

"RED ROBE" IS GUILD OFFERING

Drama of the French Judiciary to be Given by North Shore Theatre Guild

DISTINGUISHED CAST

Perry Dunlap Smith and Mrs. Cates have Leads

A carefully selected cast from the North Shore Theatre Guild players is now in rehearsal on "The Red Robe," an Eugene Brieux production, which is to be staged in the various north shore communities during the week of January 25.

The story is built around the aspirations of two lawyers who are ambitious to achieve the Red Robe, the highest honor accorded a man in the judicial system of France. It reeks with intrigue and permits Monsieur Brieux, who, incidentally, is the author of "Damaged Goods," full sway to employ "every weapon in his armory of satire."

Flays Legal Methods

A crime has been committed—one of several in the investigation of which the authorities have displayed utter stupidity—and the public is crying for action, for a conviction—having had numerous questionable acquittals. Unable to uncover the actual criminal, the law, represented in Mouzon, the magistrate, falls upon an innocent peasant victim.

Vagret, a lawyer of great ability, but conscientious and "too honest to succeed," is elected to prosecute the indicted man. It is his great chance and he is making the most of it until he suddenly becomes aware that the defendant is absolutely innocent, when he directs attention toward securing an acquittal, thus sacrificing his own supreme opportunity to achieve the Red Robe.

Mouzon, on the contrary, has employed every means available to secure a conviction, even to the extent of dragging the name of the defendant's wife into the mire. Mouzon, because of his energy in prosecuting the case, eventually wins the Red Robe but loses his life at the hands of the disgraced woman. Vagret wins nothing more nor less than the moral satisfaction of having been just and principled.

"The Red Robe" is dramatic, a daring expose of French legal intrigue and a satire that should prove of unusual interest to north shore theatergoers.

The cast of characters is headed by Perry Dunlap Smith, of Winnetka, who has the part of Mouzon, the prosecuting magistrate; Mrs. Dudley Cates, of Winnetka, who plays Yanetta, wife of the victimized peasant; and Abram Mendenhall, of Evanston, who portrays Vagret, the conscientious prosecuting lawyer.

Mr. Smith has been seen in previous Theatre Guild productions, including "Twelve Hundred" and "Dear Brutus." Mrs. Cates, will be remembered for her remarkable portrayal of the title role in "Jeanne d'Arc." Mr. Mendenhall is an actor, playwright and director of wide experience.

Excellent Support

Others in the cast are Samuel C. Smart of Winnetka, who has the part of Etchpare, the accused Basque peasant; Mrs. Leslie Parker of Evanston, as Madame Vagret; Samuel A. Otis of Winnetka, as Bridet; Beatrice Pease of Kenilworth, as Bertha Vagret; Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of Winnetka, as Madame Etchpare; Henry J. Cary-Curr of Winnetka, as the attorney general; Lloyd A. Faxon of Winnetka, as an officer; Oliver Farnsworth of Evanston, as Delorme; Dorothy Todd of Evanston, as Cataliana.

Performances will be at the Kenilworth Assembly hall on Friday evening, January 25; Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall, Skokie school Winnetka on Saturday, January 26 and Monday, January 28; Durand hall, Lake Forest on Tuesday, January 29, and the Evanston Woman's club on Wednesday, January 30.

GIRLS ARE TOLD OF THE Y. W. C. A. FOYER

The Upper school girls of the North Shore Country Day school heard an interesting talk Wednesday of this week by Miss Paulina Sage of the Y. W. C. A. Foyer located near the University of Chicago.

Miss Sage, with many illustrative details, explained the work of the Foyer as a club for foreign students of the university, where Japanese, Chinese, Russians, Mexicans and representatives of many other nations are mutually benefitted by a thorough understanding of each other's good qualities, secured through the medium of the establishment of true friendships.

The club, she said, provides sleeping rooms where foreign girl students may remain until they secure permanent and satisfactory quarters, but its most important mission is to bring these girls in contact with the best that American culture and the broadening influence of college social life can provide.

Miss Sage described an average day at the Foyer, one that to the north shore girls seemed filled with unusual experiences. She also read several letters of appreciation penned by girls who had been helped by the Foyer.

Firemen Summoned When Automobile Takes Fire

McClain Reinhart, 352 Ridge avenue, was having his balky car towed in the general direction of his home Wednesday night of this week when the indisposed machine suddenly backfired and shot into flames.

Chief Houren's men arrived in time to prevent serious damage to the car.

AUTOMOBILE PAINTING

is an art that must be understood thoroughly in order to do a successful job. It should be so perfect that when the painted car is put side by side with a new one, the most critical eye cannot detect the difference. This is our boast and it holds good. There's a "knack" to every trade.
