ance in London, Paris, New York and Chicago, where her charming personality and brilliant playing won enthusiastic praise both from critics and public.

Mr. Robert Ambrosius, the cellist, is well-known to music lovers of Chicago where he has appeared as soloist with the Symphony orchestra and in ensemble with Harold Bauer. His sympathetic tone quality is combined with sterling musicianship and technical mastery of his instrument.

The regular meeting of the Woman's society has been set for this next week Wednesday at Community House. New garments for sewing will be ready at ten o'clock. The morning program promises to be valuable, with the devotional service lead by Mrs. William Ayer McKinney, and some attractive selections read by Mrs. Edward Wisdom, Jr. With the informal luncheon at noon, this makes a fine opportunity for women in the village to become better acquainted and to share in a bit of useful work for others.

Try to tune in on W. E. A. F., New York's leading radio station for Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett's program on Saturday afternoon, January 26. Mrs. Bartlett, who is a resident of Winnetka, and is well known in north shore musical circles will broadcast a program from 5 until 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey of New York city, formerly of Winnetka, will sing the songs.

Mrs. James I. Houghteling, of 531 Prospect avenue, has been elected as an honorary director of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago, according to an announcement made last week by Mr. Lucius Teter, president of that society. This honor has been conferred upon Mrs. Houghteling because of her long and faithful services as director of that organization. Her daughter, Mrs. Arthur F. Tuttle, 699 Walden road, will take her place as director.

Mrs. S. M. Page Rees of Linden avenue, has as her guests, her sister, Mrs. Robert Peniman Lewis and small son, Edward Caldwell, while Ensign Lewis is south with the Pacific fleet. Mrs. Lewis expects to leave in several weeks for Washington on her way to New York to meet Ensign Lewis in March. After spending several months in the east, Mrs. Lewis will join her husband on the west coast.

Miss Virginia Whitehead of San Francisco, who for the past week has been visiting her sister, Miss Douglass Whitehead, supervisor of dramatics at the Horace Mann school, left Tuesday for New York, for a short visit after which she will return to Winnetka for a few days before going to her home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Arnold, formerly of Winnetka, announce the marriage of their daughter, Laura Amalia, to Mr. Harold G. Austin of Boise, Idaho, Saturday, January 12, at the Rogers Park hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Austin will be at home after February 1, at 114 South Third avenue, in Maywood.

Mrs. Ralph W. Zimmerman, 335 Sheridan road, has as her guests, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gage, who are here from Los Angeles and who will remain with Mrs. Zimmerman until they take up their residence somewhere along the north shore.

Mrs. Gerald H. Beard of 796 Center street, has gone to Minneapolis to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Margaret Kent Beard and Mr. Vincent Gilpin of Westchester, Pennsylvania, which takes place at the home of Mr. Barrington Beard in Washburn Park.

On Saturday afternoon, January 26, Marion R. Lasier is presenting the following children in recital: Bety Parker, Margaret, Louise and Helen Hubsch, Elizabeth Richards, Dorothy and Jack Thomson, Kathryn and Rosalie Roach, Emma Hirsh, Louise and Margaret McKenzie, Jean Henning, Martin Cassell, Janet Orwig, Dorothy Lum, Helen Parsons, Marian and Nancy Thomas, Muriel Uhlemann, Marion Jean Sax, Mary Virginia Wilson, Kathryn French, and Bartlette Price.

Miss Catherine Wortley, of 565 Lincoln avenue, is departing on February 6 for a week's visit in the east. She will attend the Dartmouth Winter Carnival, which is always a great event on the college calendar. A large Carnival ball concludes the festival which lasts for several days. Before returning to Winnetka, Miss Wortley will visit in Williamstown where her brother, Camray, is a student at Williams college.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney F. Bartlett, of 821 Foxdale avenue, left on Monday of last week to spend two weeks in Washington and New York. On Saturday afternoon, January 26, Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett will broadcast a radio program from New York's best station, WEAF, New York City, from 5 until 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Stuart Bailey, formerly of Winnetka, will sing the songs.

Miss Alice De Windt of Sheridan road is departing the last of the month for a ten day visit in the east. She will spend several days in Great Barrington as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delano De Windt.

Miss Jessie Louise Booth will return next Thursday from Urbana, where she attends the University of Illinois. She will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Booth, of 69 Abbottsford road, for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, 997 Vine street, Hubbard Woods, will have as their house-guests over this week-end, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Foote of Minneapolis, who are returning to their home after a visit in Mobile, Alabama.

Mrs. Fred W. Kaempfer, Jr. and her sister-in-law, Miss Kaempfer will be hostesses on Wednesday at the Sovereign hotel at a luncheon and bridge. They will entertain about fifty guests.

Another Winnetka family has recently joined the group of winter vacationists in the south. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Verhoeven and two children of 700 Locust road, will spend the remaining winter months in Florida.

The candidacy of Mrs. William Sherman Hay, 645 Sheridan road, for the office of alumna trustee of Wellesley college has been announced by the Chicago Wellesley club.

National Park Seminary alumnae were the guests of Mrs. William Holabird and Mrs. Frank Kolb at 622 Deming place, Chicago at a mah jongg and bridge party Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. McNie of 266 Forest street are expected to return on Monday from a fortnight's trip to Omaha, Salt Lake city, and Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Dennehy and their daughter, Miss Virginia Dennehy, who make their home in Chicago and Winnetka, departed for Pasadena on Sunday to be away for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Weart of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, former residents of Winnetka, will visit friends in the village on Saturday en route to Mobile and other southern points.

Mrs. Hubert P. Harmon of 1108 Oak street, gave a dinner and card party for twelve friends of her husband on Tuesday evening on the occasion of his birthday.
