Apperson Motor Car Co.
Has Local Distributor

Word has just been received from The Apperson Motor Car company announcing the appointment of the North Shore Apperson company as distributors of The Apperson 6's and 8's in the north shore territory.

Many motorists will be interested in this announcement and the fact that the new concern is headed by Byron S. Coon as president. Owen Coon has been elected secretary, and B. A. Clark as sales manager. These men are all well known along the north shore towns and have been identified with the automobile industry for many years.

Sales and service rooms will be maintained at 1827 Benson avenue, Evanston, where all models of The Apperson will be on display.

"We are anxious to meet all Apperson owners on the North Shore," says Mr. Clark and want them to become familiar with our new organization. Our service station will render prompt, efficient and courteous service at all times and can be easily reached by our owners. We invite all Apperson owners and friends to call and inspect our new headquarters."

Kenilworth Happenings

The concert given at the home of Mrs. Mark Cresap Monday evening, by Marie Morrisey (Mrs. Roy Keith) prima donna contralto, was a pronounced success both artistically and financially. The proceeds are to go to the Park Ridge School for Girls, and the Neighbors feel most grateful to Mme. Morrisey in that she so kindly gave her services for this benefit. Mme. Morrisey who is a well known Edison record artist, sang a number of groups most artistically. She has a most attractive and magnetic presence and captured her audience who were most enthusiastic in her praise.

Mrs. James Keith in introducing the artist, gave a very interesting resume of the work done at Park Ridge.

Chicken à Lorain

One easy turn of the Lorain Red Wheel gives you a choice of 44 measured and controlled oven heats for any kind of oven cooking or baking.

Recipe
Chicken à Lorain
Dress, clean and cut up fowl. Dip pieces in flour—patting the flour into every part of surface and then shaking off surplus. Place in roaster and pour melted butter over them. Set uncovered in oven, turn "LORAIN" to 450 degrees, leave at this temperature until the skin is seared a delightful brown. Put cover on roaster. Turn "LORAIN" to 275 degrees for a three hour meal or 250 degrees for a four or five hour meal. No further attention is required until dinner is ready, when you will remove from your oven the most delicious chicken you ever ate—even if it happened the fowl were not young. Soup, sweet potatoes, squash and a barley spice cake may also be placed in the oven after the searing temperature has been reduced and will be found perfectly done at dinner time.

Any woman who owns a Lorain-equipped Gas Range can easily prepare this favorite delicacy COOKERY, until a few years ago, was an inaccurate art. Today it is an exact science because the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator gave housewives an easy way to measure and control heat. No longer need you wonder why the appetizing recipes you try, sometimes fail to meet your expectations.

Two new elements, you'll notice, are now being included in the best recipes—"Time and Temperature." Formerly, recipes gave exact quantities of ingredients only. The exact temperature and length of time for cooking were left for the reader to guess.

Then came the invention of the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator. It's a simple, accurate automatic device attached only to certain makes of Gas Ranges. With Lorain you tell the oven just what heat you want. Automatically that heat will be maintained for any length of time.

Now, when you read a modern recipe, such as that given on this page, you can exactly duplicate the success of the originator, if you own a Lorain-equipped Gas Range. Just prepare the ingredients as explained. Set Lorain at the temperature required. Then go where you will, and do what you please until cooking time is up. Everything in the oven will be deliciously ready to serve when you return.

We are always glad to explain the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator—the Regulator with the Red Wheel. Come in to our store. You can then see for yourself how this magic oven will cook, bake, roast, boil and stew—all at one time—without any attention. Ask us for a copy of the interesting booklet "An Easier Day's Work."
