Theater Guild Presents "Red Robe" Tonight

PATRONS and patronesses for "The Red Robe," a tragedy by Eugene Brieux, which is being presented at the Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall this evening by the North Shore Theatre Guild, under the direction of Alexander Dean, include Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Cresap, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgway of Kenilworth, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Boyden, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dunlap Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby G. Walling of Winnetka, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clerk of Glencoe.

There will be two performances of "The Red Robe" in Winnetka, one this evening and one on Monday evening next. The Evanston production takes place January 30 at the Woman's club.

The cast is made up of the following members: Oliver Farnsworth, Dorothy Todd, Mrs. Leslie Parker, Beatrice Pease, Abram Mendenhall, Perry Dunlap Smith, Julia Hanks, Lloyd Faxon, Samuel Otis, Samuel C. Smart, Mrs. Durley Cates, Henry J. Cary-Curr and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson.

Mrs. Porter to Read "Oedipus Rex"

MRS. James Porter's paper on "The Greek Theatre," read before the Drama Study class of the Winnetka Woman's club on Monday afternoon, was delightful. It represented a most comprehensive and painstaking study of the topic. Mrs. Porter has kindly consented to read "Oedipus Rex," a play to appear in Chicago this coming week, to a group of women who will meet on Monday afternoon, January 28, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, 529 Cedar street. Anyone who is interested will be most welcome.

Junior Ice Carnival Attracts to Indian Hill

INDIAN Hill Club is to have a Junior Ice Carnival to be attended in fancy dress costumes tomorrow afternoon. The affairs will open with a grand march at 2 o'clock and there will be many prizes for the various events, as well as for the best costumes.

A Winter Sports dinner-dance, with dinner served at 7:30 o'clock, will follow the afternoon program.

Nancy Foster Betrothed to Michael Straus

MR. and Mrs. James F. Porter announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Foster, to Michael Straus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Straus of West Hinsdale.

The annual Circle rally on Tuesday, January 22, was voted a huge success by the capacity audience which assembled in the new auditorium of Community House. In the opening number which was written especially for the occasion by Mrs. Burton Atwood, the seventeen Circle chairmen, led by Mrs. Childs, demonstrated in a song with words cleverly arranged to the accompaniment of a well known tune, the plans and purposes of the organization. If there was any doubt as to the position in the community occupied by this organization, it was dispelled by the wholeheartedness with which all those interested were received by the women present.

The presentation of the one-act play "Neighbors," written by Zona Gale, and given by the Community Drama club, was very appropriate for the occasion, and there was a ready response in the hearts of the audience to the theme effectively brought out by the well chosen cast of actors. The story is of the application of the Golden Rule in every day life in our contact with those who make up the community in which we live.

The play was followed by a reception in the assembly room where each Circle served refreshments at attractively decorated tables offering the opportunity for a friendly chat over a cup of coffee with old friends and new acquaintances.

The Winnetka Circles are to be congratulated, not only for their loyal co-operation in the successful termination of the afternoon's program, but also for the never failing and tireless efforts on the part of Mrs. R. F. Childs, general chairman, who has given so generously of her time and thought in this work for the benefit of the women of this community.

The Fireman's Masquerade Ball is being held tonight in the Community House.

The MacDowell Musical club of Winnetka and the Evanston Music Study club held a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Roland Whitman, 640 Hill road, on Monday afternoon, January 14. Artists from each club gave the following program which was most unusual and delightful:

According to authentic reports, the benefit bridge and Mah Jongg which was given by the Woman's Guild of Christ church, on Friday evening, January 11, was a great success, socially, and in the realization of sufficient funds to pay off the pledges made by the guild each year to aid in the support of several worthy charities. At the present time the proceeds from the affair amount to over $600 over and above all the expenses incurred, a sum which, it is explained, more than suffices to take care of the pledges to the charitable organizations. Mrs. James Hough-teling, Mrs. Raymond Durham, Mrs. Colton Daughaday and Mrs. Frank Blatchford opened their homes for the occasion.

The Drama league will have its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Fuller of Indian Hill road, on Sunday evening. Mr. Sam Otis will read a play. The members of this group meet every two weeks on Sunday evenings to read and discuss dramatic works and have tea.

Miss Julia Kane, 159 Fuller lane, entertained the girls of Mrs. Bernhard's room on a sleigh-ride last Saturday afternoon. After the ride the party had refreshments at the Hearstone tea-room.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Babcock, 566 Ash street, who have been spending a week in Washington, will return on Saturday.
