

Kenilworth Happenings

The regular parish meeting of the Church of the Holy Comforter was held Tuesday evening, January 15, at the Kenilworth Assembly hall, at 8 o'clock. This meeting was preceded by a dinner which was served promptly at 6:45 o'clock. The dinner was arranged in the interest of sociability and good fellowship so that the people might know one another better. There were 115 present, and certainly it was a get-together evening. Numerous reports were read which were most interesting. The awakened interest in the welfare of the parish and retroactivity in the individual was most marked and through comparative figures showed a remarkable growth in the past twelve months. The rector's address was most inspiring and made everyone feel that he had his part to do to help directors go forward with the work so well carried on thus far.

The officers elected were as follows: Senior Warden, George E. Shipman; Junior Warden, Robert M. Burns; Vestry, Burt A. Crowe, A. C. Dilling, G. M. Gaskell, A. Jenks, R. H. Jarrett, C. H. Nelson, G. Vass, and C. dePew Whittle.

When the business of the evening was over the tables were cleared, and a voluntary orchestra under the leadership of Herbert Jarrett appeared and everyone joined in a delightful dance.

The Kenilworth Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Vibe K. Spicer on Monday for its annual business session. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. V. K. Spicer, president; Mrs. E. E. Snyder, vice-president, and Miss Margaret Harris, secretary and treasurer. Plans for the spring and summer garden were discussed, and arrangements made to assist the Kenilworth Bark Board and the Improvement Association in beautifying the village.

Mrs. McClintock's Reading Club will resume its meetings Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mark Cresap with Dicken's "David Copperfield," and "Bleak House" for discussion.

Mrs. John Benham, of Kenilworth avenue, received on Monday afternoon between the hours of four and six o'clock, in honor of Mrs. William Spaulding, of Paris, France.

The Young People's Bridge club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Leon T. Ellis.

The Woman's Chorus of the Neighbors, which is planning to re-organize under the direction of Mrs. Homer Cotton, will meet next Tuesday. This organization under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., was much enjoyed by the Neighbors in former years and there has been many requests for it to resume its activities. Anyone who has a voice and wishes to join will be very welcome. Please phone Mrs. Edwin Hedrick or Mrs. Warren Pease, chairman of the Music committee.

Mrs. Sidney Eastman, Mrs. Hugh Foresman, Mrs. Grant Ridgway, Mrs. Mark W. Cresap and Mrs. Sidney Y. Ball were among those from Kenilworth who attended the musicale at Mrs. George Dryden's in Evanston on Tuesday morning. Marjory Maxwell, accompanied by Mr. George St. Leger, gave a most attractive program. The proceeds from this musicale are for the Northwestern University settlement.

Mrs. W. F. Shattuck, of Melrose avenue, spent Sunday in Columbus, O., where she attended the dedication of the new Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Shattuck as architect of the building, for which over one million was raised, presented the keys to the President of the Board of Directors. It is interesting to hear that over two thousand people were present at this formal dedication.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at "An Hour of Song" presented by Marie Morrissy (Mrs. Roy Keith) on Monday evening, January 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cresap on Essex road, for the benefit of the Park Ridge School for Girls, a charity dear to the hearts of all "The Neighbors."

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Foresman of Essex road, have as their guest, Miss Ruth Bard of Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania. Miss Bard is the niece of Mr. Foresman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon M. Allen were hosts to the Evening Bridge club at dinner on Monday of this week, at their home on Melrose avenue.

Mr. Roy C. Jarrett left Saturday to be gone several days on a business trip in Grand Rapids, Cleveland, Buffalo and Toronto.

Mrs. Earl C. Moss, 312 Cumnor road, is convalescing at the St. Francis hospital, following a major operation.

Miss Mildred Striegel, 531 Abbottsford road, was hostess to her Bridge club on Thursday of last week.

Mr. Alexander Hannah is leaving Monday to join his family at Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Vibe K. Spicer is planning to leave Saturday for a three weeks' stay in New York.

The Kenilworth Club entertained its members at Bridge on Wednesday at the Assembly hall.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Looking Ahead

LAST Spring a total of 350,000 people were disappointed in not being able to obtain deliveries of Ford Cars and Trucks, as orders were placed faster than cars could be produced.

The demand for Ford Cars and Trucks this Spring will, according to all indications, be far greater than last Spring.

Winter buying has been increasing at a greater rate than ever before.

Actual retail deliveries the past 60 days totaled 308,170 Ford Cars and Trucks, an increase of 1,961 a day over a year ago.

Over 200,000 people have already ordered Ford products on our purchase plan, the majority of whom will take delivery in the Spring.

The above facts are given with the suggestion that you list your order promptly with a Ford dealer if you contemplate the purchase of a Ford Car or Truck for use this Spring or Summer and wish to avoid delay in delivery.

Detroit, Michigan

You need not pay cash for your car. You can arrange to make a small deposit down, taking care of the balance in easy payments. Or, you can buy on the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan. This puts you on the preferred order list and insures delivery of your car at a time to be determined by yourself.
