

TENTH DISTRICT CLUB TO BROADCAST NEWS ON RADIO

Tenth District Clubs Aid Handicapped Men In Sale of Handcraft

THE Federation of Clubs of the Tenth District met with the North Shore Woman's club at Edgewater Beach hotel on January 10th. The morning session began at 10 A. M. Mrs. E. C. Reniff, President of the Hostess club, extended a gracious welcome to the District, and the courtesies of the Chair to our District President. Mrs. Blocki gave response in her usual charming appreciative manner. After the details of business came an interesting report from Mrs. E. A. King, Chairman of Co-operation with Ex-service Man League. A happy holiday was made possible for our wounded heroes through the efforts of Mrs. King and her Committee. Mrs. Henry E. Riecke gave a splendid report of the Birth Control Conference. Mrs. Frank R. Cain announced an arrangement she had made for broadcasting club news. On the first Thursday in March, the Tenth District can be heard from 4:30-5:00 on WMAQ.

Luncheon was served in the beautiful dining room of the Edgewater. A colorful display of Indian handcraft was on exhibition in the Black Cat room, where sessions were held. Miss Carpenter, the first speaker of the afternoon session, made a triple plea; cottage plan for housing insane soldiers; aid in sale of work put out by hospital patients, and support of the workshops plan for handicapped men.

The Tenth District song was sung by a quartet led by Mrs. Charles C. O'Malley, the "singing President" of Glenola club. The song is the prize-winning song by Mrs. Lillian Hendrix Clark, who is an author recognized by the "Queen's Work." The speaker of the day, Mr. William J. Kershaw, was introduced by Mrs. Donald Graham. Mr. Kershaw is a lawyer from Milwaukee. His subject was "The American Indian." He is a half-breed, whose mother was a full-blooded Menominee. Mr. Kershaw expressed appreciation of the fact that American womanhood had espoused the cause of his people. With the poetry of his vanishing race he set forth the value of the romantic background that is our heritage. His stories were full of the breath of the pine and the swish of lake waters. Let us help abolish the Indian Bureau and get proper legislation for the red man.

Mme. Blanche Jaschke charmed her audience with her lovely contralto voice. The last speaker was Mr. R. E. P. Kline, who subject was "The Contemplated Raid on the U. S. Treasury." His message was "Uphold the Budget System." Mr. Kline is an authority on International Affairs.

The meeting adjourned at 4 P. M., affording time for pleasant chat with the distinguished speakers.

Many of her pupils now in training are soloists in Chicago churches, others are in Chautauqua and lyceum work, and some have appeared successfully in opera.

Mrs. Spearin is herself an experienced singer and conductor and is under the management of Harry and Arthur Culbertson, of New York and Chicago. Her press comments are most favorable. She is particularly interested in

A number of his wood cuts were on exhibition in the clubrooms and later in the afternoon Mr. C. W. Washburne introduced Mr. Alphonso Ianelli, head of the Design department at the Art Institute, who interpreted Mr. Thalman's art. Mr. Thalman, having no knowledge of the English language, was unable to talk directly to his audience of his work but Mr. Ianelli brought out the significance of this new movement in art, it being neither Cubist or Futurist, the movement of line directly expressing the significance of his subjects.
