Minneapolis, for about a fortnight, expect their guests to remain for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dudley Bradstreet who returned the last of this week from a six weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Bradstreet's parents in Austin, Texas, will reside at the Library Plaza in Evanston, for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker of Fir street have had as their guests over the holiday season Mr. Barker's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Barker of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin.

Miss Isabel Needham of Champaign, Illinois, has been the holiday guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Needham of 325 Fairview avenue.

Miss Margaret Hadley who spent the holidays at her home, 913 Oak street, returned on New Year's night to Nokomis, Illinois, where she will resume her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keller of Olney, Illinois, were the holiday guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard James of Oak street.

Miss Serena Forberg returned to the University of Wisconsin on Wednesday after spending the holidays at the home of her parents at 960 Linden avenue.

Miss Elfried Ransom of 545 Lincoln avenue entertained a number of her friends at her residence on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harvey I. Brewer, 759 Burr avenue, has had as her guest over the past week-end, her cousin, Miss Ida Clemens of Ottawa, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stutson, 479 Sunset road, were host and hostess for the Dinner club which met at their home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Charles Hubbard entertained a few of her son's friends at dinner and a card party on Thursday evening.

Kenilworth Happenings

The children of Kenilworth had a unique Christmas party this year at the Kenilworth club. They entertained themselves by giving a Christmas play entitled, "Is Santa Claus a Fraud?" The cast included twenty-five or thirty of the children. The play was given under the direction of Florence and Beatrice Pease, who deserve the greatest amount of praise and credit for one of the loveliest afternoons the children have ever had. Each part was well taken and the costuming was excellent.

The cast included Elizabeth Eckhart, Herbert Jarret, Charlotte Hamilton, Margrette Korraday, Marion Hedrick, Eleanor Berger, Buddy and Helen Helden, Betty Neliger, Joan Sherrette, Betty Ketcham, Marion Calkins, Elizabeth Freudenreich, Clarabelle Russ, Phoebe Hedrick, Shirley Ross, Babe Fraser and Verna May Timmons.

The Misses Pease will have charge of the Kenilworth Dramatics this spring and everyone is looking forward to an evening of real entertainment.

Mr. Jack Nason, of Kansas City, is the guest over the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Osgood. Miss Mae Schrieber was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Osgood.

The Polly Prim Shop... (MRS. NOE)

Smart and simple dresses for children. Exquisite layettes for infants.

809 Oak St., Phone 1635
Winnetka

Although all who attended the New Year's ball at the Kenilworth club did not remain for the breakfast, there were one hundred and sixty-seven members and their guests who participated in the jolly affair early Tuesday morning. The ballroom was beautifully decorated with Christmas green and large wreaths of silver and gold. At the close of the grand march colored caps and hats of every description, balloons and noise-making instruments were passed about and later were put to good use when the Old Year stepped out.

There were many large parties preceding the ball, among them a dinner party of twenty guests at the Edwin Hedrick home and a progressive dinner served at the John Hicks', George Jones' and Frank Cheeseman residences.

Congressman and Mrs. Henry Riggs Rathbone left this week for Washington, D. C. Mrs. Rathbone has been the guest of honor at many lovely affairs during the past few weeks, owing to her departure from Kenilworth for several months. She will remain in Washington with Mr. Rathbone until the latter part of February, when they will go to Palm Beach to attend the George Washington ball, returning here early in April.

Prof. and Mrs. Ralston J. Haydn and two little girls, Elizabeth and Mary, are visiting Judge and Mrs. Sidney C. Eastman of Melrose avenue. Prof. Haydn is an exchange professor from Ann Arbor, he spent a year at Manila in that capacity, and has just completed a journey around the world. Mrs. Louis Hall and her small daughter, of Paris, France, are also visiting the Eastman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruf, of Cumnor road, entertained a company of young people at dinner for their daughter, Miss Phyllis, preceding the Kenilworth club dance on Friday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Fry, of Iowa City, were the guests over the holidays of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hawkes, of Kenilworth avenue. Mr. Belknap Hawkes came from Montclair, N. J., to spend Xmas with his parents.

Miss Helen Cresap entertained a party of twelve at the Princeton Triangle club's annual musical comedy, held at the Aryan Grotto in Chicago, and later at the Kenilworth club's New Year's ball and breakfast.

Mr. Ellis J. Slater, of Entiat, Washington, formerly of Kenilworth, came East to spend a fortnight with his children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Wiley of Evanston, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwinell Slater, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Peer, of Indiana, and their small children, Dorothy, Evelyn and Frederick, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. Terry Gaskell.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cherry entertained for their daughter Jeanette, and her houseguests, Miss Dorothy Williams and Miss Virginia Bensley and their escorts, preceding the young people's dance at the Kenilworth club last Friday evening.

Misses Florence and Beatrice Pease left Sunday evening to attend a house-party at Akron, Ohio, and on their return journey will stop off at Detroit to visit Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grosvenor Sperling, 1343 Chestnut avenue, were at home to receive their friends on New Year's Day.

A. W. ZENGELER
CLEANER AND DYER
A trial order is respectfully solicited
810 ELM STREET Phone 144

THE finest jewelry shop on the North Shore, maintaining a repair department for watches, clocks and jewelry.

Plaza Jeweler
LIBRARY PLAZA HOTEL
EVANSTON

After-Christmas Clearance

Sale

BOYS' DEPARTMENT—THIRD FLOOR

All Boys' Norfolk Suits, Reduced
All Boys' Winter Overcoats, Reduced
All Boys' Mackinaws, Reduced
All Boys' Skating Coats, Reduced
All Boys' Sheep-lined Coats, Reduced
All Boys' Hats, Reduced

Two Outstanding Values

189 Juvenile Sailor or Oliver Twist Suits in jersey, tweed or serges—ages 2-10, values up to $12.00, now $5.95

365 Boys' Juvenile Overcoats Ages 2 to 8, former prices up to $30.00, selling while they last at $12.95

Wide varieties to select from; no better bargains in Chicago
(During This Sale No Approvals or Refunds.)

ASTARR BEST

Randolph and Wabash
Chicago