

An Effective Dining Room

Solid walnut Gate Leg Table, 42 x 54 inches, with three extra leaves, giving a six-foot extension.

$65.00

Windsor Chairs that supply you with a feeling of real comfort. They have genuine rush bottom seats and may be used in the living room as well.

Side Chair, $19.00

Arm Chair, $25.00

Buffet to match table (not shown in sketch). $92.00

Plaques—Fine foreign prints in handsome frames of hand-carved wood. A great variety of subjects to choose from $6.50

This Chinese Figurine makes a very decorative lamp-base. $22.50 (Shade, Extra)

Brown-Hilandt Furniture Co.

1555 Sherman Ave.

EVANSTON

Tel. Ev. 7904

VISIT

Chandler's

◀ Fountain Square ▶
EVANSTON

on

Community Sales Day
Tuesday, January 15th

It will be your opportunity to get those things you have wanted at a great saving.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Junior Leaguers to Give "Puss in Boots"

YOUNGSTERS, and in fact, grown-ups, are interested in the merry plays for children which the Junior League players present in Chicago on Saturday mornings at the Playhouse. The next performance will be held on Saturday when an entirely new play will be the attraction. "Puss in Boots" will be acted by the following troupe, many of whom are well known along the north shore: Puss in Boots, Miss Emily Kimborough; the miller's eldest son, Miss Janet Fairbank; his second son, Miss Marion Holt; his third one, Virginia Fitzhugh; Dobbin, the donkey, Mrs. Preston, Boyden; Towser, the dog, Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr.; the king, Miss Edith Cummings; the chamberlain, Mrs. William Mitchell; the princess, Mrs. William Hubbard; the governess, Miss Eleanor Holden; the lawyer, Miss Dorothy Marston; and the policeman, Mrs. Thomas Cowles.

Mrs. Whitman, Mrs. White, Dance Hostesses

ONE hundred invitations have been issued by Mrs. Roland D. Whitman of 640 Hill road, and by Mrs. James White of 1341 North avenue, for a dance which they are giving at Indian Hill club on Saturday evening, January 12, for their daughters, Miss Carol Whitman and Miss Margaret White.

One hundred and fifty dollars was realized from the recital given by Mrs. Edward MacDowell at New Trier high school just before the holidays, and that sum combined with another hundred dollars, dues from members of the North Shore MacDowell club has been sent on to Mrs. MacDowell to be used at the Peterboro colony. On Tuesday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ickes opened their home in Hubbard Woods for a most interesting program sponsored by the society. Mr. Patrick Colin of Dublin and New York, and a frequent visitor to the colony read many poems from the "Peterboro Anthology," a collection of poems written by colonists, and also some from his own "Legends of Ireland."

The next meeting of the society will not take place until the latter part of February in the home of Mrs. Vibe K. Spicer in Kenilworth.

The Linden Street circle will meet on Monday, January 21, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. P. G. Rockwell, 277 Chestnut street. Mrs. William Brown Hale, who had the privilege of attending several of the League of Nations sessions while she was in Europe, will speak on that subject. Those members who desire to be present at this meeting are asked to communicate with the hostess. They are also asked to bring with them any cotton pieces they may have to be used in the making of patchwork quilts.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Cephise Estelle Moore of Chicago, to Mr. Franklin Russel Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sperry B. Pope of Glencoe, on Saturday, December 22. Mr. and Mrs. Pope left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip through the south, before sailing from Mobile, Alabama on January 5, for the West Indies, where they will remain for six weeks. They will reside in Chicago.

The Lincoln Avenue circle will hold an all-day meeting Tuesday, January 15, at the home of Mrs. John R. Montgomery, 15 Green Bay road, Hubbard Woods. Rev. James A. Richards will give an informal talk after luncheon upon the subject of the "League of Nations."

Miss Marion Fulton, Miss Elizabeth Boyden, Miss Katherine Adams, Miss Elizabeth Clore, Pearson Williams, Donald Bradstreet, Paul Goble, and John and Richard Shaw, all of whom have been spending the holidays in Winnetka, have returned to the schools and colleges which they attend.

Mrs. Ernest von Ammon entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening at her residence, 420 Elder lane, for Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson and her family. On Tuesday evening Mrs. von Ammon was hostess at a supper given for her son, Philip, on his ninth birthday.

Mrs. Hardenbergh has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lorenzo Johnson, of Sheridan road, since the latter part of the holiday season. Mrs. Johnson is departing on January 25, for her winter home in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonald, who have been living at 968 Pine street, have moved into their new home at 972 Pine street.

Now that the eagerly anticipated holiday season is over, a number of the young people who have been spending their vacations in Winnetka have been leaving during the past week for their various schools and colleges. Among those departing recently the Misses Marcella Mettler and Carolyn Case, who are attending Smith college; Dorothy Marion Hartley, a student of Wellesley college; Jessie Louise Booth, who is a student at the University of Illinois; Rachel Foster, who goes to Bryn Mawr; Virginia Wallace and Ashton Wilson, both of whom attend the Principia school in St. Louis, Missouri; Isabel Scott and Elsie Blatchford, who have returned to Dobbs Ferry; Mary Louise Fenton, a student at Miss Maderia's school in Washington, D. C.; Beatrice Ripley, who is attending Bradford academy; and Rosamond Coffin, who has returned to Miss Hale's school at Lenox, Massachusetts; David DeLay, who has gone back to the University of Michigan; Sperry Butler, a student at Amherst college; Whitwell and Robert Wales have returned to Princeton; Cabray Wortley to resume his work at Williams college; Hampton Ripley, who has returned to Hill school, and Gordon H. Rogers, who is a student at Howe school.

Those keeping in touch with the activities of the North Shore Theatre Guild will be interested in the information that the first meeting of the Play-reading group which was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams Macy, 966 Hubbard lane, on Tuesday evening, was well attended. Bernard Shaw's play, "The Man of Destiny," was read by the following cast: Napoleon, Mr. Lloyd Faxon; The Lady, Miss Olivia Fentress; Lieutenant, Dr. E. V. L. Brown; Giuseppe, Mr. Henry J. Cary-Curr. Mr. Alexander Dean, director of the Guild, spoke, and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson read the introduction and interpolations.

Announcement has been made that all members of the Guild are very welcome at any of the meetings of this group.

Mr. Ludwig Lewisohn lectured before the Evanston Drama club and its guests on Thursday afternoon, January 10, at the Evanston Woman's club. He spoke on the subject, "The Meaning of the Modern Drama." The hostesses were Mrs. James F. Oates and Mrs. William S. Noble. Tea was served at the close of the program. Those pouring were Mrs. William Folds and Mrs. George E. Noyes.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Addison Warner of Chicago, formerly of Highland Park, of the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Constance, to George Wearn Tracy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wearn Tracy of Glencoe.

Charles McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clegg McKinney, of 1215 North avenue, and Charles Babcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Babcock, of 566 Ash street, have returned to Dartmouth college.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Roberg, 508 Birch street, entertained a party of ten at dinner, bridge, and dancing last Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Helen Duncan and Mr. William Duncan, of Richmond Hill, New York.

Mrs. H. Edwin McNeal, of 925 Elm street, was hostess on Monday evening at an informal dinner and bridge given for her sister, Mrs. J. H. Lewis, of Buffalo, who has been her guest for three weeks.

The Winnetka Temple club will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday, January 15, in the Winnetka Masonic temple at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

Miss Ann Hagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hagen, of 1387 Scott avenue, has returned to Cambridge, Massachusetts, where she is attending Miss Sargents school.

Lilac Tea Room

(Under New Management)

Now serving business men's luncheons, special luncheons, sandwiches, salads, etc.

Only the best will be served.

576 Lincoln Avenue
Tel. Win. 1820