

2nd Chamber Music Concert at Kenilworth Club Jan. 27

THE second program in the series of Chamber Music concerts presented by the North Shore chapter of the Musical guild will be given on Sunday afternoon, January 27, at 4 o'clock at the Kenilworth club.

The same artists who delighted the audience on November 11, will give the program. They are Madame Ella Spravka, pianist; Richard Czerwonky, viol, and Robert Ambrosius, cellist. Two trios will be played, the Beethoven B flat major, and the G minor by Smetana.

As a result of these concerts a North Shore Chamber Music society is being organized and there are plans for the appearance of noted artists in the community next season. A special price on season tickets will be made to members of the Society and it is hoped to make a still lower price for students. Any person interested in taking a membership may communicate with Mrs. A. B. Spach, 228 Leicester road, Kenilworth.

One of the best entertainments the Rosewood Avenue circle has ever had was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Myron Adams of Laurel avenue, Hubbard Wood. Bridge, five-hundred, and Mah Jongg were played. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson read some charming selections and Mr. Fernand deGuedre, who has a photographic studio in the fine arts building, sang a group of French songs.

On Saturday afternoon of last week, Mrs. John Nash Ott of 17 Indian Hill road, opened her home for a musical given by the pupils of Mrs. Ella Koontz Johnson of 428 Ridge avenue. The program which commenced at 2:30 o'clock, was comprised of 24 numbers, artistically rendered. Invitations were issued to about 75 guests.

On Tuesday, January 22, Lorenzo Johnson's daughters are giving a bridge party for her at her residence on Sheridan road, on the occasion of her birthday. Mrs. Johnson is leaving Winnetka on January 25, to spend the remainder of the winter in Pasadena.

A farewell party of thirty-four guests, was held last Friday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Stultz, 418 Sheridan road, for Miss Joy Fairman, who left this week for Europe. Miss Fairman expects to return to Winnetka about the latter part of May.

Many residents of Winnetka will regret to learn that Mrs. Jonas Madsen and her daughter, Miss Gladys, of 528 Fir street, are leaving Winnetka to make their home in Evanston. The Madsens have resided in the village for more than twenty years.

The little friends of Sara Jane Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Adams, were guests at a party given for her at her home, 926 Cherry street, on Wednesday afternoon, in celebration of her seventh birthday.

On Saturday evening of this past week, the personnel of the Post Office gave a surprise party at the home of Mr. Elmer E. Adams, 873 Oak street, on the occasion of his second anniversary as Postmaster.

Mrs. Lindman, 1089 Spruce street, with her two little daughters, leaves this week-end for New Orleans, where she will spend five or six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thomas.

Jack Corlett will entertain several of his friends at dinner at 906 Cherry street on Saturday. Later in the evening the guests will attend the dance to be given in Lake Forest, at Ferry hall.

Mrs. Ralph K. Rockwood of 598 Lincoln avenue, has had her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James House, Jr., of Vincennes, Indiana, as her guests for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hankel and family who have been spending a few weeks in Florida, returned to their home at 653 Walden road, on Wednesday.

Mr. Vern Brown of Belding, Michigan, was the guest Monday and Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stoddard, 582 Provident road.

Mrs. Laura Slocum of Lorraine, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Weil, of 1040 Pine street.

The North Shore British American Social club will enjoy "A Night Wae Burns at Community House" on Friday evening, January 25, when the third annual "Burns" supper will be given at 7:30 o'clock. Owing to the big demand for tickets, it has been found necessary to secure the gymnasium for the affair, and the committee hopes to have a large number of the American residents avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy a real Scotch evening. After the supper, a concert will follow. The making of the "Haggis" is in the capable hands of Mrs. George Bisset. Tickets may be secured from any one of the following members: Alexander M. McFadzean, 2018 Colfax street, Evanston; James McFadzean, 932 Cherry street, Winnetka; or Jack Pearce, 315 N. St. John's avenue, Highland Park.

The Walden Road circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Weinstock, 630 Walden road, on Monday, January 28. All members are requested to attend as a delightful program has been arranged. Mrs. William Brooks Moulton will talk on the "World Court," and Mrs. Emil Olson will sing a group of songs.

The next rehearsal of the Winnetka Choral society will be on Monday evening, January 21, at eight o'clock, instead of on Tuesday evening. This arrangement makes it possible for those members of the Choral society and the New Trier Band association to have both the concert and the rehearsal.

Monday night, members of the North Shore Congregation gave a dinner at the Winnetka Woman's club. Friday night the Assembly held their dance there, and on Saturday, the North Shore Dancing club is having a black and white costume party, at the Woman's club.

The North Shore Smith College circle will meet with Mrs. John Olmsted of Private road, Hubbard Woods, on Monday afternoon, January 28, at 3 o'clock.

A "Dutch Treat" dinner, winter sports, and dancing will take place at Indian Hill club on Saturday of this week.

Mrs. C. A. Marshall of Cresco, Iowa, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marshall, 1092 Spruce street.

On Thursday of this week, Mrs. Archibald Shaw of Locust road, was a luncheon hostess at her home.

Do Your Eyes Dance, Too?

Night-time is so enchanting when it brings parties, dinners and dances. But night-time often finds you with your EYES dull and heavy, and you feel that the evening is ruined. A few drops of Murine before going out in the evening will instantly enliven those drowsy EYES and make them dance with light. It takes away not only the tired look but the tired feeling.

Use Murine night and morning and keep your EYES always clear and sparkling. It's easy to apply, and contains no belladonna or other harmful ingredients.

Our attractively illustrated book, "Beauty Lies Within the Eyes," tells how to properly care for your Eyes, Brows and Lashes, and thus enhance their beauty. Send for a copy of this helpful book. It's FREE.

The Murine Company
Dept. 27, Chicago

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

Mrs. Howard W. Fenton of 818 Bryant avenue, sailed on the Paris on Thursday of this past week for France, to be gone until June. Her mother, Mrs. John S. Carpenter is accompanying her on her trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of Glencoe left on Friday for Colorado Springs, where they will join Miss Ishbel MacLeish, who has been spending the winter there. The MacLeishes will not return until spring.

Mrs. Franklin Rudolph of 745 Sheridan road, with her daughter, Miss Pauline, sailed from New York, on January 10, for Los Angeles, stopping at Panama en route. They will be away for about a month.

Mrs. Donald Wright Beck, 306 Forest avenue, was a luncheon hostess on Monday for Miss Marion Farley Bryant whose marriage to Mr. Nelson Monroe Utley will take place on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell, 1352 North avenue, Hubbard Woods will entertain at luncheon and a winter sports party on Sunday in honor of their niece, Miss Janet Fairbank.

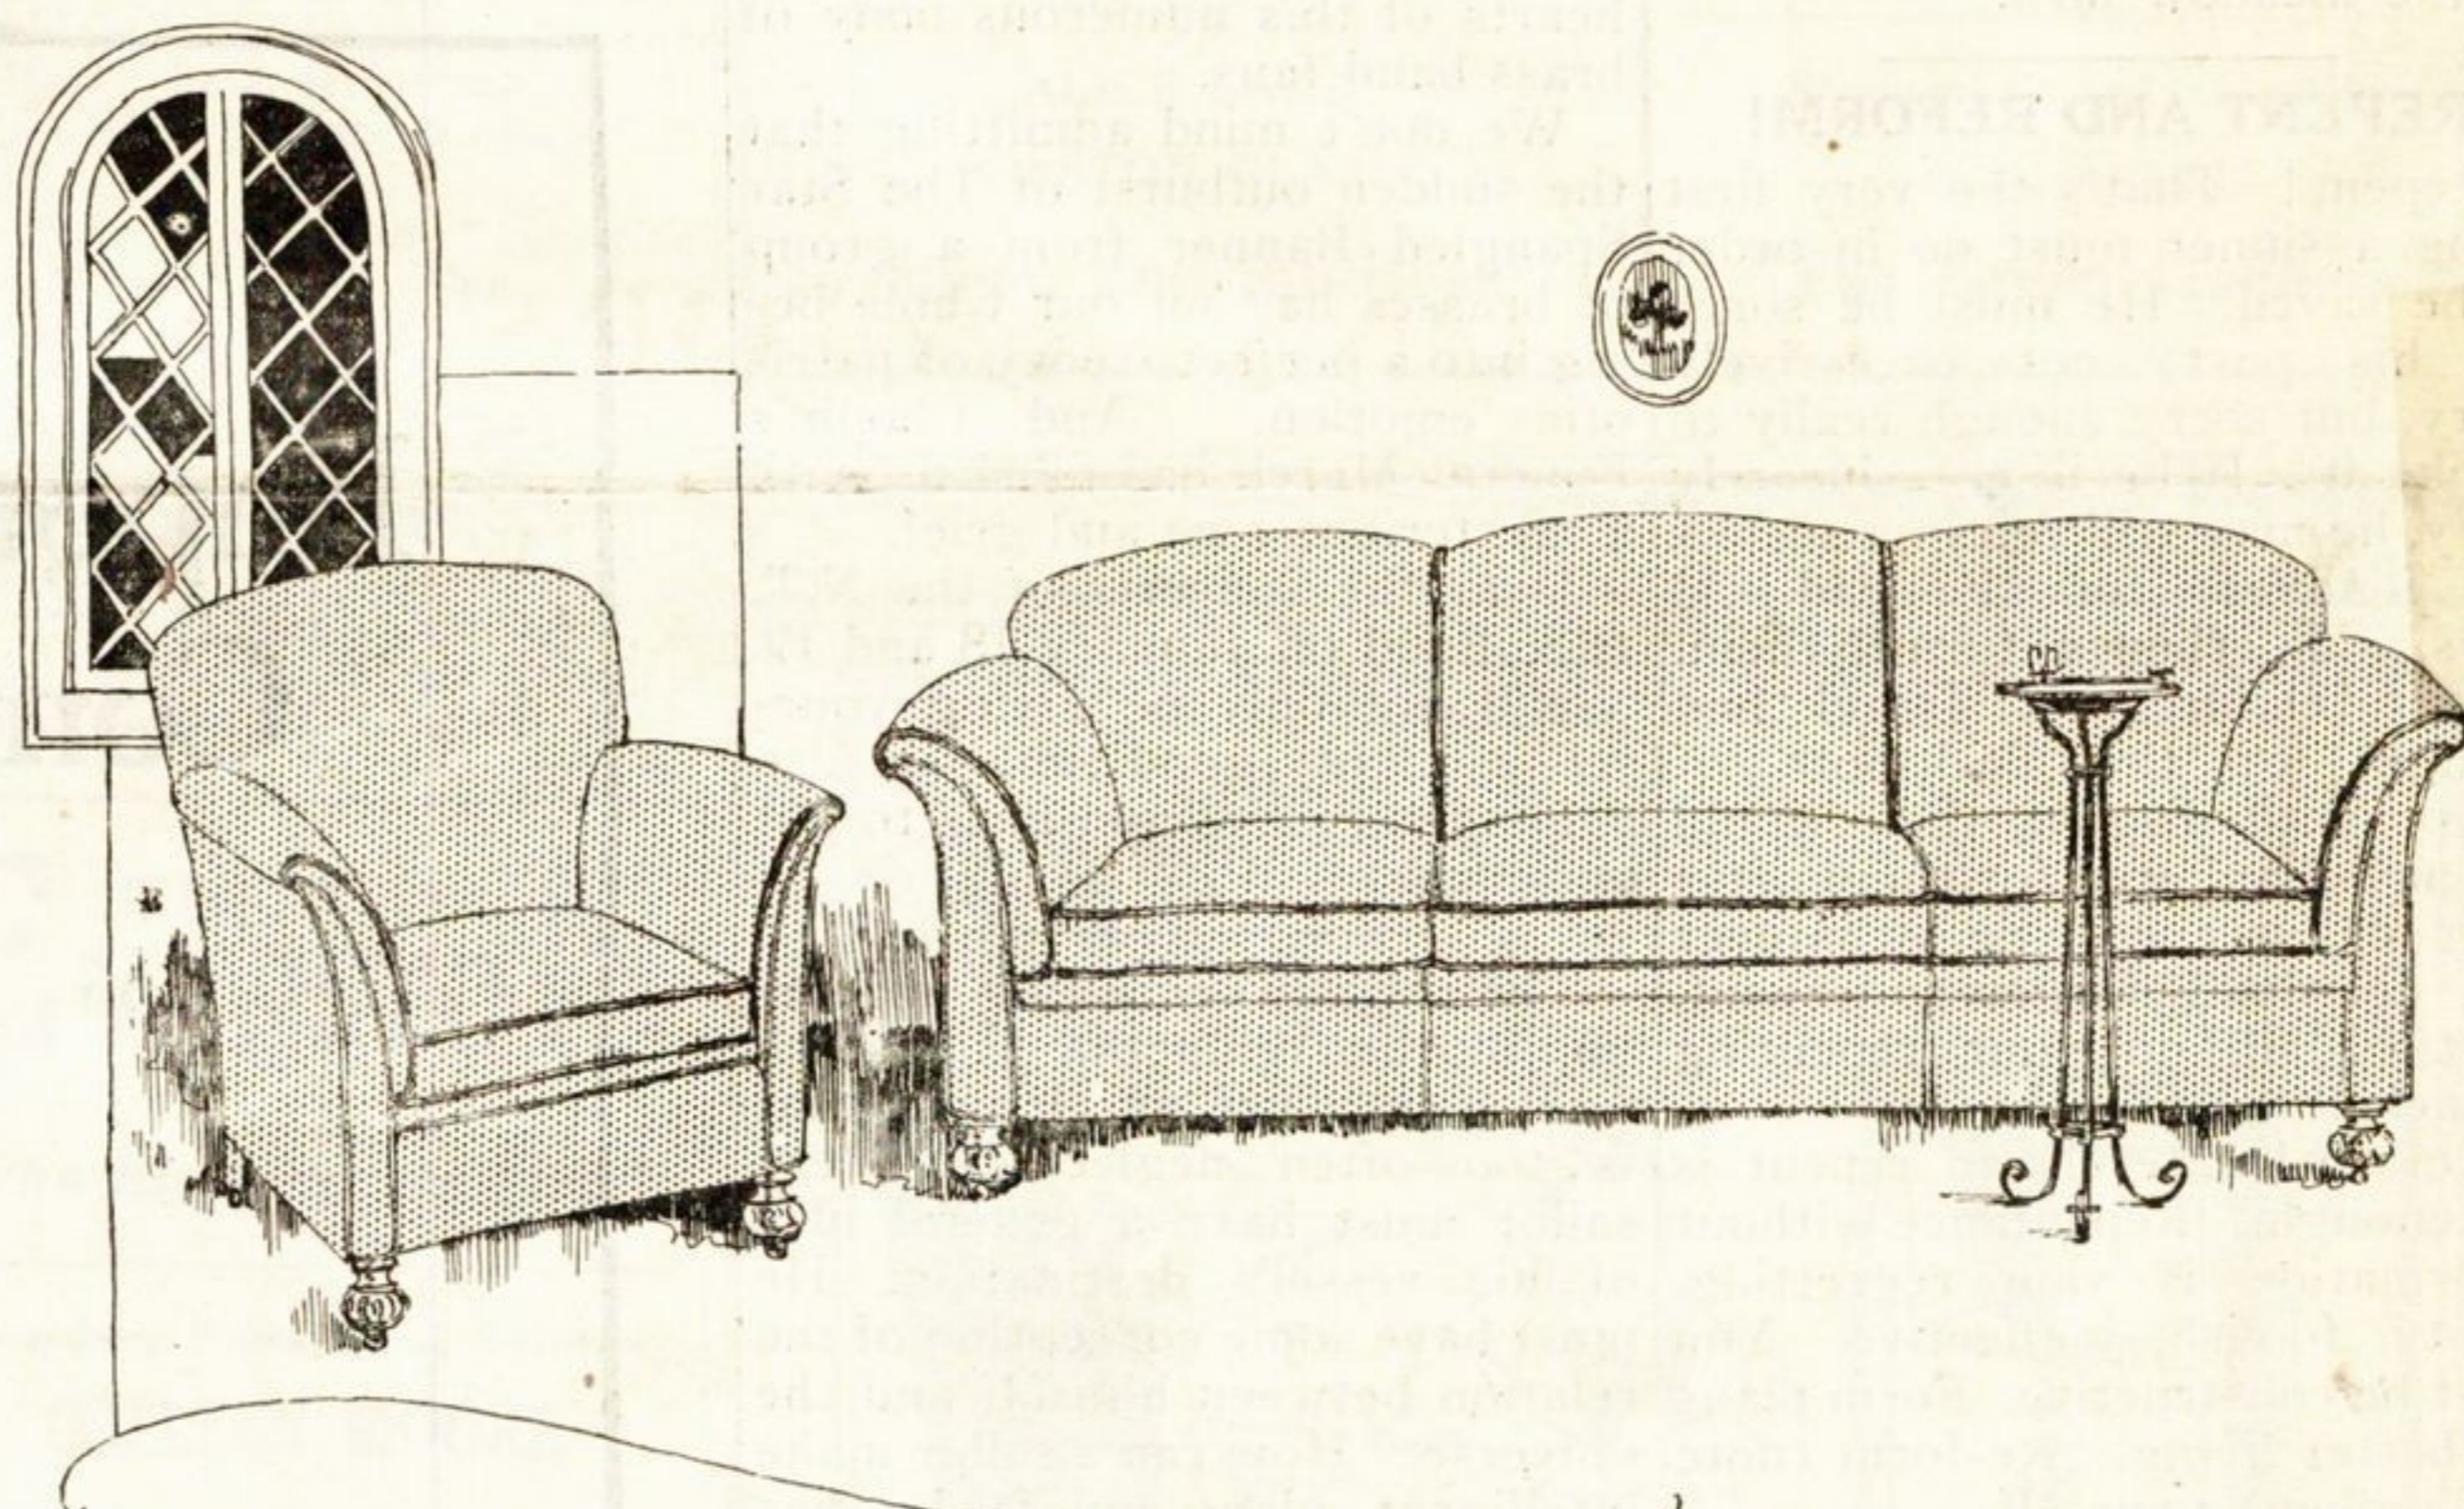

Miss Margaret Hunter, who has been in the west, has returned to Winnetka and is with her sister, Mrs. Francis Peabody Butler of Private road.

Miss Augusta Fenger of 602 Spruce street, has had as her guest for a fortnight, Miss Marion Converse of Boston, who left for her home on Friday.

The Scandinavian Pleasure club will hold its regular monthly dance on Saturday evening, January 19, at Community House at 8 o'clock.

A. W. ZENGLER

CLEANER AND DYER
A trial order is respectfully solicited
810 ELM STREET Phone 144

Living Room Suite in Mohair

Davenport $155.00. Chair $82.00
Wrought iron smoker $12.50

The life of the living room revolves around a comfortable overstuffed suite.

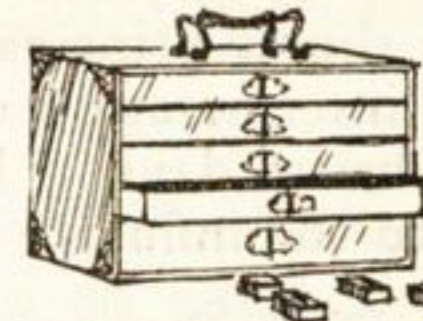

In order to endure it must possess strength. The workmanship must be of the best. The quality must be underneath the cover as well as in the covering itself.

And in addition it must have beauty of design. You must feel proud of it.

You will like the suite sketched above. It is well made and covered with a fine grade of mohair. Come in and let us show it to you.

Chinese porcelain vases in Royal Blue with gold design—a stunning mantel decoration, $10 each.

A Good-Looking Mah-Jong set for $25 Other sets for $15

JANE POLSON SPEARIN

Teacher of Singing

"The merit of Mrs. Spearin's teaching has long been recognized.—Music News, Chicago.

1159 Wilmette Ave., Glover-Brown Bldg.
Wilmette

For appointments telephone Wilmette 2922

Brown-Umlandt Furniture Co.

1555 Sherman Ave.

EVANSTON

Tel. Ev. 7904